

MANY PERMITS FOR IRRIGATION

During the months of October, November and December, 98 permits were issued by State Engineer Percy A. Cupper, covering the appropriation of water from various streams and other sources for the irrigation of 25,398 acres of land, the development of 180 horsepower, domestic, mining, fluming lumber and various other purposes, at an estimated cost of approximately $1,000,000. Seven reservoir permits have been issued, covering the storage of 3,714 acre feet of water.

Among the more important projects contemplated for irrigation development are those of W. E. Martin of Newbridge, Oregon, covering the irrigation of 4,062 acres of land with the waters of Snake river; F. C. Dearinger and others of Hereford, covering the irrigation of 963 acres of land with the waters of North Fork of Burnt river; F. A. Phillips and A. N. Ingle of Baker, Oregon, for supplemental supply for irrigation of 1550 acres of land, with the waters of Main Eagle creek; J. B. Wilson, J. W. Wilson and J. A. Wilson of North Powder, Oregon, covering the irrigation of 1175 acres of land with the waters of Anthony creek, Anthony gorge and Mud lake reservoirs; the Fort Klamath Meadows company of Fort Klamath, Oregon, for the irrigation of 9318 acres of land in Klamath county with the waters of Four Mile creek, Seven Mile creek and Anna slough; A. M. Geary of Portland, for the irrigation of 7100 acres of land in Klamath county, with the waters of Upper Klamath lake; the Mount Ruben Mining company of Grants Pass, Oregon, covering the appropriation of water from Reuben creek for development of 87 horsepower at an estimated cost of $10,000; and W. H. Sales of Mohler, Oregon, covering the appropriation of water from Foley creek for the development of 87 horsepower in Tillamook county.

Step Up Men! You're Next!

Now is the time for all mere men to stand together. For the ladies have decided that in 1922 grandpa, father, grown-up brother and little Willie shall wear "Buster Brown" tresses. Washington society has carried the bobbing craze to the limit so far as women are concerned. Not only the flapper and the debutante, but mother and snow-haired grandma have followed suit. Three Washington beauties shown here wearing the latest words in bobs are: (left to right) Mme. Hurban, wife of Colonel Vlademir S. Hurban of the Czecho-Slovakian legation; Miss Zilla McDougall, debutante, and Miss Anna Hamlin, a debutante of last season.

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Sunday in the Average Household
7 a. m.—Family all in the hay.
7:30 a. m.—Ditto.
8:00 a. m.—More of the same.
8:15 a. m.—Head of family sits up sleepily in bed and looks at the clock.
8:17 a. m.—Crawls out and goes down to fix the furnace.
8:30 a. m.—Rest of family starts crawling out of the feathers and coming down stairs one a time.
8:45 a. m.—Breakfast.
9:15 a. m.—till 10:45—Head of family monopolizes the Sunday paper.
11:15 a. m.—Mrs. Head of Family finishes washing the dishes starts to get dinner.
12 p. m.—Tells husband not to scatter paper all over the house.
12:15—Baby gets hold of funny sheet and tears it up before anybody else has had a squirt at it.
1 p. m.—Dinner. Head of Family and wife sit around and ask each other why they eat roast every Sunday. Asks if there's nothing else to be had.
2 till 5 p. m.—Head of family and wife sit around and ask each other why they can't live as well as the family across the street. In the meantime the family across the street is discussing the same subject.
5 to 7 p. m.—Problem of whether to attend church or a movie show comes up.
7:15 p. m.—Movie show wins.
7:15 till 10 p. m.—At the movies. Arrived late at first show and had to see it all through to make any sense out of it.
10:30 p. m.—Home and to bed.

Her Reason

There are several million of laws, We are sometimes check'd and we pause, While the lawyers are looking for flaws, A woman just says: "Because."

Some people "know" and others merely "state their opinions." It is much easier to live with the latter.

A Hot One From Bill Lee
"Money profiteth not in the day of judgment, but it helpeth mightily in the meantime."

A man may leave footprints in the sands of time," but they are pretty sure to be mused up beyond recognition by those of the gang that trails along behind him.

A Widow's Gratitude

A woman who lost her husband by death, sent the following communication to her local newspaper:
"Mr. Editor: I desire to thank the friends and neighbors most heartily, in this manner, for the united aid and co-operation during the illness and death of my late husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death on Friday last while eating breakfast. To the friends and all who contributed so willingly toward making the last moments and funeral of my husband a success I desire to remember most kindly, hoping these few lines will find them enjoying the same blessing. I have also a good milch cow and roan gelding horse, 8 years old, which I will sell cheap. 'God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. He plants his footsteps on the sea and rides upon the storm;' also a black and white shote, very low."

Precocious

(Cincinnati Enquirer)
A little chap who had just felt the hard side of a slipper, turned to his parent for consolation.
"Mamma," he asked, "did grandpa spank daddy when he was little?"
"Yes," replied his mother, impressively.
"And did his daddy spank him?"
"Yes."
"And did his daddy spank him?"
"Yes."
A pause.
"Well, who started the habit, anyway?"

Makes Illness Easy

Emmitt Magee of Underwood's pharmacy, was heard to warble on last Bargain Day:
Come into our store today And see the prices fall; Our Wednesday bargains bring disease Within the reach of all.
A man must be all right when his small son admits that "dad is a good scout."

This is a great life. We learn something today, and tomorrow we find out that it was a typographical error.

Greater love had no man for a woman than this, that he will cheerfully wear the neckties she bought for him.

Our Motto—"SERVICE TO ALL"

The laborer with small balance gets the same courteous treatment as any of our large depositors.

If the Wood Dealer Sold Service

We do not sell current; we sell service. That sounds odd doesn't it?

Well, suppose the wood dealer sold service instead of wood, he would tend to your furnace and your range, take away the ashes and clean the flues. You would buy so much heat.

Now you buy so much light, although you pay according to the current you consume. But the service is performed for you by this company at the substations and power plants.

That is what we want to give you—efficient service. It is the aim of this company to have none but satisfied customers. No matter what it is, if you have a grievance, or are dissatisfied about your bill or do not understand our rates, please come in and see us or write us about it.

If you have any suggestions to make, we will gladly avail ourselves of them as our aim is constantly to improve our service to you as fast as the development of science and human ability permit.
