

TWO KINDS OF ARSONISTS; BOTH ARE DANGEROUS

By Fire Chief Delaney

Arson is one of the most despicable crimes of the entire calendar. The arsonist does not stop to consider the injury both to life and property which is apt to result from his act. Bent either upon personal revenge or other depraved motive, his desire turns upon the one thought of destruction without considering the ill effects of his crime upon the community at large.

Strange to say, while the arsonist ranks among the most depraved of criminals, and though he constitutes a standing menace to the safety of the entire city in which he operates, it is none the less a difficult matter to secure his conviction in the courts. Either through a mistaken idea of sympathy, or because of the difficulty in obtaining direct evidence, arsonists generally being adepts in providing an alibi, or because juries somehow reach the false conclusion that insurance companies rather than the people pay for fire losses, criminals of this class too frequently secure an acquittal and remain at liberty to continue in their depraved course of crime.

The Unconscious Arsonist.

So far as results are concerned, however, there is no difference between the act of the man or woman who deliberately sets fire to a dwelling or other property and the one whose act of carelessness or indifference causes the same event to occur. If a house is destroyed purposely or innocently the loss is just as great, the motive only containing the point of divergence.

One man intentionally burns a piece of property. The other carelessly throws a lighted cigar or cigarette or burning match into a pile of litter or rubbish, from which a fire occurs, causing the entire loss of the house or mill. The motives of the two men may differ, but the loss of the community is just as great in the one case as the other.

Housewives and all those having the oversight of property are to exercise constant care to escape being classed as unconscious arsonists.

TIMBERS OF OLD PRISON SHIP FOUND IN SAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Battered timbers of an old buried prison ship were uncovered recently by a steam shovel excavating for a bank building not far from the waterfront here. The old boat, the Euphemia, according to local historians, was used by the municipality in 1849 as a jail. At that time she was anchored where Battery street is now. As the city gradually advanced over the mud flats and pushed back the waters of the bay, the boat was buried under the silt, and buildings constructed on the spot where she once anchored. The timbers were found thirty feet below the sidewalk level.

It has been reckoned that a single pair of sparrows and a nest of young ones consume about 3000 insects a week.

EVER LONG TO BE A PRINCESS?

Look at this picture before you answer! It is little Princess Juliana of Holland, out skating. No games, no playmates, nothing but six—count 'em—six stiff old guardians, three men and three women. The arrow indicates the little princess. 1—Secret service guard. 2—Military guard. 3—Male attendant. 4—Chaperon. 5—Woman attendant. 6—Tutor.

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

THE BOY'S PRAYER.

If I only owned a motor car,
I know just what I'd do;
I'd pick out all the mud I could,
And then go splashing through.

THEY ALL DO

A Chicago lawyer has filed a petition in court, for divorce, which says: "They quarreled over their respective equities in the bedclothes in the course of which he succeeded in wresting from your complainant and retaining some 90 per cent of said covering and struck her in so doing."

The average woman is suspicious of everything a man says. But at the same time she will let a female milliner talk her into buying a hat which she knows isn't becoming to her.

And for Pa's gift, I got a couple of shirts and new parlor curtains.
Lovingly,
Ma."

SHORTER HOURS NOW.

"What was he pinched for?"
"His father let him use the auto for an hour."
"Well?"
"He tried to ride an hour in 15 minutes."

HOW THE HECK SHOULD WE KNOW?

Dear Office Cat:
I know why preachers wear white neckties and why the barber who has a sure-fire hairgrower is always bald-headed.
But the thing that perplexes me is this: How the Sam Hill does a hen know when the price of eggs advances, so she can quit laying?
Yours Courageously,
J. H. Garrett.

The longer you've had what you have, according to Ernie Bubb, the less thankful you are that you have it.

For sheer boneheadedness, consider the Klamath Falls man who saw a bed room suite advertised in the Herald by J. T. Perkins and when he entered the store asked to be shown the pajamas.

WELL, IT'S NEAR ENOUGH, ANYHOW.

Dear Mr. Junius:
I never was graduated from college, but isn't this a subjunctive clause: "I always enjoy the Herald better if I read the colyum, 'The Office Cat?'"

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE.

A motorist was stopped by a policeman for speeding, whereupon he became angry and called the policeman an ass. After he had paid his fine, the judge reproved him for what he had said to the officer. "Then I mustn't call a policeman an ass?" he said. "Certainly not," said the judge. "You must not insult the police." "But you wouldn't mind if I called an ass a policeman, would you?" "Why no, if it gives you any satisfaction," answered his honor with a smile. The motorist turned to the man who arrested him: "Good-bye, policeman," he said and immediately left the court room.

DODGING FOR LIFE

"What little boy can tell me the difference between the 'quick and the dead'?" asked the Sunday school teacher.
Willie waved his hand frantically. "Well, Willie?"
"The quick are the ones that get out of the way of automobiles; the ones that don't are dead."

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.—adv.

EIGHTEEN STUDENTS DROPPED.

Eighteen students were dropped from the University of Oregon and 126 put on probation for the winter term for failure to make the required hours during the fall term.

Woman vs. Woman

Should women prosecutors prosecute women defendants? Attorney General Prince Feeling of Oklahoma thinks so, and he expects to have Mrs. Katherine Van Leuven, assistant attorney general, go to Ardmore, Okla., and assist in the prosecution of Clara Smith Hamon, charged with murder for shooting Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma oil millionaire and political boss. Mrs. Van Leuven is shown above. Inset is Clara Smith Hamon.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and cause no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.
