

The Evening Herald

B. J. MURRAY, Editor
FRED SOULE, City Editor

Published daily except Sunday, by The Herald Publishing Company of Klamath Falls, at 119 Eighth Street.

Entered at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Ore., for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it, or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news publisher herein.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1921.

BUENA VISTA ITEMS

More new neighbors in Buena Vista addition is the latest news.

Walter Helfer is moving into his new house at Shippington.

The Pelican Bay Lumber company the prospects of having a new school their office building at Pelican city.

Local people are much elated over the prospects of having a new school building soon.

The steamer Wasp is still on the ways but Captain Linman is anxious for the ice to break up on the Upper Lake so that he can launch the vessel.

Captain Wickstrom is engaged in building the finest barge ever modeled in Klamath county. He has the work well underway. The barge when completed will cost approximately $4,000.

The work of reinforcing the boiler furnaces of the Klamath Lumber and Box Manufacturing company's mill at Shippington has been completed. Other repair work will be done as soon as the weather moderates.

More surveying was being done on the flat north of Shippington on Friday, for what purpose rumor sayeth not.

Last Wednesday night the second of a series of community meetings was held at the residence of R. B. Yancey. The evening was spent in enjoyment of songs, instrumental music and recitations.

The "Groundhog" dance at St. Cloud was one of the best attended of the season. It was the 192nd dance held in the castle in the past ten years. All dances at St. Cloud are strictly invitational and none but ticket holders are admitted.

TULE LAKE HOMESTEAD NOTES. Mrs. Crandall and son, Russell were in Klamath Falls Saturday calling on friends and attending to business.

The number of homesteaders has been increased by the advent of an 8 pound boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kotera, Jr. Young Joseph Albert is a fine baby and gladly welcomed by the family and neighborhood.

More snow is welcomed by those who are cutting and hauling wood and posts. We consider this a fine winter for ranchers.

Charlie Faught is remodeling his touring car, making a bug of it.

Mr. Crandall met with a painful accident Saturday. He stepped on a nail in a board, which the recent snow had covered. He had an accident some months ago injuring his knee which is slow to recover and is kept closely confined to the house.

HUMPHREY FUNERAL. Funeral rites for Mrs. Charles Humphrey were held in the chapel of the Whitlock undertaking parlors this afternoon, a large number of friends of the decedent gathering to assist in the service.

SCHNEIDER-LOCKWOOD. Announcement of the marriage of Miss Emma Schneider to Ernest Lockwood, which occurred in Eugene about 10 days ago, has been received here. Miss Schneider was employed here as a milliner for some time, and has many friends who will be pleased to hear of her marriage.

MCCOY HOME SOLD. J. W. McCoy has sold his home on the corner of Pine and Cedar streets to W. B. Stevens, who with his son, recently purchased the Link River Battery station. Both Stevens families have moved into the home, which is very roomy and convenient.

FISK RUBBER MAN HERE. Charles Crozier of San Francisco, district sales manager for the Fisk Rubber & Tire Company, is in town today doing business with Charley Johnson, of Charley's Place. Mr. Johnson holds the exclusive agency for Fisk goods here, and is looking for another good sales season in that line.

Everett True By Condo Society

COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL CORNER

EDITED BY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

STUDENTS ENTERTAINED BY CONOR LITERARY SOCIETY

Friday, January the 28th., the Connor Literary Society of the high school entertained the student body and visitors. The program consisted of a one act comedy, entitled "Way Down South." The comedy was written by Robert Milam, a sophomore in high school.

The scene was at a village post-office of a southern town. The townsfolk waiting for their mail, cracked jokes, sang songs and played craps. Several negro girls said that they bet "Luke and Matthew could sing better 'n Paul and Peter." The boys, Robert and Oran Milam, accordingly sang duets, the first one being by Luke and Matthew was entitled "Get away from dat Cornfield." The other by Dean Beckley and Clifford Hogue, or Paul and Peter, was "Jake he spied a Possum." The selections were very much enjoyed.

The entrance of the preacher, Aard Ady, broke up the game of craps and everybody got very religious. He then gave them a sermon about the prodigal son, who started home but was detained by the flood, being at last welcomed home by his father clasping him in his arms and crying "Absolom my Absolom!" The sermon made everybody serious and they sang some religious songs.

A negro boy entered saying that the preacher was wanted to perform a wedding ceremony. The preacher said "I will marry them right here." To the tune of "Dixie Land" the couple were bound in the holy bonds of matrimony. Suddenly the father of the bride dashes through the crowd and is very furious to find his daughter has been married without his consent. The bride's mother, a very "tiny" lady with a huge rolling pin entered at this crucial moment and tells her husband to behave himself and go home. She then invited everybody over to the wedding feast.

The Connor Literary Society covered itself with glory. The student body is looking forward to the time when it will be entertained again by this society. Mrs. Solomon, the advisor of the Connor Society and Miss Applegate, the music director, deserve much credit. The Boy's Glee club helped greatly in making the entertainment a successful one.

The cast of characters was as follows: Aard Ady—Mr. Johnsing, the parson. Kenneth Gordon—Joshua Simpkins, bride's father. Jostie Honzik—Mariah Simpkins, bride's mother. Clatus Merdith—Hesiklah Jonges, bridegroom. Lois Staub—Miss Simpkins, bride. Greta Madison—Mandy, negro girl. Esther Will—Lizy, negro girl. Dorothy Hammond—Sarah Ann, negro girl. Lloyd Cox—Joe, Postmaster. Lester Cofar—Snowball, wedding witness. Kenneth Myers—Jake, Crap shooters. Charles House—Rastus.

Dean Beckley—Luke, Clifford Hogue—Matthew, Robert Milam—Paul, Oran Milam—Peter, Robert Goetz—Sambo, joke cracker.

Minor editors—Kenneth Case, Delos Mills, Weaver Solomon, Robert Cornish, Irving McCall, Roger Montgomery, William Vale, Wendell Smith.

PLAN MUSICAL PROGRAM. The music society of high school is planning to give an entertainment sometime this month. Of course, this society works with each literary society, and therefore has an unusual amount of work, but it is equal to it.

A STUDENT'S COMPLAINT. We have a high school in Klamath Falls. Tho no one seems to just know, Why we don't spend more time there, And less at the movie show.

They say the hill is good for us, It makes us healthy and strong, And we should know our lessons well, And never get anything wrong.

But if we had some place to play, Like a gym or tennis court, Where we could go at the end of the day, And have some good, clean, sport.

Maybe we'd stay away from the dances, And places we shouldn't go, And maybe we'd not stay up at nights, The newest jazz songs to know.

I think if you'd think it over, You will plainly see, That if we had a park and gymnasium, What dandy students we'd be.

PROBLEM IN ANCIENT HISTORY. Should Some Olympians Come to Town: Zeus would have to pay $20 for a haircut. Minerva would have to pawn her shield to pay the rent. Terpsichore would have to learn the shimmy. Apollo would have to get into overalls. Chronos would never get anywhere, being always an hour late by the clock. Diana would hunt in gingham. Momus would be pinched for alcoholic laughter. Hercules would undergo his 13th labor at the subway rush hour.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE NOTES. Because of the non-standardisation of cooking courses throughout the country, Dean Milam, of the Oregon

Society

Mrs. E. S. Phillips, of 216 Pine street, entertained the Art Needle Work club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon was served in Mrs. Phillip's charming manner. The guests were Mesdames Winnard, Slough, Meadows, and Fleet, and the members present were Mesdames R. E. Wattenburg, Geo. Wirtz, C. M. Ramsby, Fred Goeller, Chas. Martin, E. P. Lawrence, S. E. Martin, Carl Cumings, J. T. Carnahan, M. S. West, and A. Peel.

Mrs. Emil G. Dreher of Lincoln street entertained Thursday and Friday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter A. Dreher of Chicago, who is a recent bride. Thursday afternoon needlework and conversation were the diversions. The guests were Mesdames F. R. Call, F. J. Porter, Wendall Daly, J. W. Brewbaker, R. C. Cornish, John Dreher, and the guest of honor. Friday afternoon "500" was played. The honors were won by Mrs. E. M. Igle, and the consolation trophy went to Mrs. G. C. Loren. The guests were Mesdames G. C. Lorenz, R. E. Dewesse, E. M. Egle, John Dreher, L. L. Stein, Chas. Martin, Floyd B. Patty, H. N. Bogue and the guest of honor.

Miss Marie McMillan entertained the Bridge Club at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. O. Smith, when two tables of bridge were enjoyed. The highest score was made by Mrs. C. F. Stone. At the close of the game dainty refreshments were served. The guests of the club were Mrs. J. W. Alexander of Northfield, Minnesota, and Mrs. Charles I. Roberts.

Thursday morning Miss Mary Phleger entertained the women members of the high school faculty at breakfast at her apartment on Pine street, followed by a theater party given for the benefit of the suffering children of Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stenwell entertained at dinner Sunday at their home on Ninth street, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goldsmith and children, Mrs. Balls and sons, John and Otto of this city, and Mr. Louis Boldischar of Malin.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church met with Mrs. E. Bice Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Sheets, 308 South Riverside street. A missionary program was given, with Mrs. George Wirtz as leader. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the committee. The guests of the society were: Mesdames J. W. Stelmets, K. G. Cummings, J. Fred Goeller, C. R. DeLap, E. Griffith, C. Higginson, Fred Garich, Arthur Franklin, Jesse Bailey, R. J. Sheets, Harry Goeller, Vivian Sheets. The members are Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Trimble, Mesdames Abbsy, Vollmer, McCormick, Horbelt, Jesse Beckley, E. J. Mayer, B. McKim, J. J. Keller, Johnson, Mel Miller, E. Bice, and W. E. Seehorn.

The Past Matrons Club of Aloha Chapter O. E. S. was entertained at the Baldwin hotel Friday afternoon, with Mrs. L. F. Willits and Mrs. Frank Ward as hostesses. Plans were made for the coming year, after which a social afternoon was spent and delicious refreshments served by the hostesses. Those present were: Mesdames Wilbur Jones, Charles Martin, Kip Van Riper, A. L. Leavitt, George T. Baldwin, Frank Ward, L. F. Willits, Spiker, H. E. Momyer, Frank Ankeny and Miss Maude Baldwin.

Mrs. E. S. Phillips entertained the Agricultural college, has made the entrance requirements for home economics the preparation and serving of a breakfast, luncheon, and dinner. Therefore, the Domestic Science course in the Klamath County high school has been planned accordingly.

The cooking class will serve a luncheon in about two weeks. This will be their examination over the past two months' work. The girls will be on their responsibility during this test and will receive no aid from Miss Dougherty, the instructor. They have already passed their examination on preparing and serving breakfast. In the spring, they will have invited guests and serve dinners.

THE GYPSY ROVER. The music students have begun studying an operetta called "The Gypsy Rover." They are working day and night, and consequently some of them seem to be sleepy. Nevertheless, burning the midnight oil makes for success, and these students guarantee an operetta well worth attending.

How Good Is Your Memory?

He that wrongs his friend Wrongs himself more, and ever bears about A silent court of justice in his breast, Himself a judge and jury, and himself The prisoner at the bar, ever condemned.

Can you read this stanza once—very quickly—then write it from memory, placing all the capitals and punctuation marks correctly. If not, better train your memory! Little Dorothy Le Roye of Windsor, Vt., can do better than that—but then of course she's the memory marvel of New England. She is only four, and can't read this stanza, but when it was read rapidly to her once, she repeated it immediately without an error. She can rattle off all the presidents from Washington down and give the population of all the principal American cities.

Art Needlework Club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Pine street. The afternoon was spent, as usual with needlework, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. P. Lawrence. The guests of the club were Mesdames: Herbert Phillips, Slough, Meadows and Winnard.

The ladies of the Elks met Tuesday afternoon at the Elks Temple for an afternoon of cards and needlework. This was the regular Tuesday social meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Patty entertained with a delightful dinner party at their home Wednesday evening, when they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough and Mr. C. Borrell of Portland.

Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. James Bambery entertained at dinner at their home on Crescent avenue, the members of the choir of Sacred Heart church. Following the dinner, for which covers were laid for eighteen, the guests passed a delightful evening with music and dancing. It was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the many social events held by the choir, which under the direction of Mrs. Bambery, has become an important factor in the musical affairs of Sacred Heart parish.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collier, who returned this week from their honeymoon trip to California points, gave them an old-fashioned charivari at the White Pelican hotel. None enjoyed the affair more thoroughly than did Mr. and Mrs. Collier. At the conclusion of the welcoming festivities, it was decided to bring the evening to a close with a swimming party. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunbar, the Misses Rinker, Liggett, and Gray and Messrs. Hollwell and Tichnor.

A farewell surprise was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Murphy at their home on High street, Monday evening, a number of their friends calling to bid them bon voyage on the eve of their departure to their new home in the Sacramento valley. Five Hundred was the game of the evening, at the close of which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Richter, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy.

Tuesday evening, a birthday party was given in honor of Homer Garich, at the Garich residence on Ninth street. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing progressive 500. Those present were: Mary Jenkins, Inez Jenkins, Eva Jenkins, Marie Obenchain, Ruth Lindsay, Vale Lindsay, Beattie Tull, Lucille Sherman, Esther Calkins, George Carr, Paul Hilton, Albert Bradley, Ernest McCollum, Bruce Perkins, Roger Montgomery, Delois Mills, Clifford Hogue, and Homer Garich.

Nothing is being left undone that will contribute to the success of the dance to be given next Thursday February 10th by the ladies Auxil-

NEW TODAY

FOR SALE—1-20 and 1-25 H. P. AC 60 cycle 440 Volt Motors complete with compensators and bases—As good as new, 1 hand saw stretcher for 6 inch saws, 400 Yds 16 lb. ralls, 3-Roller bearing lumber cars 30 inch gauge, Tomlin Box Company, Medford, Oregon. 5-11

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished bedroom in furnace heated private home. Hot water at all hours. Two blocks from Main. Phone 244. 5

FOR RENT—One housekeeping room and one bedroom, 1143 Pine. Phone 317R. 5-7*

FOR RENT—3 room furnished apartment, with bath, 661 Calif. Ave. 5-7*

FOR SALE—Nicely furnished house of five rooms, large basement, nicest location in town. A real nice home, very reasonable terms. Box C. W. P. Herald office. 5-7*

FOR SALE—1 pure bred Poland China boar one year old, guaranteed a good breeder, weight about 250 pounds. One pure bred Poland China sow, bred. These hogs are both of pure breed, but no relation. I got them from C. W. Shumate, Olympia, Wash. Luther Holbrook, Malin, Ore. 5*

WANTED—Three or four rooms or a cottage unfurnished—by man and wife. No children—Apply Box G. S. Herald office. 5-7*

If you are looking for a home site see Fred Buesing, 1020 Main St. Ask to see his two beautiful Crescent Ave. lots. Magnificent view. 5-11*

Women's Organization Selects Year's Officers

Following the decision of the women of the city to organize an auxiliary of the Klamath county chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon, an election of officers took place. Mrs. E. S. Henry being chosen president, and Mrs. Paul Bogardus, vice president. Mrs. Frey Murphy was elected secretary.

No date for the next meeting of the auxiliary was set, but it is understood that one will be held soon at the call of the president.

lary of the American Legion for the ex-service men and their friends. This is one of the series that has been planned for the winter months and invitations are now being issued. The affair will be held at the White Pelican hotel and it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

Recently the ladies of the O. E. S. formed a club to give a series of social evenings during the coming year. The first of the series was given last night at Masonic hall and the committee in charge, of which Mrs. Kipp Vin Riper is chairman, was made up of the following ladies: Mesdames Peyton, Van Riper, B. M. Hall, F. B. Patty, Oscar Shive, Lloyd Stewart, L. L. Truax and Miss Maude Baldwin. About 65 guests were present and 500 was played, the prizes for high score being awarded to Mrs. W. C. Van Rmon and George Burton and the consolation prizes to Mrs. George I. Wright and E. R. Danner. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.