

AT THE THEATRES

THOMAS MEIGHAN and GLORIA SWANSON in a scene from CECIL B. DeMILLE'S PRODUCTION, "WHY CHANGE YOUR WIFE?" A PARAMOUNT ARTCRAFT PICTURE

AT THE STAR THEATRE TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

THE STAR THEATRE

Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount Artercraft production, "Why Change Your Wife?" will come to the Star theatre for two days commencing tonight. It is described as a striking drama of married life lavishly presented. Gloria Swanson and Thomas Meighan are the featured players. The story is by William DeMille. The plot centers around Robert and Beth Gordon, married for ten years, but now beginning to drift apart. Beth was a charming girl. She has become a too wifely wife and bores her husband with her excessive solicitude for his comforts. He finds diversion in the company of vivacious, pleasure-loving Sally Clark. Literal-minded Beth imagines them in love. A divorce follows, and Robert marries Sally. Too late Beth discovers why she lost her husband and, blossoming like a rose, develops into society's gayest figure. Sally, on the other hand, is transformed by marriage into a worse household drudge than Beth ever was. Robert's eyes are opened when he again sees Beth, and through a dramatic series of events they are brought happily together.

The picture has been produced with all the beauty of setting, mastery of screen technique, and admirable attention to detail that was characteristic of Cecil B. DeMille in "Male and Female" and his other cinema classics. Sada Cowan and Olga Printzau furnished the scenario.

With a story, star and production that bid fair to set the pace for screen attractions for months to come, "Passions Playground," adapted from the famous story of Monte Carlo, "The Guests of Hercules," will be shown at the Star theatre, commencing Sunday.

The infinite opportunities for picturization of the famous gambling story induced Katherine MacDonald, "the American beauty," to select it as the starring vehicle for her latest release under her contract with First National Exhibitors' Circuit. Despite her remarkable past successes, Miss MacDonald has never been seen in a picture that equals "Passions Playground," for dramatic moments.

Rearing in a convent, the blood of a gambler in her veins, unknowing of the ways of the world, Miss MacDonald takes the part of Mary Grant who leaves the convent upon receipt of her inheritance to make her way to Monte Carlo. Here, Mary becomes involved in the schemes of a set of society bleeders whose efforts to ensnare her prove to be replete with thrills.

European Relief Canvass Will Be Begun Next Week

Due to holiday duties and the delay in arrival of literature, little will be done until next week to forward the campaign to collect Klamath's $4800 quota for the relief of starving European children, announced the Rev. E. P. Lawrence today. Next week a general canvass of the city will be undertaken.

Those who desire to contribute now, however, may leave their subscriptions with any of the local banks or with Arthur Wilson at 517 Main street, chairman of the campaign.

Many persons daily stop members of the committee on the street and seek to give to the relief cause, and the committee believes that when the campaign is started that the fund will be easily raised.

Ten dollars, it is estimated will save the life of one child. Klamath county is allotted 480 lives to save.

Knights Templar Elect Officers

At the meeting of Calvary Commandery Knights Templar last Wednesday evening, the Order of the Temple was conferred upon A. J. Voye, Dr. T. C. Campbell, Will Baldwin, Dr. George I. Wright and W. E. Lamm.

At this time, also, the election of officers for the ensuing year occurred and the following were selected and will be installed at a later date. Frank Ward, Eminent Commander; L. L. Brownell, Generalissimo; E. S. Henry, Captain General; Charles J. Ferguson, Senior Warden; C. E. Jay, Junior Warden; George J. Walton, Prelate; Marion Hanks, Treasurer; M. S. West, Recorder; E. D. Lamb, Standard Bearer; George Chastain, Sword Bearer; Don J. Zumwalt, Warden; J. E. Bratton, Sentinel.

HELD FOR BOOTLEGGING

Bob Santini, charged with bootlegging on the Indian reservation, appeared before Bert Thomas yesterday afternoon. He conducted his own case. Enough testimony was furnished to justify binding him over to the grand jury and his bonds were fixed at $1500, which has not been raised up to date.

A CHRISTMAS ARRIVAL

A near Christmas present was Nanette Goeller, born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goeller at their home on Pine street. The baby weighed eight pounds and is doing nicely as is her mother.

masts are careening at wild angles—these are actual scenes in the Universal-Jewel production, "Under Crimson Skies," which will be shown at the Liberty theatre tonight. Director Rex Ingram is said to have waited three weeks one hundred miles off the Golden Gate for the proper weather conditions to lend atmosphere to the production.

A man with the blood of the south in his veins, a Spaniard, and living under the hot sun of the Rio Grande, when his love turns to hatred because of suspicion—that man should be given plenty of elbow room, else there'll be trouble. This is one of the points strikingly brought out in "The Poppy Trail," fifth of the Republic-made Chief Flynn series of two-reelers which will be shown at the Liberty theatre Christmas day.

"Lightning" of the secret service under the direction of Chief William J. Flynn turns up along the Rio Grande. He has been detailed to "get the goods" on a group of opium smugglers led by Miguel. This he does with the aid given him unwittingly by Sylvania, queen of the smugglers. "The Poppy Trail," once it gets under way, moves with the speed of the wind. It affords a rare insight into the manner by which the secret service forces of the government accomplish their end and of the dangers attached thereto.

The third of the "Young Buffalo" outdoor dramas starring Phillip-Yale Drew, pictures the daring capture of a sheriff who was also a highway robber. This is "The Law of the Border," the action taking place in the Canadian northwest and Montana. Director George Ridgwell has selected some unusually beautiful scenery against which to enact this thrilling two-reeler, which is at the Liberty theatre on Christmas day.
