LANGELL VALLEY NEWS

Will Duncan paid the valley a visit last week and says it looks fine for this time of year. Mr. Duncan removed to Rogue River several years ago where he is engaged in the farming business. He had the misfortune to break a spring in his car, and this delayed him a day.

Cecil Deal and family have returned to the home ranch and expect to farm it for the next year. Mrs. Deal spent the winter at Gold Hill working at a mine.

David Turner has been drilling for a well, on his place the past week. The first attempt brought only hot sulphur water, not unlike the present spring on the place, while the second venture gave forth an abundance of clear, cool water, much needed for household purposes.

Saturday, Cecil Deal and Fred Hilton scraped the roads from the top of the Allen hill to the post office. This is the first time a scraper has been over the road since August 1920, and with the exception of two culverts being replaced, this is the only work that has been done for over a year in the west side of the valley. Last year the road just east of the post office was widened and graded, and a grade or two fixed in bad places, but in the most parts the roads have been almost impassable all winter. The amount of road tax paid by residents of Langell valley would keep the roads in good shape if any interest was taken in them. When the old time law of working out road tax was in vogue, better roads and more interest was shown in them.

Mrs. Alida Duncan has been hauling grain from W. W. Warren's place to keep Mr. Duncan supplied with seed grain.

John Noble made a trip up to his homestead last week and brought his stock down to his valley place.

Sol Dewey, Jr., was recently appointed notary public. This has been a much needed office for some time, there being only one other in the valley at present, Chris Cowley.

John and David Turner have been hauling posts for the highway the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Corkery moved to their new home last week.

George Noble visited at the Duncans' Saturday, and brought home his range horses in the evening.

Will Campbell has been plowing on his ranch and putting in his grain.

Billy Deal hauled a load of hogs to Groh's ranch Tuesday of last week.

Ivan Kilgore moved to Antelope Saturday, to do his farming.

J. B. Casey and family took in the dance at Lorella Friday night, as did Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Hilton, Miss Deal, Mr. Deal and Everett Malone.

"Shorty" Ruland and wife were serenaded Saturday night by the neighbors, as a sort of welcome back. Mrs. Ruland was formerly Miss Agnes Jardine. They spent the winter in Idaho, but spring fever caused them to wander back.

Mrs. Nel Smith entertained at a one o'clock Sunday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kilgore were guests.

Miss Boblette Tuttle spent Tuesday with Mrs. Alf Duncan.

News reached the valley last evening of the marriage of Lester Wishard and Miss Ruth Tompkins in Klamath Falls, Ore.

Several women have been purchasing White Leghorn day-old chicks, among them Mrs. Gus Keller, Mrs. Alfred Keller, Mrs. Merle Kilgore and Mrs. Fred Hilton. The turkey business seems to have gained quite a hold in Langwell valley. Those raising them for profit are Mrs. Daisey Huntley, Mrs. Etta Malone and Mrs. Alida Duncan and John Noble.

Mr. H. E. Winard branded calves Saturday. He was assisted by John Noble.

Reservation inhabitants are seen going to Clear Lake after the annual roots, which they gather each year.

Archie Pankey has been hunting his horses a couple of days, they having strayed from his pasture.

Letters From The People

Honorable Reader:
The American Federation of Labor and the Industrial Workers of the World are two labor unions who don't go together.

The American Federation of Labor is a craft union and was established to enable workmen to get a little something out of life besides hard work, that makes a bare living for workers and profit for others.

We are threatened with a regime of reaction.

The open shop movement is to crush labor, right or wrong.

The attempt is futile, because they attempt to stifle the equality of opportunity.

Some business men are seeing red.

They call men with progressive thought I. W. W. It is the foulest page in history. The very principles of Americanism have been undermined by this hysteria and panic.

Is this the work of the invisible government?
