They Doubtless Will

"I'm in doubt about the wisdom of arresting the food profiteers," said Al Graham.

"Why? I should think you'd want them punished," said Bob Robertson. "It may be all right to punish them but as a consumer, I'm afraid they'll raise prices again to get the money to pay their fines."

Evidently, Lady Astor, who says that the world is "too loose," hasn't been at the bank lately to borrow money.

And You'd Have Company

Dear Office Cat: Are members of Klamath County Chamber of Commerce exempted from taxes? If so, I'll "jine." GUMP.

Some Old Story

To the Office Cat: Early this morning I went down To the river With my fish pole And throw in my bait And got a bite And he got away And I threw it in again And he bit again And got away And I went up stream And tried again And hooked a big one And fought him around And all most got him And he flopped off And then I swore. I thank you!

Runs Either Way

"Are you a bull or a bear in Wall street?" "Neither," replied Mr. Dustin Star, "When I'm on the trail of a sure profit, I'm a bloodhound, and when I'm scared, I'm a rabbit."

LUMBER FOR CASH ONLY

ANNOUNCEMENT TO OUR CUSTOMERS!

Our pay rolls have to be met with spot cash. Wholesale credits have been tightened and curtailed and in many instances entirely withdrawn. A large portion of our purchases are now spot cash. Our creditors rigidly require immediate payment of accounts as they fall due.

Our own collections have become more and more difficult from month to month until our bills receivable now amount to practically so much Dead Capital. In order to continue business on anything like a sound basis it has become necessary to SELL FOR SPOT CASH ON DELIVERY ONLY, BEGINNING MAY 1ST.

Contractors and others requiring frequent deliveries may avoid the inconvenience of daily cash settlements by making credit deposits in advance.

We greatly regret our inability to longer continue credit accommodations to our customers and trust the public will appreciate the conditions which have made this change in policy necessary.
