EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Luster With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though, no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and look years younger.—Adv.

HE TAKES CAKE!

FRED N. ZIHLMAN

What good is it, of why he wants to keep it, goodness knows! Anyhow, here's Representative Fred N. Zihlman of Maryland, with a little piece of fruit cake baked in 1872, sent him by an admiring constituent, S. T. Stull, of Cumberland, Md. Zihlman is shown holding the inkstand in which the cake is encased. Stull's son carried this slice on the battlefields of France. President Wilson has another slice—or at least he had another slice—of the same cake, sent him when he married the present Mrs. Wilson. Billy Sunday, the evangelist, has had a third piece for years.

Experiments have proved that it is possible to change the color of certain precious and semi-precious stones by exposing them to the action of radium. A scientist put a number of sapphires of different kinds into a box that contained a small quantity of radium. A month later the white sapphires had become yellow; the blue sapphires, green; the wine-colored sapphires, red; the dark-blue sapphires, violet.

Marriage is not a religious ceremony among the Burmese. There is a ceremony, of course, but the only necessary and binding part of it is that the couple should, in the presence of witnesses called together for the purpose, eat out of the same bowl.

There are over a 100 varieties of holly.
