Stock Company
Coming to Star

The management of the Star Theatre announces a complete change of policy commencing Monday, April 18th. The Jolly Dick Lonsdale company, an organization of five versatile people will hold the boards at the Star in conjunction with the regular high class photo-play features.

The personnel of the company includes Jolly Dick Lonsdale, a Swedish comedian of more than ordinary ability, Miss Imelda Montagne, a dainty little singing soubrette, Miss Mira McKinney, late of the Alcazar dramatic stock in San Francisco, Ed Russel, another San Francisco favorite who has played principal parts with several of the best dramatic stock companies in this country, and Davis Goodman, a leading man of ability with a good singing voice. The management believes they have secured a company well able to please the most critical of audiences, and wish to assure their patrons that the entertainment offered will be of the clean wholesome kind that makes you feel like coming again.

The company will present the best tabloid musical farces and comedy-dramas, with singing and dancing interpolated. Mr. Lonsdale promises something different in scenic and lighting effects for each production, and says he believes he has a brand of amusement that will gratify a long felt want in Klamath Falls.

THE LIBERTY THEATRE

Exquisite hangings, draperies, rugs, lacquered furniture inlaid with mother-o'-pearl and solid gold, vases, lamps and bowls, representative of the finest art of the Orient, and of such quality and texture as is rarely seen outside of a private collection were used in decorating the interior settings for Sessue Hayakawa's latest Robertson-Cole production, "Li Ting Lang," which plays at the Liberty theatre today.

Few screen productions have offered photoplay lovers the remarkable Northland scenes which are the settings for the story related in James Oliver Curwood's "Isobel; or, The Trail's End," which is to be presented at the Liberty theatre tomorrow.

THE STAR

"Not Gilty," the photoplay which is coming to the screen of the Star Theatre on Sunday is arousing interest among patrons of that house because many have read Harold MacGrath's thrilling novel, "Parrot & Company," from which it is adapted. The feature is released through the Associated First National Pictures Inc., and is a Sidney A. Franklin production presented by Albert A. Kaufman.
