

Home, Sweet Home

This is a delouser. It is also the home of two Greek refugees, mother and child, in the Near East relief camp at Batum on the Black Sea. Found for them. Turks killed the rest of the family.

Benjamin Franklin's Anniversary to Be Celebrated Jan. 17

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The versatile accomplishments of Benjamin Franklin will be retold throughout the country by various organizations on January 17, the 214th anniversary of his birth. In a number of celebrations tributes will be paid to him as a statesman, diplomat, philosopher, scientist, journalist, economist, salesman, philanthropist, humorist, printer and publisher. As an advocate of spending less than one makes, Franklin is to be honored on his birthday by the national thrift week committee, which is encouraging other celebration of his work. University of Pennsylvania alumni here plan to hail him as the founder of their alma mater. Libraries in many cities will call attention to Franklin as the founder of the first public library in the colonies.

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Etiquette!

A gentleman is Oswald Slater. He doffs his hat in an elevator Or any place where ladies are—Then puffs up on a black cigar.

Merey Presumption On Our Part. Meat cutters of Grand Rapids, Mich., have organized. For their official union seal, we prezoom, they'll have a flat on a pair of scales.

Some wise gazabo and it wasn't Gus Krause, either, said: "If you come out of the little end of the horn, pick it up and toot it."

Why Not Go Back and Make A Face Attum?

Dear Office Kat: I've sworn off on this honest injun stuff. Yesterday I went to the post-office to buy a book of stamps and handed the guy behind the bars a dollar bill. He gave me the change, the book and I walks out still holding the $1 bill, a book and change to the good. I got clear to the door when I found I had the $1 in my hand. I went back—honest I did—and give him the dollar. Did I get a cheery smile? No wonder the temperature dropped. The gink uh huhed, "uh huh," rough like, and said "next."—Noah Lott.

A Regular Butcher

A most notorious slayer Is he, I've heard folks say; No blood he spills Although he kills A dozen hours each day.

Known

And father will start raising Cain because mother forgot to put his other suit of underwear in the laundry. And mother will ask him why he doesn't attend to his own laundry, and informs him that if he would spend a little more time at home and not so much in the pool rooms he would be better off. And then father will slam the door and go out and leave a trail of blue cuss words all the way up the street.

Diogenes! Oh, Di-oge-ne-e-ees

(Kansas City Star) FOR SALE—Ford roadster; body looks tough, engine good; tires poor; $195; 1726 Walnut.

A Financial Ape

A crowd of romping Herald carriers were endangering the office window yesterday and Mrs. Murray started to tone down their exuberance.

"That window cost $250," she gently explained. "If you broke it, how do you think you would pay for it?" "Aw, charge it up to the dust and let the rain settle it," promptly replied the smallest of the lot.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to go home, and wrap up a suit of clean underwear every Saturday night and then go to the barber shop and take a bath?

Ow' Cheer Up! Remember Even The Bee Has Its Ill Sting

Dear Junius: Never again will I be interested. Poets may rave about God's free air and wild flowers and all of that. But my flinty soul shall remain as adamant.

Why? Because even honey has increased in price.—I. O. Dine.

A Versatile Stove (Conneaut (O.) News-Herald) FOR SALE—One steel range, in good condition. Can burn coal or wood, also cabbage and onions. Call 2135 Brown, mornings and evenings. C. H. Smith, Corner Middle and Bailey-rds.

Popular Fiction

"Maw, I dunno why the teacher allus picks on me, but she does."

TEXAS CATTLE MEN MEET TO TALK IT OVER

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 13.—El Paso is filled with cattlemen here to discuss the serious plight of their business at the 24th annual convention of the American National Livestock association. The convention opened today and continues three days. The "wave of deflation," according to leaders, has swept livestock prices below the cost of production.

Stockmen cannot get loans to continue their business, they say, and this has caused liquidation of much livestock that should have been "kept for further finishing or breeding."

Ike Pryor of San Antonio, is expected to deal vigorously with adverse conditions in the industry when he speaks during the convention on "The Tariff as it Affects the Farm and Ranch."

Other speakers include W. S. Culbertson, member of the United States tariff commission; Senator J. B. Kendrick, of Wyoming, president of the association; S. F. Tolmie, minister of agriculture, Dominion of Canada; W. W. Turney, president of the Texas Cattle Raisers association; and J. S. Miller, governor of the Kansas City federal reserve bank.

"REAL SONG HITS"

All By a Local Composer

"After"

A beautiful melody in waltz time. This is the Song that made such a hit at the Masonic hall recently.

"Would a Little Bit of Love Make Life Seem Sweeter"

The biggest song-hit since "Let the Rest of the World Go By." This number is being featured from one end of the country to the other.

"Till the Tides of the Ocean Refuse to Flow"

A snappy love song that is full of melody.

"The Golden Threads Are Turning Into Silver"

One of the old-style melodies rapidly coming back into "new-style" again.

ALL OF THESE NUMBERS ON SALE AT THE KLAMATH FALLS MUSIC HOUSE. Geo. A. Wirtz, Prop.
