

At the Movies

THE STAR

Hobart Bosworth, the Sea Dog.
Hobart Bosworth, the Cow-puncher.

Hobart Bosworth, the Two-Fisted. These three Hobart Bosworths are famous to the public. But tonight at the Star Theatre you will see a still different Hobart Bosworth in his first Associated Producers vehicle made by J. Parker Read Jr. It is called "A Thousand To One" and in it we see big, virile, likeable Hobart as a waster, a dilettante, if you please—in short, a rascal.

Imagine Bosworth as a rotter; But it isn't for long, folks—this characterization exists only for about two reels when a terrific train wreck brings this episode in the star's screen life to an end and out of the wreckage emerges the new man. From this point onward the story becomes absorbing. The character development is superb, adding further laurels to Bosworth's histrionic crown. The production is as faultless as we have ever seen in an outdoor production and there are some interiors that make us wish to see more of brawny Hobart Bosworth in dress clothes "putting on the dog."

Ethel Grey Terry plays opposite the star and gives a capable performance as the girl who has been tricked into marriage for the sake of her fortune but who ultimately finds love and happiness in the arms of the star. Which you all will agree is eminently proper and satisfactory.

Altogether a very happy Associated Producers release.

The screen doesn't offer a more delightful entertainment than Charles Ray in a country boy comedy. He's a small-town hero again in "Homer Comes Home," his latest picture which shows at the Star Saturday.

Charlie has the role of a youth who is full of schemes that never pan out. He has tried every job in Maineville without success. So he goes away to New York and becomes a clerk in a big establishment. Then the biggest scheme of all pops into his head and, returning to Maineville for a whirlwind two weeks' vacation, he is able to win a fortune and "the only girl" as well.

Pretty Priscilla Bonner is the leading woman in "Homer Comes Home," and the picture is full of the pep and humor that you've come to expect in a Ray vehicle. Thomas H. Ince produced it and it's a Paramount Artcraft.

FORTY BOXING TEAMS ENTERED AT O. A. C.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Feb. 4.—More than 40 boxing teams will be entered in the intramural contests to be conducted by the physical education department of the college. Ralph Coleman, director of intramural athletics, reports that every fraternity, club and independent organization on the campus will take part in the bouts, to start early this month and continue until the middle of March.

SUFFERING CHILDREN HELPED

At a University of Oregon student assembly held last Thursday in Villard hall, $1123 was subscribed for the relief of suffering children overseas. This amount was pledged by 511 students, making the donations average more than two dollars each. There were several individual subscriptions running from $10 to $25. The faculty also subscribed a large amount.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, dressed in a tailored suit made her first public appearance this year, at a moving picture show for children at the Belasco Theater in Washington. She was snapped entering her car after the show.

FOR SALE

150 tons good clean alfalfa hay; 6 miles from town. Can be fed on premises. Call at Moe's store.

Showing at the Theatre

PHOTOPLAYS OF QUALITY

TO-DAY

HOBART BOSWORTH

IN

"A THOUSAND TO ONE"

This picture, you will find, is as great a picture as you ever saw this favorite staring in.

USUAL ADDED ATTRACTIONS

SATURDAY

CHARLES RAY

IN

"HOMER COMES HOME"

AT THE MONDALE

Another large house greeted the Melody Maids at the Mondale last night and were well repaid as the music rendered by them was beautiful and the dances and songs by individual members of the troupe were encored time and time again. Also the pictures were exceptionally good. Tonight there will be an entire change. The Melody Maids will do a new act of class music, clever songs and neat dances, which is sure to please, also the pictures will be exceptionally good. J. Barney Sherry in Fanatics with all star cast, will hold you from start to finish and two clever comedies that are real gloom chasers will make this an exceptionally good show.

WRITES OREGON SECTION FOR ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Feb. 4.—The Encyclopedia Britannica has asked Professor F. G. Young, dean of the school of sociology, to write the section of Oregon for the eleventh edition now being prepared. In this addition there will be three additional volumes and all contents will be revised and brought up to date. The section on Oregon will cover five or six pages.

MOTOR LORIES BLOWN UP

DUBLIN, Feb. 3.—Motor lorries loaded with auxiliary police were blown up by a mine at Ballingale, four being killed. This is the first time such method has been used in attacking crown forces. Three lorries loaded with police were attacked in Dublin, bombs being thrown at them. The officers returned the fire, and two civilians were wounded.

AT THE MOVIES

Roosevelt House Started

Major General Leonard Wood is shown laying the corner stone of Roosevelt House, which will mark the site of the birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt, at 28 East Twentieth street, New York City.

Personal Mention

W. L. Zimmerman, traveling salesman from Portland, registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Mrs. Roy Doffenbacker and daughter formerly of this city, but who make their home in Chiloquin are in the city shopping this week.

H. W. McGillivray traveling salesman representing the Goodyear Rubber company of San Francisco, is an arrival at the White Pelican.

George C. North, a resident of the Algonquin vicinity, is a city visitor today attending to matters of business.

P. C. Carlson a prominent rancher of this valley was a county seat visitor yesterday attending to matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Jackson residents of the Klamath reservation are in the city for several days attending to various business matters.

Tom Stanley, a resident of west Riverside, suffered from a stroke of paralysis this morning and is unable to either move or speak.

Charles Linzi and four children are leaving in the morning for Seattle where they will join Mr. Linzi and make their future home there.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Renner is reported to be very ill with pneumonia. Mr. Renner is a barber at the Arcade hotel of this city.

C. H. McCutchan, district sales manager of the Standard Oil company, is in the city on official business.

M. W. Cooper a farmer of the Klamath agency vicinity is a city visitor, attending to matters of business.

R. C. Spink, owner of the Idlerest summer resort at Srink Creek, is in the city for several days attending to matter of business.

Ed. Cardwell a prominent farmer and stockman of the Ft. Klamath country is a county seat visitor this week.

Dr. Van Waters, the Episcopal minister, who has been in our city for the past week, left this morning for Portland.

O. H. Newton, a well-known sheepman of the Merrill country was a city visitor yesterday attending to matters of business.

J. L. Huntley, a sheeman of the Yonma valley, was a county seat visitor yesterday, bringing in several skins for bounty.

M. S. West, president of the Big Lakes Box company, was a passenger this morning to Portland, where he will attend to matters of business for several days.

Mrs. Maud Hettinger of Bonanza, was an arrival on last evening's stage. She will remain in the city for several days shopping and attending to matters of business.

Mrs. J. A. Perry has returned from a two months' visit with relatives and friends in Astoria, Portland, and other cities of northern Oregon.

Robert Riggs was a passenger on this morning's train for San Francisco, where he will remain on a combined business and pleasure trip for a week or ten days.

Keith Ambrose, who had the misfortune of having his foot injured to the extent that he had to be confined to his home for several days, is again able to be up and around.

J. B. Mitchell, prominent stockman, left this morning for Bly, where he operates one of the largest stock ranches in the Sprague River valley.

F. G. Phelps, auditor of the California-Oregon Power company, who has been here on an official visit to the local office, returned to his home in San Francisco this morning.

Charles B. Otey, who is interested in the Chiloquin Lumber company, left this morning for Dorris where he will visit with friends and relatives for several days.

The Klamath Falls National Farm Loan association will hold an adjourned meeting Saturday, January 5th, in the Willits building for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other business matters.

George Stevenson, who operates a large farm on the Upper Lake was a passenger on this morning's train to San Francisco and other southern cities. Mr. Stevenson expects to be gone ten days or two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Steeman prominent farmers of the Merrill country, were passengers this morning to San Francisco and other southern points, where they will visit friends and relatives.

Miss Beryle Stagg, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Warren and daughter of this city, were passengers on this morning's train for California cities, where they will visit for several weeks.

J. N. Givens, accompanied Jay Mitchell to the Mitchell ranch in the Bly district today to visit his sons, Ernest and Dallas Givens, who have a herd of cattle there for winter feeding.

Charles Clark representing the Nathan-Dohrman company of San Francisco, was a passenger on this morning's train to Dorris, where he will spend the day visiting the Dorris merchants. He will return this evening.

G. L. Chandler, a well-known traveling salesman, who makes Klamath Falls a prominent stop over on his route, was a passenger on this morning's train to Dorris where he will look after interests during the day, returning to this city this evening.

John S. McGinnis of San Francisco is an arrival in the city where he will be permanently associated with the office force of the White Pelican hotel. Mr. McGinnis has been with the Washington hotel in San Francisco, which is under the supervision of Al Short as is the White Pelican and the Riverside hotel of Reno, Nevada.

Dr. Van Waters, the Episcopal minister, who has been in our city for the past week, left this morning for Portland.

O. H. Newton, a well-known sheepman of the Merrill country was a city visitor yesterday attending to matters of business.

J. L. Huntley, a sheeman of the Yonma valley, was a county seat visitor yesterday, bringing in several skins for bounty.

M. S. West, president of the Big Lakes Box company, was a passenger this morning to Portland, where he will attend to matters of business for several days.

Mrs. Maud Hettinger of Bonanza, was an arrival on last evening's stage. She will remain in the city for several days shopping and attending to matters of business.

Mrs. J. A. Perry has returned from a two months' visit with relatives and friends in Astoria, Portland, and other cities of northern Oregon.

Robert Riggs was a passenger on this morning's train for San Francisco, where he will remain on a combined business and pleasure trip for a week or ten days.

Keith Ambrose, who had the misfortune of having his foot injured to the extent that he had to be confined to his home for several days, is again able to be up and around.

J. B. Mitchell, prominent stockman, left this morning for Bly, where he operates one of the largest stock ranches in the Sprague River valley.

F. G. Phelps, auditor of the California-Oregon Power company, who

OREGON BREVITIES

PORTLAND.—Chief of Police Jenkins henceforth will be in absolute and complete control of the police affairs of Portland.

Following his return from a three weeks' personal study of the situation at the police station, Mayor Baker issued a statement in which he said that Chief Jenkins would have undisputed authority in all police matters, and that no interference by anyone with the chief's orders would be tolerated.

ASTORIA.—The cargo lumber shipments from the Columbia river for the month of January were slightly heavier than were those of December, the increase being from the mills in the lower river district, the shipments from the upper river mills being less.

BEND.—Announcement was made by the Bend Water, Light & Power company of a policy to go into effect shortly, which will allow the purchase of stock in the corporation by employees on easy installments, with participation in dividends, but no interest on deferred payments.

PORLAND.—Bowling may become one of the major sports in Portland. With the northwest international tournament slated for Portland this year and many other big events carded, athletic followers are beginning to give bowling competition a tumble and find that they can get just as big a kick out of watching two crack quintets bowl for a big side bet as witnessing a couple of football or baseball teams in action.

MEDFORD.—Citizens of Talent are rejoicing over the fact that the Talent Lumber company, which has just been incorporated by S. O. Brown, W. T. Normile and Porter J. Neff, with whom O. J. Smith of Oakland, Cal., Pacific coast representative of the Eastman Kodak company, is associated. The company will at once erect a modern electric power sawmill, box factory and retail lumber yard on a site donated by the citizens of Talent. The sawmill will have a capacity of 25,000 feet daily.

PORLAND.—More arrests were made by the motorcycle speed patrolmen during January than ever before in the history of the department, according to a report submitted to Chief of Police Jenkins. The report shows that 843 arrests were made during the month for speeding and other traffic violations.

OREGON CITY.—A woman carrying an infant stepped into the 20th Century grocery here and asked the manager if she could nurse her baby in his office. He consented and after the woman had left the store he missed $8 which was in his wife's coat.

THE DALLES.—All the way from Ranger, Tex., as "express" came Leonard Adcock, 6 years old, who arrived in The Dalles en route to Bend. On his coat is a tag bearing the following information: "Leonard Adcock, Ranger, Tex., destination Edwin Berly, Bend, Or. In case of accident, notify Morna Adcock."

MEDFORD.—The annual Lincoln day banquet, which is the yearly red letter feast day of the republicans of the Rogue river valley, will take place at the Medford hotel, Saturday night, February 12.

PORLAND.—William B. Follett, ex-state commander of the American Legion, accompanied by Mrs. Follett, has left for an extended trip to Europe.

NEW TODAY

FOR SALE—American portable drilling outfit, with string of tools and some six inch casing. Fine condition and almost new. Bargain. Ask H. Gunnell, Grants Pass, Oregon.

FOR RENT—Furnished room—Phone 5151. 4-6

FOR SALE—Saxon touring, new top, good rubber and good mechanical condition, $400.00. New Stage, Oregon.

FOR RENT—2 room house with porch. Large store room in brick building. Phone Mrs. Jolly, 320 W. 4-51

FOR SALE—Pasture for 1000 head of cattle—8000 acres. Cows run into H. Roeth, King and Roeth, Fruto, Glenn Co., Calif. 4-11

SNAP THIS SNAP—A nice new four room house, half way between city and Shippington, city water. Price $1400, half cash balance due rent. The Ryan Realty Co. 512 N. 8th St.

Listen! You are always welcome at the New Hot Springs Bath House.

FOR SALE—2 miles from town, 2 halves calves past milk age. 1 head sheep (6 ewes), 30 hens ready to lay and younger chickens and 2 1/2 dozen roosters. Lee DeChaine, north Klamath. 4*

NOTICE TO REDEEMERS.

Members of the Nez Perces are requested to meet Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Humphrey.

FOR SALE—150 tons good clean alfalfa hay, 6 miles from town. Can be fed on premises. Call at Moe's store.

COQUILLE MAN WRITES VOLUME OF 36 POEMS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Feb. 4.—R. E. Baker, city school superintendent at Coquille, Oregon, has written a volume of poems and has submitted the manuscript to the University of Oregon for comment and criticism. Mr. Baker's poems have been widely published in the Oregonian, the Oregon Teacher's Monthly, and other papers and magazines and the volume submitted contains much excellence according to the English department, the extension division and the school of journalism. The manuscript contains 36 poems on a wide range of subjects.

RULES PARLIAMENT

MRS. MARY ELLEN SMITH

<p