PROGRESS

By JOE CONOLEY

Joe says a banana peel has nothing on a muddy sidewalk—except him. When progress hits a village. And it's on the upward span. And the natives are o'erjoyed. At some well developed plan.

And they gather in at meetin' For to mention—what a snap— That we have the largest city For its size upon the map.

And such projects are encompassed As would make us all take note That we overlook the eye-sore That would get a fellow's goat.

'Cause the snow that's left a meltin' On the sidewalk every day Would improve our observation Should it all be swept away.

And that thoroughfare is muddy And the stranger plants his feet Where he thinks they're safely anchored.

And he spies some evidences Of a raging fire that's burned Several places of the mortals Who have fire protection learned.

Now you understand I'm speakin' As a gent who's here to stay And I want to see us prosper And to make a brighter day.

And I recommend we shovel. Each and every res'tent. And we move this charred old Dwelling of these lizzies that are spent.

And I prophesy its better that We do the things we can. Than to conjure on the future Of some big gigantic plan.

PUBLIC HEALTH

(By DR. A. A. SOULE)

There is some apprehension aroused in Fort Klamath by the acting health officer lifting quarantine on part of the hotel in which the small-pox case was confined. This is to be expected, but fear should not usurp the throne of facts.

Looking over thousands of papers every week, we notice that fish and snake stories are holding their own pretty well, but there are more mentions of champion hens and large and peculiar eggs than ever before, indicating that this is truly the age of feminism.

OUR DEAR CAPTAIN

(NOTE—The following poem was written by a young lady admirer of Captain J. W. Siemens, Miss Eva Dillard, 17 years old, a local high school student.)

For years our old and faithful Captain true Has tried to keep his friends from getting blue, And well indeed, we know his plan has worked; We know from loving kindness he's not shirked.

Just now we notice he's not quite so gay, But he has been so honest all the way We know he's capable of making good, For he's done well when we could not have stood.

We love, admire and long to see this man To rise much higher in this prosperous land; And sure, we know he'll be right there— He'll clear the doubts you have in this affair.

Dear Captain, you must now cheer up in life— We'll all our best regards give you in the strife, In kind remembrance of the love you've shown When we felt very sad, and all alone.

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Historical Item

"How's this for a tribute to old King Solomon," said the Street Corner Idler, as he handed the following clipping which was headed, "Bobby's Essay," to the office cat. King Solumn was a man who lived so many years in the country that he wuz the hole push. He wuz a offel wize guy and 1 day 2 wimmen came 2 him each 1 holdin' the legs of a babe and nerely pulling the kid in 2 and each clameing it, and King Sol wasn't feeling just rite and sed, "why cudent the brat ben twinz and stopt this mixup," and then he calld for his aworde 2 splitt this innocent little kid so each ov the wimmen cud hav 1/2, when the reel ma of the baibe butv in and sex, "stopp, Solumn, stay thi hand, and let the old hagg hav the kid, for if I can't have a hole kid I don't want anny," and King Solumn told her 2 take the baiby and go home and wash its face, for he was hep it was hers, and told the other datme to go chais herself. King Solumn wuz father of the masens and bilt Solumn's temple. He had 700 wifes and more than 300 gladdly frend, and that iz why there is so many masens in the world. Pa sez that King Solumn wuz a warm member and I think he was hot stuf myself.

Some Fellows See More Jack Slater says he found a rattlesnake in his cellar. That's easy enough if you stay in the cellar long enough—and have anything in the cellar to stay for.

A la Daddy "Does the baby take after your husband?" asked Mrs. Hutchins. "Yes, indeed," said Mrs. Metz. "We have taken his bottle away from him, and the other day the little darling tried to creep down the cellar steps."

It pays to flatter any woman. If you don't believe it ask Fred Baker. "Who is the head of the family," Shrieks a wellknown author. Answering for nobody else, we solemnly aver, that we know who she is in our family.

Bill Lorenz is working on a song, to be entitled "He used to be an alchound, but he's a snow bird now."

I know a girl named Mary Tree, Who makes me rub my glims; For, just because her name is Tree, She likes to show her limbs.

I know a girl named Carrie Cow, Who surely makes me laugh; For just because her name is Cow, She likes to show her neck.

We don't claim to know much. The fact of the matter is, we've never been accused of it. But we do know that the way to get the best of an argument is to stay out of it.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Siphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

NEWS FROM MERRILL

MERRILL, Ore., Jan. 19.—The bee-keeping outlook for this county is very good, according to John Woodhouse, a newcomer in Merrill. Mr. Woodhouse is now assembling his bee hives, and will have about 300 of them. He expects to buy or lease several small ranches this spring and summer, and will use the acreage in making a thorough test of bee raising possibilities here.

The Klamath Falls creamery expects to establish a branch station in Merrill in the near future. Wood is somewhere in the neighborhood of $15 a cord, and you can consider yourself lucky if you get it at that figure.

Eggs are six bits a dozen, and bacon is clear out of sight. What are we going to do for our morning ham and eggs?

Recent rains in this vicinity have caused Lost River to overflow, inundating more than 500 acres near the river's mouth.

FREE SEEDS HERE

Through the courtesy of Congressman N. J. Sinnott the Herald has received a quantity of free government seeds for distribution. Included in each package are beans, beet, lettuce, radish and onion seeds. Any one desiring a package may have them by calling at this office.

If out of town subscribers want any of these seeds they will be mailed a package upon request.

A SPLENDID POLICY

If you were offered a life insurance policy that did not absorb any part of your premium, in a company that was safe and sound, it is not likely that you would refuse it. In fact the agent offering such a policy would be swamped with business. Well, that is practically what W. A. Bullock, of this city is doing. He is selling a policy in the Occidental Life Insurance Co. of Los Angeles, Calif., that does this very thing. Here is how it is done:

He will write you a policy on the 20 year endowment plan guaranteeing you that in the event of death to return all deposits made by you in addition to the full face of your policy.

Should you become totally disabled from sickness or accident, the company have made special provision whereby you will have no further payments to make and will pay $10 per month on each thousand dollars of insurance you carry which is not deducted from your policy at death. Besides, your policy matures the same as though you had made the payments yourself.

This is one of the best policies ever offered by any legal reserve company and has other special features just as remarkable as those outlined above. Before you buy that insurance you are thinking about. If you will call Mr. Bullock, 43-W or drop a card to 1405 Oregon Ave. He will be mighty glad to tell you all about it.—Adv.
