

97 REQUESTS. USE OF WATER

During the months of January, February and March, 97 permits to appropriate water were issued by the state engineer, Percy A. Cupper. These permits cover the irrigation of approximately 6500 acres of land, the development of 20 horsepower, and the construction of 180 miles of canal, at an estimated construction cost amounting to $1,400,000. During this period seven reservoir permits were issued covering the storage of 1405 acre feet of water at an estimated construction cost of approximately $22,000.00.

Among the most important developments contemplated are:

The construction of the municipal water supply system by the City of Molalla, which contemplates the expenditure of $45,000.00 in securing water supply from Trout Creek.

The City of Walla Walla, Washington, contemplates the extension of its pipe lines on Mill Creek in Umatilla county, Oregon, to secure water above the present intake at an estimated expenditure of $92,000.00.

E. G. Favell, of Lakeview, Oregon, contemplates the development of the hot springs located near Lakeview, for domestic, medicinal and heating purposes, at an estimated cost of $10,000.00.

The Ontario-Nyssa Irrigation company, of Ontario, contemplates the appropriation of additional water from the Snake river for the irrigation of 226 acres of land.

The Deer Creek Lumber Company, of Minam, Oregon, secured permit to appropriate water from Deer Creek and a reservoir for fluming lumber at an estimated cost of $6,000.00.

The Rogue River Valley Canal Company, of Medford, in connection with the work being done for the Medford Irrigation District, have appropriated water from Little Butte Creek for the irrigation of 2528 acres of new land. This construction is now under way.

Messrs. J. B. Godman and A. L. Schaffler, of Dexter, Oregon, have secured permit for the appropriation of water from Lost Creek in Lane county, for fluming lumber and for the irrigation of 399 acres of land at an estimated cost of $25,000.00.

Klamath Permits
In Klamath county, the following permits have been issued:

To Geo. S. Hoyt, of Fort Klamath, Oregon, covering the appropriation of water from Jackson Creek for irrigation of 200 acres in Klamath county.

To George S. Hoyt, of Fort Klamath, covering the appropriation of water from Williamson Creek for the irrigation of 260 acres of land. This development will necessitate construction work amounting to $500.00.

To Edward Copperfield, of Yainax, Oregon, covering the appropriation of water from two springs for the irrigation of seventy-five acres of land.

Parkhurst to Run Hotel This Summer

Agreement has been made between A. L. Parkhurst, manager of the Crater lake concessions, and members of the Crater lake improvement committee upon a satisfactory price for the purchase of the Parkhurst interests, according to the Portland Journal.

The committee plans, however, that Parkhurst will remain at the lake and operate the concessions this summer. Some improvements will be made and a careful check will be made upon the revenues and expenditures. Arrangements between the committee and Parkhurst are to be approved by the national park bureau.

AN IRISHMAN STARTED AMERICAN REVOLUTION

NEW YORK, April 24.—The American made the first strategic move of the American Revolution. He seized from the British the powder that was later used by the Americans at the battle of Bunker Hill. He was John Sullivan, the son of a Limerick schoolmaster.

This is revealed in an article on the part Irishmen have played in the making of America. It appears in the April issue of The Mentor Magazine.

FIRE PROTECTION EXPERT

INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Jay Stevens, former battalion chief and fire marshal of the Portland fire department, lies seriously injured in a hospital at Ripon, Cal., as a result of an automobile accident Monday, says the Portland Journal. Hospital authorities say that he probably will live.

Stevens began his career as a supporter of fire prevention work as a fireman in the Portland department. His ability won him promotion after promotion until he is now chief of the Fire Prevention bureau of the National Board of Underwriters.

The president of the United States has a special flag used on occasions when the president appears in his official function as commander in chief of the Army and Navy. The flag consists of the coat of arms as they appear on the president's seal, against a blue background and flanked by four stars.
