

IRISH WOMEN FLY AMERICAN FLAG; JAILED

ATHLONE, Ireland, April 19 (By Mail).—Two sisters, Miss Una and Lena Sharkey of Strokestown, County Roscommon, are prisoners in the military barracks here after a series of alleged persecutions by the Crown forces which have made their case one of the most celebrated in Western Ireland.

An interesting feature of the case was the determination of the two young women, both of whom have visited the United States, to keep the American flag flying over their shop, "The American Novelty Store," at Strokestown.

The White Cross Association's report on the affair says the girls repeatedly raised the flag but each time it was hauled down and seized. "Finally the flagpole was removed and a threat made, with a revolver at the girls' heads, that if the flag was again shown the house would be burned."

The young women's troubles began it is said, when a retired police official conceived the idea that they were turning their shop into an ammunition factory because they had a knitting machine in their store. The sisters encouraged him in that belief. When the joke on him became public the aged police official became the town bully. This made him so angry, the White Cross report states, that, with the aid of a fellow constable acting as a magistrate, he had the sisters arrested and they were detained in a prison cell for two months.

After being released, the report says, "they were commanded to close their stores, which tyrannous order they ignored. Again they were arrested, and kept in prison for several months." On being freed they tried to reopen their shop with the result, the report asserts, that their entire stock, valued at more than $15,000 was seized and carried to the military camp.

Six months later, the report continues, "the military took back a dilapidated remnant of the goods looted, and against the protests of the protests of the Misses Sharkey, dumped them into their store." This was sold at auction, realizing about $200. With that amount and a contribution made by sympathizers throughout the country, the sisters again engaged in business.

"The girls," the report says, "were now persecuted by Black and Tans, who robbed the counter tills and removed whatever of value that struck their capricious fancy." Because of alleged threats of night attacks, the girls slept at the house of their brother, a merchant. Persecution, it is charged, was then switched to the brother, whose "safe was rifled by Crown forces and his premises looted." Finally he and his sisters were arrested. He is now confined in the Strokestown military camp. The total losses of the sisters is estimated at $25,000.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Luster At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

LAKE COUNTY FOLKS WED

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius O'Connor arrived in Lakeview on last evening's train. Mrs. O'Connor was formerly Miss Marie Boerner, popular young lady in local circles. The marriage, though not entirely unexpected, came as a surprise to the many friends of the couple, for the ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother in Modesto, Cal., and the news had not yet reached Lakeview.—Lake County Examiner.

It Can't Be Done! BUT-- It Was Done

They used to say there was no other bread like mother used to make. That was true before BAKERITE was put on the market. BAKERITE OVENS AND BAKERITE METHODS did the business and today you can get a loaf of bread possessing that delicious, lasting, appetizing flavor heretofore found only in bread made at home. This bread is sold exclusively at the Rex Cafe and The Maize. It is also served exclusively in The Rex Cafe.
