

Bike Fans Pick This Pair

FREDDIE HILL

RAY EATON

CHICAGO—The team that beats Freddie Hill and Ray Eaton will win the six-day bike grind here. That's the way the bicycle fans rate this pair. Hill is a veteran of proved stamina. Eaton is a sprinter—one of the greatest in the business. He proved it when he beat Goulet in the final sprint at New York recently.

HOPE INSTEAD OF DESPAIR

Inscription Suggested for Portal of British Institution Would Seem Peculiarly Happy.

Above the entrance to the prison on Dartmoor, Eng., which is now to be done away with, two Latin words are cut into the stone, which may be rendered "Spare the vanquished," and it was in this spirit the French prisoners in the Napoleonic wars as well as American prisoners in the War of 1812 were received and treated, and in time allowed to live on parole in the neighboring villages and towns.

Stories of these refined and charming hostages have delighted the heart of youthful readers of many generations, and the work done by them in carving and carpentering is still carefully treasured in many a home in Dartmoor to the present day. Little could they have imagined that the fine air would make Dartmoor as famous a resort as some of the highlands of Switzerland, and that after having become a convict prison about 60 years ago, the place of their incarceration would be turned into an institution for training lads on the Borsal system. The boys will have freedom, and will be acquiring a knowledge of farming and reclamation work, as well as other means of gaining a living and setting them to become valuable members of society. The boys will be merely hostages, and another legend should be carved over the gateway, this time something more suitable to the occasion, such as "Take hope, all you who enter here."—Christian Science Monitor.

"THRIFT" THAT DOESN'T PAY

Some Suggestions for the Housekeeper and for Those Who Are Too Saving.

There are some thrift suggestions that do not always pay, remarks a writer in the New York Sun.

It doesn't pay, for instance, to wrap the ice in your icebox up in newspaper to save the ice when by so doing you will keep the rest of the icebox from being kept cool. You may save your ice, but you may lose more than the worth of the ice in meat and vegetables that have been spoiled.

It doesn't pay to make a cake without butter or eggs when you have to throw half of the cake away because no one will eat it.

It doesn't pay to do your own housecleaning to save the expense of a woman by the day when this means that you are not able to have dinner at home at an expense of rather more than new material would cost.

It doesn't pay to deal with a grocer who undersells the other grocers a little because he has no delivery service when you spend an hour in getting your supplies in order to save 10 cents. There are other ways that you can make an hour's time worth much more than that.

It doesn't pay to set so economical a table that your children and your husband will have a craving for candy and between meals that will cost very much more than would be needed to set a really bountiful table.

Lake That Has a Crust of Salt.
Going through the weird region of Death valley, in California, travelers looking from their perch upon a hillside where a wide view is commanded, may see what appears to be a lake of ice gleaming in the sunlight.

When the lake is reached, one finds it to be not of ice, but that it has a crust of salt. The surfaces of these lakes are wet in winter and dry in summer, where drainage from surrounding highlands pours upon them the flood of winter rains. Evaporation is rapid in this region, and by the time the dry season begins many of the lakes have become crusted with hard salt.

In spite of this abundance, it is said that Europeans introduced the use of salt to the United States.—Popular Science Monthly.

HELPED BY ROYAL FRIENDS

Musicians of Old Days Found Valuable Patrons Among Those in the High Places.

Many a famous European musical genius has been liberally supported at one time or another during his career by "the great," many musicians being connected with royal courts especially in the days when there were many little princes.

Joseph Haydn for 33 years directed and composed for the private concerts of the princes of Esterhazy, during which period he created most of his best rhapsodies.

Beethoven had his life made easier for him by the Archduke Rudolph and Princes Lichnowsky and Lobkowitz. These three nobles were his truest admirers in a day when musicians occupied a subordinate social position, and were regarded more or less as the vassals of the family that supported them.

On one occasion Beethoven was asked to improvise before an aristocratic gathering. He began playing, but the conversation in the salon continued. In high anger Beethoven arose, exclaimed forcefully though rudely: "To such pigs I play no more!" and dashed out of the room.

Mozart, anyone who has read his history of music will remember, was kicked downstairs by an upstart servant of the Archbishop Hieronymus, who was for many years his patron.

Receiver Named for Cannery Concern

TACOMA, March 18.—Claude W. Blackman, a logger working near Shelton, walked into the police station here last night and announced the killing of his uncle, Bethel Blackman, in Wood county, Texas, in October, 1918. A telegram from Texas today verified the confession.

Blackman said he jumped ball in Texas but the matter had preyed on his mind and he wanted a trial so as to be cleared. He said he killed his uncle in self defense.
