

MODERN FARMER MUST BE AN ALL ROUND MECHANIC

OREGON AGRICULTURE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 28.—The farmer of today operates more kinds of machinery and has more responsibility in their care and efficiency than the average professional mechanic in the city," says W. J. Gilmore, in announcing his tractor and farm machinery short courses at O. A. C., starting January 3. One course will run for two weeks and the other for 12. A second two-week course will begin January 17.

The two-week course is aimed to help the farmer select the type of tractor best suited to his needs, and to overhaul it and his other machines for upkeep and repairs. Much practice will be given in operating single and multiple cylinder engines, and in running tractor in and out doors.

The 12 week course will consist of instruction and practice in running tractors and in learning the construction and care of tractor motors and other farm machinery.

"Many small repairs and adjustments can be made only with the aid of shop experience," says Professor Gilmore. "This experience can be obtained with comparatively little training. Delays in making the repairs, though, are often expensive in both time and money."

Farmers and other students taking these courses will have the benefit of 12 makes and models of tractors, provided for the purpose. Several practical representatives of eastern factories have promised, to be on hand to help out in the training.

Many types of farm machinery and equipment are brought in for overhauling by the students, under supervision of the instructors.

WANDERLUST ALLY OF MARINE CORPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—That restlessness is the most pronounced characteristic of the present day American youth is strongly indicated by figures covering 926 boys of military age who were enlisted at the Parris Island recruit depot of the Marine corps in November. The desire for travel was the reason given by 45 per cent of the recruits. Vocational and educational ambitions came second with the 37 per cent. Of the remaining 18 per cent lack of employment led with ten per cent, military training followed with six per cent and the remaining two per cent confessed to ambitions to become aviators.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-ache or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

One of the most general superstitions about people born on Christmas day, a superstition that will be found in many countries, is that they have the power of healing by "laying on of the hands," and of second sight. They are held to possess some hidden magnetic power which enables them to soothe anyone in pain, and so help them on their way to recovery and perfect health.

If the Wood Dealer Sold Service

We do not sell current; we sell service. That sounds odd doesn't it?

Well, suppose the wood dealer sold service instead of wood, he would tend to your furnace and your range, take away the ashes and clean the flues. You would buy so much heat.

Now you buy so much light, although you pay, according to the current you consume. But the service is performed for you by this company at the substations and power plants.

That is what we want to give you—efficient service. It is the aim of this company to have none but satisfied customers. No matter what it is, if you have a grievance, or are dissatisfied about your bill or do not understand our rates, please come in and see us or write us about it.

If you have any suggestions to make, we will gladly avail ourselves of them as our aim is constantly to improve our service to you as fast as the development of science and human ability permit.

About Other People--and About You!

There are two kinds of news in the paper. Part of the news is about the affairs of other people; their sayings, doings and goings to do; things that have happened—may happen—didn't happen.

But there's also a lot of news in this paper—if you know where to look for it—about your affairs.

That's the part of the news you'll find in the Advertisements. There's valuable news there about things you want or will want; perhaps about things you have that others want.

Every Advertisement carries a message to someone.

Many Advertisements carry messages of interest or value to you.

You can't afford to miss the Advertisements because so many of them are news relating directly to you or to your affairs.
