SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Chief of Police D. A. White died here early Sunday from influenza and complications after an illness of ten days.

OROVILLE, Dec. 2.—Purchase of Exploration dredger No. 5, which operated in the Oroville field for a number of years was made yesterday by W. H. Hyland, a representative of a Mexican dredging company. The dredger will be repaired, then sent to Mexico, where it will again be placed in operation.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Fire Chief L. C. Moore, who still labors under technical arrest, promises to teach the police elementary law in the police court. On complaint of several citizens who noticed, Saturday night, the fire chief's auto stationed squarely against a fire plug at Sixth and K streets, Detective Henry Balz thereupon tagged his car, placing the chief under technical arrest.

REDDING, Dec. 2.—Jesite Lima, a little girl living in Arcata, now has title to a $500 lot in San Francisco, all because she pleased Gustaf E. Westerholm when he stopped in her father's hotel three years ago.

CHICO, Dec. 2.—Vigorous measures are being taken to enforce the branding law, which is aimed at stopping cattle thieving. Joseph Borba of Nerd was brought before Justice of the Peace J. L. Barnes in Chico charged, under the state law, with using a branding iron on his cattle, the brand of which is not recorded.

STOCKTON, Dec. 2.—Owners of about 200,000 sheep handled in this portion of California met in the rooms of the Stockton chamber of commerce and authorized the expansion of the central California wool growers' association to include not only sheepmen of Livermore but also of Stockton and vicinity.

FRESNO, Dec. 2.—Two persons were killed and another fatally injured in an accident near Herndon this Sunday when an automobile was struck by a northbound Southern Pacific passenger train. The driver, C. D. Harwell, superintendent of schools at San Leandro, and his daughters were the only occupants of the car to escape injury.

WOODLAND, Dec. 2.—Out of 90 cases, of smallpox a month ago only 15 remain of the epidemic which threatened the whole county, according to Dr. W. J. Blevins, city and county health officer, today. There is about one quarantine a day coming in now as against three and four three weeks ago.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Led by Inspector of Police Howard Sitton, a squad consisting of Detectives Ted Koenig, Robert Dundas, Michael Conaty, Harry Lohmeyer and Deputy Sheriff Hall Frahm Saturday raided an underground opium den at 314 1/2 Alley, 1 and J. streets.

AT THE LIBERTY THEATRE There are many thrilling scenes in "The Notorious Mrs. Sands," the latest Robertson-Cole Superior picture starring Bessie Barriscale, which will be shown at the Liberty theatre tonight.

The drama adapted for the screen from an original story by M. E. Hovey, abounds intense dramatic situations.

The most gripping of the great moments of the picture occur in the court room scene, reputed to be the finest ever screened, when Mrs. Sands (Miss Barriscale) sacrifices her honor to save her lover from prison. Other scenes show Miss Barriscale as a "schoolmarm" and as the most sought after woman in an unusual ballroom set.

Want a friend? Get a dog! That's what Ed, the orphans' home kid, did. It was a stray dog, and Ed had to hide it in the coal cellar so the matron wouldn't find it. The cook couldn't understand what made him so willing to carry all the coal for her. She thought maybe he had got religion, he was suddenly so kind and
