HOME FROM SCHOOL

MALIN, Feb. 11.—The arrival of Frank Victorin, well known here, came as a glad surprise to his many friends and to his parents. He has been attending the Adcox Gas Engine school at Portland. He took a three-months course and graduated with high honors. He spent several weeks in Portland looking for work, but due to the labor conditions was unable to find it. He has not announced his plans for the future.

Letters From The People

WIRELESS OPERATOR NOTES EXCEPTIONS

In regard to statements made by Prof. Reese of the Klamath high school, in speaking of the interest shown by numerous pupils, and I presume others, in radio operation, it is pleasing to note that a little interest is being shown in something worth while.

But now let us correct a few errors, and thereby prevent many erroneous conclusions from being arrived at by those who have perused the article in the Evening Herald of Wednesday, February 9th.

The statement is made that the equipment at the school is obtaining the best results of any station in the city. This is an error, as the high school station is limited to approximately 800 miles, while station 7FB receives from Paris and Lyons, France, and also Germany and Honolulu.

It is also stated there are no sending stations in the city. What about 7FB, who converses with San Francisco, Calif.; Seattle, Wash.; Moscow, Idaho; Vancouver, Wash.; Denver, Colo. etc.?

Mention is made of the explanation of wireless. Prof. Reese, or anyone else, unacquainted with the night side of nature, or the action of odics, cannot explain.

Their theories are well enough as a working hypothesis until something better is found, but as an elucidation, they are all failures.

As to the spherical form taken by the waves on leaving a station, and the penetration of opaque bodies, this is partly correct, but will not be wholly correct until the electrical current is divided into its seven separate energies.

In regard to the height of the aerial being more important than the length, what about an aerial tucked away in the corner of an attic and working everything on the coast?

Let us be more accurate in our statements. C. E. RITCHIE, 335 Seventh St.

At the Theaters

THE STAR

Becoming a butler in one's own household in order to cure one's wife of snobbishness is going pretty far, but it works out effectively and results in much good humor in Thomas Meighan's new starring vehicle, "Civilian Clothes" which will occupy the screen at the Star theatre today and Saturday.

The picture was adapted from Thompson Buchanan's stage play of the same name. Mr. Meighan's role, in some ways, resembles the one he played in "Male and Female," Cecil B. De Mille's popular picturization of "The Admirable Crichton." In that picture also, Mr. Meighan was a butler and inculcated some democratic ideas into a group of aristocrats.

"Civilian Clothes" is the story of an American army captain who marries a young society girl in France. She is in love with his uniform more than with the man who wears it. Consequently when, after she has believed him killed in action, he returns to America and calls upon her in ill-fitting civilian clothes, she cannot conceal her disgust for him. Thereupon, he sets out to teach her a much needed lesson and succeeds beyond his fondest hopes. Martha Mansfield is charming as the heroine, and the picture, which is a Paramount, was directed by Hugh Ford.

MONDALE

Patrick Dugan and his son, "Jimmy" are reconciled. The battle of wills is ended. Miss Joyce Clifton, godchild of Lady Blessington and society dancing teacher, has been welcomed into the Dugan home as "Jimmy's" bride, and Jimmy will not be disinherited.

The reconciliation took place last night at Lady Blessington's great, social function given for the benefit of the American Red Cross Relief. Mr. Dugan discovered that his son had been married yesterday afternoon before the affair. The storm that was expected to break over the young man's head failed to materialize. Mr. Dugan was immediately taken with the charming young bride and freely forgave his son.

The tale of Dugan and his boy "Jimmy," as it is fought out in Triangle's great photoplay, "Real Folks," which will be shown at the Mondale theater on Friday and Saturday nights, is decidedly interesting.

CATTLE SHIPPED

ANACONDA, Mont., Dec. 11.—Cattle from the Big Hole basin of Montana, recently were shipped to the San Francisco market. Nine carloads went out. Because of the open winter and fine pasturage, the stock is said to have been the best ever sent out of this section.

MRS. H. O. PETERS, of Kansas City, Mo., whose experience with Tanlac has been nothing less than wonderful, declares her husband. After her improvement he takes it himself and his health is also restored.

"One day a friend persuaded my wife to take Tanlac and the results have been nothing less than wonderful. Her troubles have not only entirely disappeared, but she has actually gained twenty pounds in weight and now seems to be in perfect health. She has suffered for eight years with headaches, nervousness and loss of appetite and was in a badly run-down condition. She could not eat much, had pain all through her body and limbs and was so weak at times she could hardly stand on her feet. She was losing weight and gradually getting worse all the time in spite of all we could do.

"After seeing the splendid results my wife was getting I began taking Tanlac myself and before I had finished my second bottle, I was eating things I had not dared touch before in a long time. I am now eating just anything set before me and my appetite is fine. I suffered for five years with the worst kind of stomach trouble and nervous indigestion, but it has relieved me entirely. We both owe Tanlac a great debt of gratitude."

The above enthusiastic statement was made recently by Herbert O. Peters, well-known citizen of Kansas

The Aspirin Situation

Don't Be Deceived

by Aspirin advertisements being run by those who seek to discredit all Aspirin Tablets except those made by them that we regularly handle large quantities of Aspirin U. D. Co. Tablets that we know are Pure and Genuine and full strength. They are rigidly tested by first-class chemists, and are put out by a firm of the very highest standing, the United Drug Company of Boston. We, as Réxall Druggists, are their exclusive agents, in Klamath Falls.

The Facts Are

The Aspirin patent expired in 1917, and anyone can now make Aspirin and sell it under that name.

Aspirin U. D. Co. Tablets are put up in packages of 12's, 24's and 100's. The price is moderate, for there is no profiteering in United Drug Company business methods.
