

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

A Regular Butcher

A most notorious slayer. In he, I've heard folks say; No blood he spills Although he kills A dozen hours each day.

The authorities arrested a "live wire" dancer in Cincinnati last week because she was not properly insulated.

Popular Fiction

Maw, I dunno why the teacher alus picks on me, but she does.

A Missouri editor took poison the other day because he failed in business. Yet some people will go right on reading over the other fellow's shoulder.

A dog will stay right with a fellow when he hasn't got a cent. And so will a collector.

Ted White says the greatest art in motion pictures is "making up". That's why there are so many successful feminine stars, we suppose.

Bob Robertson says a vamp is really nothing but a pickpocket who works with her eyes.

Arthur Collins admits that he thinks that rings were made for fingers. But we know a certain girl who thinks that her finger was made for a ring.

Hobart Bosworth just released a picture called "A Thousand to One". Some of his admirers will say that titles cover just about the chances he took the other day in becoming a benedict.

"O. Henry," asserts a magazine writer, "immortalized the park bench in his stories."

In other words, O. Henry was to the park bench what Bud Fisher is to the brick. No reflection on O. Henry intended.

Ultra-civilized folk think it is awful the way the savages torture themselves for the sake of fashion. Yet we never hear of a cannibal lady trying to get a No. 2 shoe on a No. 5 foot.

Society Note

It is reported that a Klamath Falls girl who has been taking lessons in esthetic dancing and cooking has decided to abandon the latter course of study.
