

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

FROM MY WINDOW

With joy I sit at my window sill And watch the women go by until Then foreman's voice rings loud and shrill, "Get busy on that copy."

So I read a line of riot or rankle And then look down at a passing ankle And then I ponder on what the last Yank'll Want if he ever gets back home.

I write about Ford and his libel Of some old gink who can sing the Bible, And then gaze down with an instinct tribal On a pair of delicious shoulders.

The livelong day that's the way it goes And I sit in my window and look at the shows, I envy the firemen as I gaze at the hose— But now it is time to quit.

Fred Houston says that it is hard to tell when he sees a young lady with bobbed hair whether she has just recovered from typhoid fever or merely trying to keep up with the style.

Trot Out Our Candidates

It has been said that the busiest thing in the world is a one-eyed man at a three-ring circus.

For second honors we nominate a tongue-tied woman at a chatter party.

Are there any further nominations before we begin balloting?

Criticism doesn't hurt anybody. Nor does ridicule for that matter. What has been more abused than the flivver? and yet everybody knows that it keeps going.

Kinda seems like we pulled that once before.

But in order to play safe, we'll risk it again.

Father wishes for some one to invent a community lawnmower.

A woman often goes shopping and forgets to take any money with her. But she never goes shopping and forgets to take her pocketbook with her.

If all the unkind things which have been said about the Herald were printed on a single strip of paper eight inches wide, said strip would girdle the globe three times and one-half.

And incidentally would bring quite a tidy sum if sold for paper.

There is something wrong with the fellow whose heart doesn't beat a little faster about this time of the year.

We don't know whether to feel flattered or offended when somebody slips us a squib with the remark: "Here's a good one for your column." And then find upon examination that it's one we ran two or three weeks back.

LORELLA LOCALS Farmers are busy these days finishing their spring seeding. The ground is in excellent condition and good crops are expected this year.

Mrs. Gus Keller received by parcel post one thousand day-old chicks this week. They are the White Leghorn variety. Langell Valley will soon be noted for chickens, as well as other things.

Whooping cough is quite prevalent among the children of the neighborhood. Oscar Campbell's baby daughter is one of the latest victims.

M. T. Prince is threshing his last year's oat crop this week. On account of the stormy weather last fall he was unable to get it threshed then.

TURK PAPERS CENSORED BY FOUR NATIONS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Apr. 19.—The task of editing a local newspaper is exactly four times more difficult than in an American city, for here there are Turkish, British, French and Italian censors.

A paper here after the censors have finished with it, sometimes bears little resemblance to what the editor intended.

Here are gathered some 20 nationalities, and each requiring an organ. The Greeks have seven newspapers in their own languages, and one printed in French; the Armenians have four in their own language and one in French; the Turks have some dailies in their own language the Jews have one in French and two dailies in Spanish; the French have one in their language, the commonly spoken and written language of the Levant; and they also pay subsidies to several others. The British have one—the Orient News.

The Arabs have their organ. So do the Persians. Likewise the Russian people from other lands slans, anti and pro Bolshevik, have their little sheets. The Americans print a magazine of business and a weekly, the Far Seas, printed by the United States navy. The Italians used to have their organ, and soon will have it again. The Greek Patriarch has his. There is also in French the weekly bulletin of the Vatican's Apostolic Vicar.

It is an easy matter to print a paper in English or French. However, consider that the Jewish paper is printed in Hebrew letters but in the Spanish language, also that the Turkish language requires four kinds of type and has 90 letters to its alphabet. The Arab language is a good deal like the Turkish, except that it is different in accent marks, and the same may be said of the Persian.

Now put four censors, each of a different political opinion, onto the job of eliminating the undesirable part of these newspapers, mix with three or four interpreters to each censor, so he will know what it is all about and the result is a distracted lot of editors who print the news when they may.

The editors claim they often are obliged to print their paper four times over before issuing it. As this country of sunshine and racial heat is also the land of exaggeration, they may not set up their papers as many times. But their printers' bills are heavy and without racial pride to call forth supporting money, the papers would, many of them, cease to be published. Most of them do.

TOBACCO CURE KILLS FORMER LAKE CO. MAN

Word has been received at Lakeview that Clyde Clippinger, a former resident of Lake county, had died at Walla Walla, Wash. Death followed a long illness which resulted from taking a tobacco cure. Mr. Clippinger undertook to cure himself of the tobacco habit, and the medicine he used brought on acute indigestion, which developed into meningitis.

A box of face powder—one cent. UNDERWOOD'S ONE-CENT SALE.

Mrs. C. Keller who has been spending the winter in Langell Valley with her sons, will return to her home in Portland next week.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Will Campbell.

The Pie Social given in Fordney's hall by the Ladies' Aid Society was a success and netted a neat little sum.

The Hard Times Dance held in Fordney's hall the eve of April 8th, was a great success. The dances have become a regular feature in the valley and are given every two weeks.

Miss Violet Gale, who is attending the Sacred Heart Academy in the Falls, attended the Hard Times party Friday eve. Her mother took her back to school the following Sunday.

Mr. C. Conley, who has been laid up all winter with Job's comforters, is expected to be in on the road to recovery. He has had a hard siege of it this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Conley have gone to Merrill for the summer. Mr. Conley has work on the irrigation project there.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations.
