

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

"Now all you little boys who want to go to heaven lift up your right hands!"

All hands went up except one in the school room.

"Why, Henry, don't you want to go to Heaven?"

"No. My papa says 'business' has gone to Hell, and I want to be where the business is."

BUT THEY DO

Joe Britt says its hard to make the average seventeen year old girl believe that when she is forty those glorious dimples will turn to wrinkles.

OR A $2 SHIRT

If the average wife has thought of every imaginable way to spend her allowance, and has exhausted the entire repertoire, then she is almost sure to buy her husband a red necktie.

No, Fred, nothing is more touching than the retailer's store to the customer when he tries to explain why the prices do not decline.

The difference between poetry and verse, Anna, is that anybody can understand verse.

There is none so disagreeable as the fellow who almost agrees with you.

Wasted effort, I. e., a jet black colored citizen wearing a pair of horn-trimmed glasses.

Some time ago this Col. inquired: "What has become of the old-fashioned fellow who jingled his money in his pants pocket?"

It has finally dawned upon us that a fellow is in luck to have a pair of pants these days, let alone anything to jingle in 'em.

The crying need of the cities is not more blue laws but more bluecats.

The law-abiding American is necessarily in his declining years.

A FINAL S. O. S.

WANTED—A nice long barrel, nicely upholstered, with running water and steam heat. Also a medium and a small size barrel of the same description for the members of my family, viz: Mrs. Colyum and the Little Colyum. Would prefer an extra barrel for any guest we may or may not entertain. However, this is not absolutely necessary. Address, the Office Cat, conductor of the Colyum.

If the Wood Dealers Sold Service

Do not sell current; we sell service. That sounds odd doesn't it?

Well, suppose the wood dealer sold service instead of wood, he would tend to your furnace and your range, take away the ashes and clean the flues. You would buy so much heat.

Now you buy so much light, although you pay according to the current you consume. But the service is performed wou you by this company at the substations and power plants.

That is what we want to give you—efficiency service. It is the aim of this company to have none but satisfied customers. No matter what it is, if you have a grievance, or are dissatisfied about your bill or do not understand our rates, please come and see us or write us about it.

If you have any suggestions to make, we will gladly avail ourselves of them as our aim is constantly to improve our service to you as fast as the development of science and human ability permit.
