

OTIS SKINNER HAS SCREENED "KISMET"

AMERICA'S FOREMOST CHARACTER MAKES HIS FILM DEBUT IN NOTED PLAY

Otis Skinner, greatest of American character actors, makes his debut as a screen star in "Kismet," the smashing hit of the two continents, at the Liberty Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. The picture, produced by Thurstay, is a super-special Robertson Cole as a super-special Robertson Cole as a super-special Robertson Cole...

Mr. Skinner, who, on the legitimate stage in this country, created the principal role in "Kismet," that of Hajj, the beggar, and played it before hundreds of thousands of people, is pleased to believe that his screen version is his greatest interpretation of the part. Also, Mr. Skinner has declared that his screen portrayal is his last appearance in the character.

While always maintaining a high standard in all pictures released, Robertson Cole has, in his presentation of "Kismet," outstripped all previous efforts. Placed in old Turkey in Asia, in the city of Bagdad, the story gives many opportunities for richness of settings. Realizing that to duplicate and outdo the stage version of "Kismet" it was necessary to go the limit and embrace each and every one of these opportunities, hundreds of thousands of dollars were spent in obtaining exactitude of detail and perfecting of setting.

For many years, Otis Skinner was averse to appearing on the silver sheet. His work, he claimed, was for the legitimate stage alone and while many stars of the audible drama switched their affections to the realm of the film, Mr. Skinner remained obdurate. Finally, when he was convinced that a screen version of "Kismet" would perpetuate both the play and himself, he consented to revive Hajj and give the story to the world at large through the medium of motion pictures.

An extraordinary fine cast appears in support of Mr. Skinner. Included are Hamilton Revelle, who appeared in the original production of "Kismet" with the stars; Rosemary Theby, Elmer Fair, Miss Comont, Nicholas Dunasev, Herschel Mayall, Fred Lancaster, Leon Barry, Sidney Smith, Thomas Kennedy, Sam Kaufman, Emmett King and Panny Ferrari. "Kismet" was adopted by the screen from the original story by Edward Knoblock. The settings were designed and erected under the direction of Frank D. Ormston. Gaetano Gaudio, the famous camera man, had charge of the photoplay while Mrs. J. M. Kilgus had charge of the wardrobe department.

Down Comes THE OAKLAND $250

This is the startling announcement that comes to us by wire. This is the most astounding reduction ever made in the history of automobiles, for it does not mean any change in the perfection of America's premier car—The Oakland. Perfect in construction, so evenly balanced that it runs like a watch, so wonderfully equipped as to be a marvel for speed and endurance, you can now get The Oakland at a price that places it in a class all by itself.

We have a Sedan and a Roadster on the floor now. You can get them at the reduced price—$250 on each.

We have a carload coming. These will be finished in two colors, Brewster Green and Dark Maroon and will be here in ten days. If you want to get in on this carload, place your order at once.

Short Season For Sawmills

We must look the situation of the lumber business squarely in the face. There will be a short season, how short we do not know. One thing is certain, when the mills shut down there will be no more cheap wood.

O. Peyton & Co. are delivering green slab, sixteen inch length, saw at $8.50 per cord. The wise buyer will lay in his winter's supply now and take no chances on the mills closing down.

Every customer who bought green slab early last year and had it dry when winter set in, is pleased. Many have placed their orders already. Buy early and place your orders now and be sure.
