With a view to bringing his show window up to the high standard to be found in the larger cities, H. N. Moe, owner of the Women's Store, has engaged the services of Gus Samuel, who will occupy the position of window display and advertising manager of this popular and rapidly growing establishment. Mr. Samuel is a veteran in his line, having been associated with several of the large stores in and around the bay city. It is his intention to introduce the latest ideas in store and window decorating, expecting to make this feature of the store's advertising one of force and value in addition to that placed in The Herald.

Germany Must Pay 20 Billions

PARIS, March 25.—The German government has been notified by allied reparations commission that the total amount of twenty billions of gold due under article 235 of the treaty must be paid by May 1, or additional penalties will be inflicted. At the Theaters

THE MONDALE

The Mondale theatre promised the people of Klamath Falls it was going to give them the best there is in the show business, and the show tonight will prove it is doing so. The Metropolitan Merry Makers company is a standard vaudeville company consisting of four big vaudeville acts, and each and every member is a real artist. Heading this attraction of four big vaudeville acts is Jolly Dick Lonsdale and company in "Ole's Sleepless Night," the biggest bundle of Swede comedy ever delivered. Mr. Lonsdale is vaudeville's greatest Swede comedian, and you will laugh at him until your sides ache.

Next comes DeBell & Winters, in "Bits of Everythin'" a sure cure for the blues. Lots of you will remember DeBell, as he was at the Mondale before with his by-word, "absolutely."

Number 3 is Miss Greta V. Bergen, America's greatest exponent of physical culture. Miss Bergen is the best developed woman in the world, having won the championship in New York. She also holds the Richard K. Fox medal.

Act number 4 features LeGrande & Montague, the Twin-Six laugh makers. They are a scream and surely will drive the blues away, and with 8 reels of comedy pictures you are in for a real treat. Two and one-half hours of solid laughter and clean entertainment. We guarantee this show on a money-back basis, so if you miss seeing it it's your own fault. Admission at prices within the reach of all.

THE STAR

The famous western melodrama, "The Round Up," has reached the Star theatre for two days commencing tonight. By special arrangement with Joseph M. Schenck, Roscoe Arbuckle, the heavyweight comedy star, plays the role of "Slim" Hoover, the sheriff.

Edmund Day's "The Round Up" has been played with enormous success on the road for several years and is familiar to theatre patrons throughout the country. The story centers around the love of Jack Payson for Echo Allen, the ranch owner's daughter. Echo is engaged to Dick Lane, who falls into misadventures at the hands of a band of Apaches led by half-breed Buck McKee. In Dick's absence, Echo falls in love with Jack Payson and marries him, believing Dick dead. On the day of the wedding Dick appears at the Allen ranch. When he learns of the marriage, he disappears into the desert. Echo sends Jack after him to prove she has not broken faith. Together they fight McKee's Apaches and Jack is rescued in the nick of time by U. S. cavalry. However, Dick and McKee are both killed in the battle. Echo accepts Jack upon his return.

A notable cast supports Mr. Arbuckle, including Tom Forman in the role of "Payson," Mabel Julienne Scott as "Echo," Irving Cummings, Jane Acker, Guy Oliver, and Wallace Berry. In addition to playing the hero's role, Tom Forman also wrote the scenario.

HE HAS NEVER SEEN ITS EQUAL

SPOKANE MAN SAYS HE IS SORRY NOW HE DIDN'T TAKE TANLAC LONG AGO. IS GAINING WEIGHT AND STRENGTH EVERY DAY.

"I'm sixty-seven years old now, and during all those years I have never seen a medicine that I consider in a class with Tanlac," said Mike Kunz, of E. 1011 Boone Ave., Spokane, Wash. Mr. Kunz is a well-known farmer who has a large ranch near Wilber.

"I had stomach trouble of a mighty bad nature and, two years ago, was operated on for what was said to be ulcers of the stomach, and when I finally got out of the hospital I had no strength, and still suffered a lot of distress after eating. Gas formed in such quantities it caused me no end of worry and my heart palpitated terribly. I had frightful pains in my back, and at times had such awful weak spells I felt completely exhausted. My nerves were badly upset and I didn't know what it was to get a good night's sleep.

"I kept seeing where Tanlac was helping so many others I began taking it. Well, sir, it is certainly building me up and I am gaining in weight and strength every day. I'm not nervous nor sleepless now, and I believe if I had got hold of the medicine before I wouldn't have had to undergo the operation. Tanlac is certainly a great medicine, and I'm more than glad to tell the public of it's wonderful merits."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by Star Drug Co., in Lorella by James Merc. Co., and in Merrill by Southern Oregon Drug Co., at Modoc Point, E. A. Sutton & Son, at Dairy, W. E. Sedge.—Adv.

NO MORE CHEAP TALK

They say talk is cheap, but Al D. Short, manager of the White Pelican, leading hotel of South Central Oregon, doesn't believe it, for he has believed for a long time that telephone talk was plenty high, and he came to Portland to say he doesn't feel like making talk any dearer, and to meet with other hotel men of the state to take action against the proposed raise in telephone rates.—Journal.

Avoid The "Flu"

In cases of "flu" there is a general infection with local symptoms as in grippe. Often there are other local infections with mixed classes of bacteria.

It is probable that these various forms of bacteria are constantly present in the nasal secretions, but do not cause trouble until the local general resistance is in some way lowered.

A good rule to follow is to spray the nose and throat with Klezco Liquid Antiseptic used in a good atomizer night and morning to keep the nasal passages and the throat in a healthy condition. Strict obedience to the laws of hygiene will almost invariably prevent influenza.

Exposure and Chilling Frequently the Cause

This is usually due to the fact that the nerves controlling the circulation are over sensitive. The result is a break in the power of resistance. The bacteria present in the nose and throat become active and serious illness results, unless prompt action is taken.

If a cold is not treated when the first symptoms show themselves, it will frequently develop into more serious complications. It does not pay anyone to take a chance when relief can be easily and quickly obtained.

Get of us a box of Rexall Laxative Aspirin (U. D. Co.) Cold Tablets today. Take them according to directions the moment the first symptoms appear and you will obtain real relief.

We guarantee them.
