Is It
a Dream?
Are We Asleep?

Yes, it is still a dream, and we are asleep in Klamath Falls.

We are not awake to the possibilities that are before us.

Many of you will not really wake up until oil is actually gushing out in Klamath Valley.

Some will sleep right through these days of opportunity and not invest a dime in Klamath Oil Stock.

When the gushers come in; when it is too late for groundfloor investment; when the wiser ones are taking profits; then everyone will wake up and wish they had followed the lead of Cap. Siemens, and Ed Bloomingcamp and Asa Fordyce and Bob Robertson and the rest of the bunch who are never asleep; who are always awake to business possibilities, and always have the nerve to bet their money on those possibilities.

After oil is actually struck it will be too late.

Next month may be too late.

Next week may be too late.
