SUMMONS
Equity No. 1224

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF KLAMATH.

Charles G. Swartzfager, Plaintiff, vs. Hannah Simpson, also known as Hannah Swartzfager, Defendant.

To Hannah Simpson, also known as Hannah Swartzfager.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 24th day of January, 1921, that being the last day of publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear, answer, demur, plead or otherwise move, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: for a decree of this court annulling, setting aside and decreeing as void the said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable and proper.

This summons is served upon you, the said defendant, by publication thereof in The Evening Herald, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, for six (6) consecutive weeks (seven (7) insertions), the first publication being December 13, 1920, and the last publication being January 24, 1921, by order of the Honorable D. V. Kuykendall, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath; and the said order was made and dated the 28th day of October, 1920.

All process and papers in this proceeding may be served upon the undersigned residing within the State of Oregon, at the address hereafter mentioned.

WALTER C. VAN EMON AND AUGUSTIN DONOVAN,

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Address: 209-10 Willis Bldg., Klamath Falls, Ore.

Oh! The Joy of It!

Day in and day out! Night in and night out! What a joy to her—young and old—is a wrist watch! We have a variety both in style and price to suit every one. And, by the way, don't think that your wife or your mother will not appreciate a wrist watch just as much as the little sweetheart does. If you have any doubts, just try it and see.

Everything in the jewelry line. And, remember, we sell the Brunswick Phonograph.

PROGRAM OF THE

Catholic Ladies' Bazaar

WEDNESDAY EVENING

The Big Opening Dance will start at 8:30. Refreshments will be served after 10 p. m. A program replete with special features has been prepared for this evening.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

At 2 p. m. will start the sale of the most beautiful embroideries ever shown in the city. Other articles of exceptional value will be on sale, affording everyone an opportunity of purchasing for gifts, articles possessed of individuality, exquisite workmanship and unmatched beauty. Afternoon tea and light lunch will be served from 3 to 5 p. m., the following menu being served for 35 cents:

CHICKEN SALAD
SANDWICH STRIPS
TEA

Reserve a table for your tea party.

THURSDAY EVENING

Conversations.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

This will be children's afternoon, and we have heard whispers that Santa Claus will be in the hall from 3 to 5 o'clock to learn what the children would like to have him bring them for Xmas. There will be a letter box for messages to Santa Claus, and you should not fail to fill with joy and innocent anticipation the heart of your little one by having them mail a letter to Santa and then you can see that it is answered.

FRIDAY EVENING

Another of the delightful dances for which this Bazaar will be noted. Sale of goods, amusements and refreshments.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Sale of goods will be held from 2 to 6 o'clock. From 3 to 5 o'clock light luncheon and tea will be served, the menu being the same as on Thursday afternoon. Do not forget to reserve a table for your tea party.

SATURDAY EVENING

The big closing dance will be given. Elaborate plans have been made to make this evening a memorable one for fun. Since the affair is to be somewhat in the nature of a Mardi Gras, those who wish to come on masque will be welcomed and a prize will be given for the best and one for the most ridiculous costumes. Special features will be interspersed throughout the evening and refreshments will be served after 10 o'clock. It will come to a close promptly at midnight. The sale of goods will continue throughout the evening.

Our Sale Brought the Crowds

THE SALE PRICES MADE AN EXTRAORDINARY APPEAL TO THOSE WHO WERE WAITING FOR LOWER PRICES.

Many customers expressed their appreciation on finding goods priced exactly as advertised. You could have brought the Herald to our sale and waited upon yourself.
