

The store where women can pick the practical and reliable gift for their men folk

The average man is not very enthusiastic about the gift that only glitters for a day. He wants something useful, sturdy and beautiful—something that will last—something that "every other man" will not have.

This being a store for men we specialize in getting the things that a man prefers. Come to HIS store—this store—a man's store.

Well Known Local
Girl Weds Gothamite

A wedding of interest to the Klamath Falls younger set was that of Miss Dorothy M. Miller, a well-known city girl, to Walter J. Williams of New York, Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. T. Trimble in the presence of Miss Josephine McClain and Miss Inez Bell, both girlhood friends of Miss Miller.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller, who are making their home at Pine Ridge this winter. Mr. Williams has been employed by the Modoc Lumber company and has been stationed at Pine Ridge, and it was there that the romance which culminated in marriage started a few months ago. The young people will leave soon for New York where they will make their home.

THE STAR THEATRE

Charles Ray is again the bashful youth who develops into a world-beater in his new screen comedy, "Alarm Clock Andy," which is coming to the Star theatre Tuesday next. This time the star is Andy Gray, shy, stuttering salesman for an auto truck concern. Anxious to forge ahead in business, he strives to overcome his short comings by patterning after the firm's star salesman, Blinker, who is really a fourflusher. Andy comes in contact by chance with Dodge, a big buyer of trucks. The latter is impressed with the boy's determination.

A lucky accident puts Andy "in soft" with his boss's pretty daughter and he follows her on his vacation to a summer resort. All the time he is masquerading under the name of Blinker, and when he again encounters Dodge and closes a big order with him, complications result thick and fast. Needless to say they are straightened out happily and Blinker meets his due reward. So does Andy.

The picture was produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount Artercraft release. George Webb, Millicent Fisher, and Tom Guise are in the supporting cast.

THE LIBERTY THEATRE

No ancestral home is complete without a spook or two. The house that figures in a ghastly, ghostly fashion in Harold Lloyd's new comedy "Haunted Spooks," wasn't really haunted, all the evidence to the contrary notwithstanding. It is said that a grouch won't have the ghost of a chance when it sees the antics of Harold Lloyd and his leading lady, Mildred Davis, when "Haunted Spooks" is shown at the Liberty theatre tonight.

Hobart Henley, the actor-director, enters the ranks of producer as well when he presents "The Gay Old Dog," the Pathe picture coming to the Liberty theatre tonight.

UNDERWOOD'S

What maid could resist such a costume as this? It is of silky, black sateen with the many little ruffles fluted, then scalloped and placed very close upon each other.

The skirt is held a trifle full as the deep, decorative fulcrum is applied to it. The pretty cap and apron set, with the sleeve ruffles added, is made of soft muslin instead of the usual crisp organdie.
