Death Presses hard On Mexican Officer

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Death may defeat the efforts of the Mexican government to extradite Captain Carmel Carlos Garcia on a charge of having embezzled $60,000 while a paymaster in the Mexican army. Garcia is dying of tuberculosis in the San Francisco county jail. If he goes to Mexico, he may be shot as a traitor.

Garcia was arrested here at a fashionable hotel more than two years ago. He fought extradition on the ground that his was a political offense, and that in Mexico he would have to face a firing in this country and be draped with the American flag.

The case has been carried through several courts. After having been released several times on bail, Garcia underwent a serious operation and tuberculosis developed. Recently he was pronounced in a serious condition. Lower courts ordered him returned to Mexico but he has carried his appeal to the United States supreme court, which must decide in which country his life will end.

When arrested, Garcia had in his possession $28,000 of the $60,000 he admitted having taken. The remainder had been spent chiefly for jewelry and clothing. The courts took charge of the $28,000 and proposed that the cost of keeping him in jail and supplying him with medical attendance should be first deducted and the sum remaining be returned to the Mexican government.

If the decision goes against Gar-

"Mother" Robinson Forced to Retire

TACOMA, Wash., May 13.—"Mother" Robinson, who years ago was known throughout the Pacific northwest for taking the part of the miners in labor troubles in the Coeur d'Alene district, recently was forced by age to give up the newsstand she has operated here for two generations.

In the early nineties, in Idaho, "Mother" Robinson was known as the "poetess of the miners" on account of the verses she wrote depicting the struggles. She went to prison with some of the strikers and when released she found that fire had destroyed the hotel she had been conducting. She then came to the coast and opened her newsstand here. "Mother" Robinson is 82 years of age.
