The Spratts Now
Jack Spratt could eat no fat,
His wife could eat no lean;
The price of meat was too d—n high
So they kept their platter clean.

What Makes 'Em Wild?
Henry Timothy Sutton, aged 18, of Knoxville, Tenn., has filed suit for divorce against his wife, Maggie Sutton, aged 73. He claims his wife is "too old" and that "I never liked her."

Jim Bratton says that if passenger rates go much higher a fella on a train will be looked upon as a spend-thrift.

General Sherman evidently knew nothing about making out an income tax report when he made his famous remark, or he might have gone a little stronger.

Making It More Comfy for the Sermon Nappers.
Rev. George B. Gilbert, rector, of the Episcopal church of Chester, Conn., has ordered the pews removed from the church and rocking chairs installed in their place.

'Twas Ever Thus
The "Perfect Venus" discovered in the ruins of Carthage is headless. That part of the discovery does not surprise. A girl who finds out that she is beautiful usually loses her head.

What Busted It?
Esteemed Sir:
I stopped in a Klamath Falls caddy last evening and ordered a small steak. After the waiter had bawled the order back to the cook I had a change of heart and decided to have a sirloin instead. Notifying him of my decision, he stood looking perplexedly at me for a moment. Then his face brightened, he smiled and leaning over, whispered in my ear: "That's all right, friend, there's no difference in 'em."

Optimistic
A columnist uttered a curse.
He hankered to write lofty verse.
But the task got his goat
So a limerick he wrote,
And remarked, "Well, it might have been worse."

Watson, My Hat and Goggles, Please
(Ad. in New York Times)
LOST—Work of art in negligee, on Fifty-ninth street, between Madison and Lexington avenues.
Still another kind of optimist is the person who tries to board a crowded car with an arm full of millinery boxes.

Somebody's husband complains that the trouble with keeping a budget is that, while it looks convincing enough on paper, it fails to work out in practice.

New York hotels are said to have $5,000,000 worth of whiskey left over; still that isn't so much, when one stops to think about it.

Fred Morley says that accumulated fat can not well be called ill-gotten gain.

Well?
Kirkaville (Mo.) Journal
A woman by the name of Mrs.

James Peruna was arrested on 4th street, for bootlegging.

Which is the worse, a spoiled child or one who is too fresh?
Doctors are in business for the health of others, but not for their own.

If a man is a millionaire he can say all the fool things he wants to without impairing his reputation for wisdom.

Every dog has his day—and the watchdog has his night.
A man may be a complete master of himself and yet have nothing to boast of.

LUMBER FOR CASH ONLY

ANNOUNCEMENT TO OUR CUSTOMERS!

Our pay rolls have to be met with spot cash. Wholesale credits have been tightened and curtailed and in many instances entirely withdrawn. A large portion of our purchases are now spot cash. Our creditors rigidly require immediate payment of accounts as they fall due.

Our own collections have become more and more difficult from month to month until our bills receivable now amount to practically so much Dead Capital. In order to continue business on anything like a sound basis it has become necessary to SELL FOR SPOT CASH ON DELIVERY ONLY, BEGINNING MAY 1ST.

Contractors and others requiring frequent deliveries may avoid the inconvenience of daily cash settlements by making credit deposits in advance.

We greatly regret our inability to longer continue credit accommodations to our customers and trust the public will appreciate the conditions which have made this change in policy necessary.
