THE STAR

Do you believe that only married women have any freedom? That single girls are so chaperoned that they cannot flirt or have any fun?

Iris Vannator had some very pronounced ideas on the subject, and the first chance she got she proceeded to put them in execution.

But then, you see, Iris was all of 18 years of age, and grown persons who have reached such years of discretion are very apt to become set in their opinions. One of Iris' opinions was that married women seem to have a perfect Paradise of Freedom. So she entered "The Dangerous Paradise," and found, to her great surprise, that all was not exactly as she had expected it.

Whether you agree with the ideas of Iris or not you will agree, after a visit to the Star theatre Tuesday that Louise Huff and the star cast that enact the leading roles in the new Selznick picture, "The Dangerous Paradise," present a most charming and enjoyable entertainment.

The members of these clubs are workers, and are going to complete their work 100 per cent.

The slogan of the Garden and Poultry clubs, the author of which is Elmer Buessing, is: "Give us the shovel and the hoe, and we'll show you how to make the dough," and "Make 'em hatch, and let 'em scratch."

The Garden and Poultry clubs were entertained at the home of Margaret Weiffle. The work was outlined by Miss Dolan, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

At a recent meeting of the Home-Making and Sewing clubs, it was decided that a box social be held (date to be announced later) for the purpose of raising funds to pay the expenses of a delegate from the clubs to the short course given at the O. A. C. next July.
