POWER OF THE PRESS

(Sacramento Bee.)
Many people rail at the newspapers and say this country owes much of its troubles to their disturbing agitation over various matters. But it is well to remember what Thomas Jefferson said: That if he had to choose between a Government without newspapers and newspapers without a Government he would choose the latter. The truth is that in the United States the press does very much of the actual governing, through spread of information and voicing public sentiment for the instruction and guidance of Legislatures, Governors, Congress and the Administration at Washington. In this regard the historical fact may be noted that President Jackson was so much alive to the influence of the press that he established a newspaper organ of his own in Washington, the Globe. It was Jackson's habit to hold daily conferences with his editors, Blair and Kendall, at which political articles would be mapped out for publication. These editorials furnished inspiration for the Democratic papers throughout the country. But it is not probable that the Marion (Ohio) Star will be greatly in demand as the organ of the Harding administration, although the President owns it.

LORELLA LOCALS.

400 Rabbits Killed In Drive At Dorris

DORRIS, Cal., March 29.—In the number of people attending Sunday's rabbit drive near Mt. Hebron surpassed any previously held but from the point of rabbits killed the day could not be considered as successful as many preceding ones. The ground covered was infested with plenty of the long eared creatures but many of them ran the gauntlet of flying clubs and stones and secured their freedom before the corrals were reached. In all, perhaps four hundred rabbits fell victims to the voracious crowd. Many came on the train from Klamath Falls and entered into the spirit of the drive with zest and enthusiasm. The J. F. Ranch, five miles east from Dorris, will be the scene of next Sunday's drive.

The Reason
He was afraid of failure,
So it isn't hard to guess
Why he lived and died, a fellow
Who had never known success.

When He's Real Busy
When a man is too busy to brag
About how much he has to do, we
May safely assume that he is real Busy.

"If you save money, you're a grouch;
If you spend it, you're a loafer;
If you get it, you're a grafter;
If you can't get it, you're a bum—
So what the Hell's the use?"

It's not such a big thing for a girl
To give the average gink a kiss and
Leave the impression that she swiped
It.

In Paying Taxes
The ordinary fellow pays his taxes
With about the same spirit a woman
Takes off her hat when she didn't
Have a chance to comb her hair before Leaving.

Charley Hall says that if you do
Your work right every day you will Succeed—you will have no competition.

Jim Milne says women don't wear

We seem to be very strong just now on supplying homes for the homeless in Europe, and it would be more than fair, while making out the list to include the American ambassadors, who are more homeless than almost anybody else across the Atlantic.

MIDLAND DIKE IS OVERFLOWING

The Midland dike is overflowing on account of the rainy season and melting snow in the mountains. This is the first instance in its history, since it was built six years ago.

The purpose of the dike is to serve as a road over the tule land to Miller Island. The tule lands about Midland is one large lake at present, which adds much to the scenery of the place. The tule lands cover several thousand acres in this vicinity.

The people from Miller Island, who can not get to the mainland with cars are: Geo. Furber, J. D. Hooper, Edger Furber, H. Targen and Victor Goffie. This condition may last a month or more.

Mr. Davis, engineer for Mr. Yamaguchi, arrived from Stockton Friday night. He is going to run the tractor on his farm in this vicinity. He is going to put in the crop on the tule land that was drained last year. Mr. Yamaguchi owns 1400 acres of tule land. He drained 360 acres of it in one year and put it in shape for farming.

There is talk here, of a new company, who intends to drill for oil. The new company will begin drilling on the Morgan ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Davis from Klamath Falls were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Patterson Easter Sunday. Mr. Patterson is proprietor of the Midland Hotel. Mr. Davis was former S. P. Agent at this place. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and family and their guests motored to Klamath Falls.

Mr. Roberto Gonzales, from Dorris California, is visiting his cousin Mr. A. Reyno, at the section house.

Mr. Young, local merchant was a

Klamath Falls visitor Friday and Sunday.

Miss Lillian Knapp spent the week end at Klamath Falls. She attended services at the First Presbyterian church with Miss Carleton, assistant county school superintendent and Miss French, teacher from Olene. After services a splendid dinner was served by Miss Carleton.

Mrs. J. W. Jury is at Lower Klamath Lake spending the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Will Worden. Mrs. John Worden from Shippington is here visiting her son, Wm. Worden.

Mr. William Adair, from the A. A. Davis ranch made a trip to Klamath Falls Sunday.

Mr. P. J. Pederson from Midland went to Klamath Falls to hear Dr. Bulgin, the Evangelist.

Mr. Del Fatti and family went to church at Klamath Falls Friday. Mrs. A. Reyno, who had been seriously ill for the past two weeks is better and out of bed.

Ora Merlin Depuy swallowed a whistle Friday. Mr. J. W. Depuy took him immediately to a physician at Klamath Falls. He is recovering nicely.

Homer Depuy, assisted by his brother Harvey, branded 100 head of cattle, belonging to the former.

Misses Henrietta and Alice Owens and their two brothers, Albert and Ernest, from Klamath Falls were here visiting friends, and their sister Mrs. Harvey Depuy Easter Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Depuy and son Alfred were Klamath Falls visitors Monday.

J. W. Jory made a business visit to Klamath Falls Monday.

Fur seal hunting in the summer-time off the coast of Washington is restricted to the Quillayute, Ozette, and Makah tribes of Indians, whose rights are guaranteed by a treaty signed ten years ago by the United States, Great Britain, Russia and Japan.

Long-Bell
THE MARK OF QUALITY LUMBER
OAK FLOORS OVER OLD FLOORS
Oak floors are often found in such costly surroundings that few imagine how little they cost. Very few people realize how much they can get for their money by laying 3/4-inch Oak floors over old floors.
The distinctive modern and artistic appearance of a home, as well as its health and comfort, will be greatly increased by the use of Oak flooring. Oak flooring is rich and cheerful in color, and imparts an air of elegance and refinement to a home.
For permanently artistic floors we recommend Long-Bell Forked Leaf Oak Flooring. It is uniform as to color and texture, perfect as to manufacture and is of superior quality. Its remarkably smooth surface is unsurpassed, and it makes an ideal foundation for a beautiful interior.
Let us know the size of the rooms you wish to floor. You will be surprised and pleased at the figures we can quote you on 3/4-inch Long-Bell Forked Leaf Oak Flooring.
