

"Pay fifty dollars"

Fifty dollars is the right price to pay for a good suit of clothes this season. It means reliable all-wool fabric, rightly pre-shrunk and silk-sewn with skilled tailoring. It means "14-karat" canvas and the other "unseen materials" in the structure of the suit. It means style and fit which stay through long service. It means more satisfaction than two $30 suits could give you.

Be careful this spring

Go below a certain price and something must be sacrificed—inferiority, adulteration—anything but economy in the long run.

We are accenting the $50 price this season as being the right price to pay for a suit of Kuppenheimer good clothes—a true investment in good appearance.

No Money in Klamath?

OF COURSE THERE IS

Just watch the crowds go to the circus next Monday

The money spent at the circus would make an awfully good start at Drilling an Oil Well.

EVERYBODY IN KLAMATH HAS MONEY and they spend it too whenever anything comes along with a SLAM-BANG AND A PARADE.

WAIT TILL A GUSHER COMES IN. Then you'll realize that there are SLAM-BANGS AND PARADES IN OIL. AND PROFITS TOO.

You can go right on sleeping for another month or two and still be in plenty of time for all the SLAM-BANGS AND PARADES. But you'll be too late for profits

BONANZA NEWS

Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, and Frank Sexton, county club leader, were in Bonanza Thursday visiting the Busy Bee Sewing club. An extra meeting of the club was called, so that Miss Cowgill might inspect the work and exhibit work from other clubs of which she has charge. She expressed herself as being very much pleased with the management and work of the club. Mr. Sexton spoke to the boys of the school on the organization of poultry and stock raising clubs here.

Miss Head, county superintendent of schools, visited the school here Thursday, addressing the different grades and sewing clubs.

Miss Alice Lytel, who has been away from home teaching school, visited home folks here over Sunday.

Under the new management the hotel at Bonanza is fast becoming an up-to-date affair. Mrs. Chaney was in Klamath Falls Saturday buying new furniture, rugs, etc., for the building. Mr. and Mrs. Chaney seem to have the correct idea of just what a modern hotel should be. They have everything in readiness for their trade and in fact are already doing a rushing business, serving special Sunday dinners of chicken, ice cream, cake, etc.
