

FIGHT CENSORSHIP OF MONTANA MOVIE SHOWS

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 8.—The controversy raging in the state over the bill of Senator E. Donlon of Missoula county, providing for censorship of moving pictures, has brought to the attention of courts, peace officers and the public that a law much like that the senator proposed has been on the books for many years. In 1917, after a series of train robberies had started in the state, the assembly passed an act forbidding any moving picture depicting burglaries, train robberies and other crimes. So far as is known, however, the law was never vigorously enforced.

Raisins

You've heard about the raisin with the kick of 10 per cent. But the raisin with the wallop is the raisin of the rent.

Personal Prejudices

I am always sure any secret will never get out when only 15 or 20 of us know it.

I never eat eggs. I don't like them when they are plentiful and I can't afford them when they are not.

I do not care for the blue laws nor for anyone who does care for them.

I never have accepted any graft but, like a lot of other honest men, I don't know exactly what I would do if any were ever offered me.

I always read the advertisements in a magazine and thereby manage to have quite a pleasant and instructive evening.

I don't know what John Drew is playing in now, but I'll bet it's a dress suit.

When William plays the violin
He stands like one on eggs;
And has a bow within his hands—
One also in his legs.

How Come

The United States senate proposes to block the appointments of 20,000 Wilson nominations. Didn't know there were that many democrats out of office.

Pike Founders

Two hundred unemployed in Montreal, Canada, refused jobs paying 32 cents an hour, preferring to parade. Rather walk than work.

A law making high heels a crime is urged by Massachusetts doctors. The law won't go over. All these other prohibitions that have recently been voted were laws that took something away from the men. But when it comes to taking privileges away from the women, then look out for the women's vote.

Rollo Groesbeck says that those 2000 would-be postmasters at least can thank President Wilson for the compliment.

Jail-Less Crimes

- Killing time.
- Hanging pictures.
- Stealing bases.
- Shooting the chutes.
- Choking off a speaker.
- Running over a new song.
- Smothering a laugh.
- Setting the heart on fire.
- Knifing a performance.
- Murdering the English language.

Rural Sarcasm

Not much cider is manufactured in Westchester for sale, nearly all of it being consumed at home. Two farmers were comparing notes.

"How many barrels have you put up this year, Joel?" said one.

"Only seven, Silas," was the reply.

"Got any handy?"

"Sure thing, Silas." And Joel went into the house returning soon with some of the apple elixir in a big tin dipper. "There," said he, "Try that."

And Elias sipped.

"Well, what do you think of it?" Joel inquired.

Silas shook his head doubtfully.

"Don't you like it, Silas?" was the anxious query.

"How many barrels did you say you made, Joel?" asked Silas.

"Seven."

"Well, Joel, if you had had another apple you might have made eight."

CHEAPER ALCOHOL

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 7.—British Columbia is to have cheaper alcohol for use in manufacturing. Heretofore druggists have been allowed to import non-potable or non-matured alcohol only in limited quantities. Provincial prohibition authorities asked for and obtained permission from federal officers to import large quantities into British Columbia so that it could be sold at a lower price.

FASHION SHOW

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 8.—In order to set forth vividly the various present day styles in women's wear, the University of Idaho home economics department is arranging to present a fashion show in which the different modes will be shown. Originality and initiative of students will be given full opportunity of expression, according to Miss Katherine Jensen, head of the department. Living models will be used. At the same time an art exhibit, made up of painting, designing and sketch work from the art department of the university, will be put on display.

BERLIN PICTURE SHOWS DOING GOOD BUSINESS

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—(By Mail)—The "silent drama" here, as elsewhere, recently has won surprising favor with the public. The Berlin statistical yearbook says attendance at moving picture theatres now is "27 to 1 in favor over the spoken drama." There are 264 moving picture theatres in Berlin with a seating capacity of 117,000 and 34 "legitimate" theatres with a capacity of 44,000.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and cause no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.

"NOW-A-DAYS" says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind. He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Supply and Demand Regulate the Price of Lumber

Right now the demand is far in excess of the supply and is sure to be more noticeable next spring.

4,000,000 Homes are Needed in the United States

These will be built and this means a great demand for lumber and naturally the price will increase.

It is only reasonable to expect lumber prices to advance.

Decide to own a home. Place your contract while prices are at rock-bottom.

Camel CIGARETTES

DEAR OLD BOY PETE!

This corner of the U. S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and bustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all-day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc. And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus Hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star State! Talk about "jumps"! Try a few, say the one between Texarkana and El Paso!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks' hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant?" says he. "Maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over that bunch of Camel Cigarettes for the boys," he continued. Right then a Camel conference opened!

Golly, Pete, this party coins Camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm 'set'! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (NOW LISTEN, PETER!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't tire a smoker's taste!" Now, Pete, I'll say that's some testifying!

Sincerely

Shorty.

P. S.—Between you and me I'll be gazing at tall buildings and things around 43d and Broadway—N.E.W. Y. O. R. K.—about the hour this note hits Boston's Back Bay! Write me at the same old stand!
