

COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL CORNER

EDITED BY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

THE "SONGSTERS" SING
A very pleasing musical entertainment was given at the high school Friday afternoon, by the "Songsters," a musical society consisting of the Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs, and the orchestra. The society was organized in November, with the following officers: President, Dorothy Elliott; Vice-President, William Vale; Secretary, Alma Lawrence; Advisor, Miss Applegate; Program committee; Wendell Smith, Chairman, Marjorie Jobes and Kenneth Case.

The success of the entire program was due not only to the enthusiasm shown by each member of the society, but also to Miss Applegate, and the wonderful way in which she has directed the music department.

The afternoon's program consisted of:

TRACK MEET

Mr. Don Belding, manager of the Western Union, has consented to coach the high school boys for track. He was a member of the Varsity track team while a student at the University of Oregon. His coach was Bill Haywood, one of the best track instructors in the country. Therefore, the boys feel that they are, indeed, most fortunate in being able to have Mr. Belding's help.

A few days ago, he came to high school to talk to the boys in regard to their training. He said, "There are two periods of training; the preliminary and the intensive. The weather conditions here usually do not permit outside training; consequently, the team will not have more than four weeks of intensive training."

The track meet takes place at Ashland about the first of May.
A STUDENT

Brag

(Miss Lenox asked her students to write ballads in imitation of Calder's "Ancient Mariner." The following is an illustration.)
Upon the hill there is a school,
A place of work and play,
They say it isn't much for skill
Yet it's a place to stay.

The boys and girls that go to school,
Are not as bright as many,
But when it comes to poetry,
They're best, I'll bet a penny.

The boys and girls went up the hill,
To Klamath County high,
The teachers saw them from the door,
I think I heard a sigh.

But school will soon be out you know,
And then their task is done,
It won't be long till up the hill,
To work again we'll come.

DELOS MILLS

SPRING?

"Spring is here," the birds sing.
"Spring is here," the boys and girls say;
and gaze mournfully out of the windows of the school room, with an irresistible longing to be out and away from all care. "Spring is Here" the tulips say, as they peep up through the ground. The sun shines with a springlike radiance and the air has the smell of spring.

Yet in spite of all these signs, Mr. Groundhog less than six weeks ago, saw his shadow and hurried back to his home. Now which is to be believed, Mr. Groundhog or the signs of spring?

RUTH DELAP

"My Creed"

(Note: Miss Keyb, one of the instructors of freshman English, asked her students to write creeds. Some of the following are illustrations.)

I believe that the work of nature is more beautiful than works of art. I am glad I live in the country, and have an opportunity to study nature. I am glad that the mountains are near me so that I may see them every day. I love to bring the cattle off the hills and watch them file in a long line before me down the winding path. I love, most of all, to wander through the woods and to watch the ants build their airy castles,—and to see the different species of birds flutter among the evergreen; while their enemy, the hawk, soars high above the tree tops, calling to his mate beyond the ridge.

I believe that one should be serious in time of work, and jolly in time of play. I am glad that I am free to laugh and call without disturbing any one, except, probably my friend, Echo, who merrily throws back to me my own voice. I believe if the city folk only knew how happy I am; they would wish to live in the country.

MARIE TALBOT

THE SCOUT OATH

The following is the Scout oath in which I firmly believe: "On my honor I will do my best.

1.—To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the scout law.
2.—To help other people at all times.

3.—To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." I believe in the organization and principles of the "Boy Scout" organization is a benefit to the United States or any other country where there is such an organization.

JOHN KUYKENDALL

A WESTERN GIRL'S CREED

I am glad I live in this wild western land where everything is young and beautiful. I am glad I can share in the beauty around me,—in the great western plains, in the distant mountains, in the trees, and flowers, and the silver lakes. I want my own life and deeds to be as broad and as beautiful as this great western land.

I believe my love and loyalty for my western home should reach out in service, to that larger home, the United States. I believe I should try to follow the Golden Maxim, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." I would have all I think, and do, and say, unite us into one great Kingdom of Love and Loyalty.

EVA COX

MY CREED

I believe in working, not weeping, in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of my job.

I believe that one deed today is worth two deeds tomorrow; and that no one is down until he has lost faith in himself.

I believe in courtesy, kindness, in good cheer, in friendship and in honesty.

I believe there is something "doing" somewhere for every one ready to do it.—I believe I am ready.

PANSY ROBERTSON

MY BELIEF

'Tis my belief, that long ago,
We all this earth inhabited
In the form of some animal low.
My grandfather, thrice ten times removed,
Was a seal, living in Alaskan seas.
My great, great aunt was a parrot
Ray,
A white seagull on the summer breeze,
Was my grandmother, wrinkled, old,
and gray.

And so on through the family tree,
I could easily name them, one and all.

The bear, the deer, the ant, the bee—
All birds and beasts my relatives I'd call.

Society

The Rebekahs met in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night, a business meeting and a banquet making up a very interesting and delightful evening.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion entertained the Legion members after the meeting Tuesday evening at a pork-and-beans supper.

The Woman's Relief Corps will meet in the west hall of the Odd Fellows block Monday afternoon at 2:30. Following the business meeting a social hour will be enjoyed.

The Assembly club will hold its regular dance in the Scandinavian hall Monday night. Formerly these dances were held monthly, but they have been productive of so much pleasure on each occasion that it has been decided to hold them every three weeks.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion will give a card party in the White Pelican hotel on the evening of March 30th. Each member of the Auxiliary has taken upon herself the pleasant task of inviting four people, enough for one table each, and a very good time is in store.

Miss Mildred Lewis entertained the young people of the First Baptist church at her home on South Riverside street last night. The house was filled with youngsters, and there was no cessation to the general good time until the hour of departure.

The Bridge club will meet with Mrs. Oscar Shive at her home on Ninth street next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith entertained at a delightful dinner at their home in the White apartment Friday, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. J. J. Parker. The house was prettily decorated in pink carnations. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. Golden Lincoln and Mrs. Margaret Pitts.

The Loyal Berean class was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCollum on Ninth street last night, the occasion being a farewell to Forrest Hughston, a popular member of the class who is leaving soon for Pomona, California.

Those present besides the hosts and the honor guest were: Mrs. Everett McCollum, Mrs. C. E. Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holden, the Misses Gladys McCollum, Thelma Gibson, Maude and Ruth Miller, Lotta and Jessie Caldwell, Ione Solomon, Josephine McCollum, Helen Wirtz, Alice Carson, Geneva Young, Bonnie Lucas and Lucile Sherman, and Messrs Forrest Miller, Valerie Gibson, Frank McClain, Edgar McCollum, Paul Keller, Bill Strowbridge, Earl Carson, Claude Williams, John Carter, John Robinson, Glen Sevtis, and J. Davis.

For several years the neighbors on Conger avenue have held little birthday parties for each other, but the custom was discontinued when Mrs. Wilbur Jones moved to Ewaha Heights. Last Tuesday Mrs. Jones was surprised when her friends again remembered that March 1st was her birthday, and came with their needlework and refreshments to spend the afternoon. Those who made up this pleasant little party were Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Carl Adams, Mrs. George Ulrich and Miss Rose Reed. Mrs. C. C. Low and Mrs. McLain, who always took part in these parties, unfortunately, were unable to be present.

A St. Patrick's Day dance at Fort Klamath is being planned upon an elaborate scale, with many interesting innovations.

The Art Needlework club met at the home of Mrs. Carey Ramsby, 521 Fifth street, Wednesday afternoon. The guests of the club were Mrs. Willard Smith and Mrs. A. R. Tenbrook of Chiloquin.

Last Friday the Past Worthy Matrons' club held its monthly meeting in the Baldwin hotel, Mrs. A. L. Leavitt and Mrs. Frank Ankeny being the hostesses. During the very enjoyable afternoon, plans were made for an apron social to be held in the chapter rooms next Tuesday evening. The ladies pres-

The Misses Dica Auten and Evelyn Amick entertained about a dozen of their young friends at the home of Miss Auten, 429 Oak street, last night. Various games and refreshments helped to while away the hours between 7 and 11 o'clock, when the young folks went home feeling that they had experienced one of the most enjoyable evenings of their lives. The participants were Clare Cornish, John Morgan, Warren Doe, William Kuykendall, Ila Sites, Constance McWilliams, Margaret Cummings, Louis Peterson, Blanch Wiley, Evelyn Amick and Dica Auten.

If the Wood Dealer Sold Service

Do not sell current; we sell service. That sounds odd doesn't it?

Well, suppose the wood dealer sold service instead of wood, he would tend to your furnace and your range, take away the ashes and clean the flues. You would buy so much heat.

Now you buy so much light, although you pay according to the current you consume. But the service is performed wou you by this company at the substations and power plants.

That is what we want to give you—efficiency service. It is the aim of this company to have none but satisfied customers. No matter what it is, if you have a grievance, or are dissatisfied about your bill or do not understand our rates, please come and see us or write us about it.

If you have any suggestions to make, we will gladly avail ourselves of them as our aim is constantly to improve our service to you as fast as the development of science and human ability permit.
