Such Refined Humor (Medford Mail Tribune)

Practical Jokers Monday afternoon placed an imitation dead rat in the coat pocket of Miss Pauline Thompson a clerk at Martin J. Reddy's jewelry store. When the young lady discovered the "rat" she promptly fainted, which was not what the jokers expected. At this juncture Dr. Hayes appeared and Miss Thompson soon revived. The ringleaders of the joke were more frightened than the victim.

Predictions for 1921 (By the Astrologer)

Miss Venus has received orders to vacate the 1920 flat the first of next month, a Mr. Mercury having secured a lease on the premises for 1921.

This Mercury person is considered a doubtful character at best, and the chances are that he will start something of an unreasonable nature. The fact that Miss Venus was ejected makes him out a lowbrow and a bum to start with. Miss Venus was behaving herself all right in this U. S. A. neighborhood, and there was no reason or excuse for raising her rent to the point where no respectable woman could pay it. Miss Venus would have been justified in taking a wallop at her landlord, had she any arms or hands to do it with.

Mercury has a habit of disturbing business conditions, and it may be expected that the low-brow element of society will be able to purchase farm implements, shoes, automobiles and other necessities at considerable less than those articles are now offered.

One of Mercury's pet aversions is pork, and as the price of pork chops is said to govern the world's markets it is to be expected that Mercury will kick all the grunts and other inflations out of the pork price. Therefore, look out for a drop in pork.

It may be definitely expected that it will be colder in the northern states than in the southern.

The winter in the states of Washington and Oregon will be wet. It will rain considerable there, while in California the famous sunshine will be on tap.

A noticeable increase in dryness will occur in Chicago where Mercury has already established a connection with Judge Kenesaw M. Landis. It is also probable that Chicago will have some new policemen.

Farmers should not plant their crops until the ground is thawed out in the spring.

Onions will be strong as usual. Fish worms will be scarce. Cox's army will be jobless. Women will begin wearing clothes again.

Raisins will cost more. Friday will be lucky for some people and unlucky for others.

With Mercury on the job nobody need be surprised at anything that happens—in fact, we predict it.

Bert Withrow predicts that the fate of free seeds once more threatens to distract the nation.

Blissful Innocence
After Don Loomis had been called several times by his sister Aileen and didn't get up, his father went to the foot of the stairs and called, "Donald, Donald." No answer. So going to Donald's room he asked, "Why didn't you answer when I called first?" "Well father, 'was the hasty reply, 'I didn't hear you until you had called twice. Father seeing the innocence of his son's statement said, "How did you know I called twice?" Donald at first stumped, answered "Well I just sub-consciously heard you."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage, brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

We Eat too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
