

Personal Mention

J. F. McAuliffe, Fort Klamath stockman, is in town on business. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlson, of Klamath Agency are in the city today.

J. S. Bailey, lumberman, is here from MacDoel on business.

James Wiley is among the Fort Klamath residents who are here on business and attending the auto show.

B. E. Kerns, a former resident of this city, and who still owns considerable property here, arrived last night to visit at the home of his brother, James, and his father-in-law, H. J. Mattoon. He will remain about a week before returning to his home in Santa Cruz, California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Hunt, of the Shasta View district, are in town attending the auto show.

Business and the auto show are the attractions which brought Mrs. J. S. Bailey, of Shasta View, to town for a few days' stay.

Mrs. H. E. Wilson and children visited at the C. R. Short home Friday and Saturday.

C. W. Miller, who lives on the Olene road, is in town. The auto show and business are responsible for this visit.

A. C. Goetsche, of Grants Pass, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moore, returned home this morning.

Roy Patrek, of the Oregon Agricultural college, is visiting at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moore.

John Martin, of the Acme garage, has returned from Portland, where he has been under the care of a physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker, of Bly, spent the week end with Mr. Walker's mother, Mrs. Addie Walker.

Frank Applegate is in from Klamath Agency, combining business with pleasure.

V. O. McGee, well known here as a timber cruiser, has returned from a two-days' visit in Jackson and Josephine counties. He came in last night.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cunningham, of Pine Grove, are here on business.

C. D. Plum, of the Peppers-Cotton Lumber company, is in town and will remain here a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jory, of Midland, transacted business here Saturday. Mr. Jory has leased a part of his ranch to Mike Pudoff.

F. H. Turner, who formerly owned the Nevada rooms, has purchased the Helms apartments, the sale being made through Chilcote & Smith. This firm also reported the sale of a lot on 11th street, adjoining the Vogle property, by H. A. Christy to Arnold G. Motschenbacher. Mr. Motschenbacher will build a modern home upon it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Holmes of Malin spent Sunday here.

Rex Bord, well-known sheep man, returned Saturday evening from a trip to Boston, New York and other eastern wool markets, and a visit to his interests in Texas. There is little change in the eastern situation as it affects sheep and wool, he reported.

One Charge Against Morris Quashed

PORTLAND, March 21.—The indictment against Fred S. Morris, charging that he unlawfully aided John L. Ethridge in obtaining naturalization in 1918 by concealing Ethridge's prison record, was quashed today by Federal Judge Bean, who held that the indictment did not charge a sufficient offense.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS DANCE AT THE COUNTY HOSPITAL

Saturday night's dance at the county hospital wiped out the pool table indebtedness, reports J. H. Short. Fifty-one dollars was the revenue of the dance, which was largely attended and an overwhelming success. A box luncheon was served, Mr. Short providing the coffee. Despite the size of the crowd there was an abundance of food. It was late morning before the last of the dancers departed.

Two weeks from now Mr. Short is planning another dance to wipe out the deficit on the barber chair recently purchased.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued to Roderick A. Campbell, of this city, and Miss Mary Newbill, of Portland, last Saturday.

Tax Collection to Start End of Week Says the Sheriff

It will be nearly the end of the week before the sheriff's office can be ready to accept taxes, said Lloyd Low, tax collector, today. The county court Saturday arranged with Rudolph and Rose, expert accountants, who have been auditing the county books, to make changes on the assessment rolls, necessitated by the county court's decision to abide by the Calkins injunction order.

The sheriff said he was informed that three of the rolls would be ready today, but that routine work must be performed after they reach his office which will require several days. Then the collection of taxes can start.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CHARGE TO BE TRIED

An assault and battery charge against Yen Hasselberg will be heard in the justice court this afternoon. J. E. Harvey alleges that the defendant, on March 18, set upon him and kicked him. Hasselberg asked for a change of venue, which was denied. According to report Hasselberg reproached Harvey for not paying money alleged to be owing, and resorted to violence.

Bend Stage to Make First Trip Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock G. A. Johnson will make the first auto stage trip of the season to Bend, the road between here and that city having been opened up sufficiently after the winter snows and slush to permit them to make the trip without difficulty. The stage will leave from the office of the Central Auto Service, 109 North Sixth street, and the fare, one way, will be $16.20.

THREE BUICK CARS SOLD BY HOAGLAND

Louis Hoagland, local agent for the Buick, has just closed contracts for three Buick sales. W. G. West, superintendent of the Klamath Agency, purchased a five-passenger car, Henry Grimes a seven-passenger touring car to be used on the Ashland-Klamath Falls stage run, and Gordon Quimby bought a seven-passenger touring car for jitney service.

Catholic Exchange To Continue Week

So successful was the Catholic Ladies exchange Friday and Saturday that the ladies have decided to continue it throughout the present week. Tea will be served each afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. The exchange is conducted in the assembly hall at the corner of Eighth and High streets.

POLL TAX IN WASHINGTON IS FIVE DOLLARS A HEAD

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 21.—Governor Hart today signed a bill imposing five dollars annual poll tax upon every person between the ages of 21 and 50 years. The poll tax is calculated to raise a fund to retire the eleven million dollar soldier bonus bond issue.

EGGS WAY DOWN

PORTLAND, March 21.—Wholesalers today were offering 20 cents a dozen for eggs. Retailers are selling at 28 cents.

Judge Hamilton's Decree In Courthouse Case Filed

Judge Hamilton's decree in the courthouse case, based on the mandate of the supreme court, was filed in the circuit court late Saturday. The decree gives J. M. Dougan judgment for $92,674.95 and costs of $1095.

All money in the special courthouse fund March 20, 1918, or in process of collection for the fund, or which may be collected later, is to be used to cover the costs of building a courthouse on Block 35 (the Main street courthouse) says the decree. The effect of the decree is to make the Main street courthouse the legal seat of Klamath county government.

Attorneys for Dougan say that there is in the special courthouse fund, and returnable by the county court from uses to which the money has been diverted, a total of $54,000 to apply on the judgment.

PLASTERERS WORKING ON NEW ROOMING HOUSE

Plasterers are at work on the interior of Mrs. Fred Grennon's new rooming house at Fifth and Oak streets. There are 18 rooms in the building which will soon be ready for occupancy.

Tire Co. Manager Finds Business Good

H. H. Hill, manager of the San Francisco factory branch of the Norwalk Tire company, is in town on business with Charley Johnson. Mr. Hill believes that by April 15 the tire business will be back to normal, and that by August 1 there will be a shortage of cord tires if not in all other classes as well. Road conditions, said Mr. Hill, have improved wonderfully in the Sacramento canyon, and that he drove from Redding to Dunsmuir yesterday in three hours, which is considered good time even in the best weather for that trip.

Making a Window
 Is a complicated and interesting process.

Not long ago a lady said to us, "you don't really make windows in your mill do you?" Upon being told that we did, she was much interested and expressed a desire to see just how it was done. A few days later she came to the mill and saw a window made. Saw the large rough boards surfaced to an exact thickness—saw the pieces ripped and cut to the exact length—saw the morticing and the tenoning done—saw them moulded and put together and sanded smooth, all by special machinery and all by Klamath Falls workmen (many of whom spent part of their wages in her husbands store.) She followed the sash downstairs, saw it oiled—saw the glass cut and put in place—saw the little zinc points driven in to hold it solidly—saw the putty run on smoothly and finally saw it put up in the racks ready for the customers who
