THE OLD HOMEME TOWN By Stanley.

THE STAR

The colorful love stories and lavish settings in Robert W. Chambers' stories lend themselves well to presentation on the screen.

"The Restless Sex" deals with feminism, but not in a political way. It portrays the insatiable desire of the modern young woman for excitement and a place of importance in the world.

Ralph Kellard and Carlisle Blackwell are prominent in the large cast supporting Miss Davies. Robert Z. Leonard directed the picture, which is a Paramount.

Rumors which have been current in the motion picture industry that Charlie Chaplin longed to forsake the field of burlesque and appear in a dramatic role on the screen have been verified as having a substantial basis, for the picture has been completed.

The comedian has accomplished the impossible in his latest picture, "The Kid," First National's six reels of joy, which will be the attraction at the Star theatre, beginning Sunday.

In "The Kid," however, according to critics and others who have seen it, he accomplishes it. Charlie is there in the same character which has gained him the place as the world's most popular comedian, but in situations which combine an occasional sob with shrieks of laughter.

THE MONDALE

"The Country That God Forgot" is to be the feature attraction at the Mondale theatre on Sunday and Monday. This is a story of the Western wastes and a man's love for a woman, and was directed by Marshall Neilan, who is probably one of the greatest directors of today.

In this picture he has assembled a prominent cast which includes Tom Santschi, famous for his portrayal of "The Spoilers," and now being starred in Goldwyn productions.

Mary Charleson, former leading lady for Henry B. Walthall and other prominent stars, and George Fawcett, the former Griffith player and now directing Vitagraph productions are other principles in the cast.

"The Country That God Forgot," is a drama of exceptional interest and is a story which will appeal to all. Interpreted and directed by such well known people it cannot fail to arouse the most stolid person in its action and strong appealing force.

THE LIBERTY

Everything But Confession—That's what the police got from Dr. Hugh Standing, charged—and apparently justly so—with the murder of Tubbs, a political boss, during the first act of a musical comedy.

AN ACCIDENT AT THE CREAMERY—SOMEbody PULLED THE BLOCK OUT FROM UNDER THE WHEEL OF A TRUCK LOADED WITH CREAM.

ing talked a great deal, but never did he utter a word of confession. He was a sensitive, nervous man, not the stolid sort who can withstand physical battering. Yet he would not confess. An unusual circumstance, but not when it is considered as a part of that most unusual story, by Jack London, "The Star Rover." It will be shown in pictures tonight at the Liberty theatre.

Heretofore on screen or stage there has been glimpses of a horse race that carried a limited element of suspense and climax, but Maurice Tourneur in his picturization of "The County Fair" receives credit for putting the first real race upon view.

In this fine rural drama of New England life Tourneur carries his admirers to a typical county fair and reaches his grand climax in the thrilling race which Cold Molasses wins. From the exciting start to the nerve-racking finish it is a real race, over a real track and run by trained thoroughbreds. The result is in doubt up to the very climax finale, and when the equine hero saves the fortune and home of the leading spirits in this simple study of New England life there is a combination of sport and drama that is irresistible. At the Liberty Sunday.

The high quality of success that follows advertising in the classified column of The Herald is due to the intelligence of its readers.

FRANK S. B. FLETCHER, Manager, wishes to announce that Eagle Ridge Tavern-Upper Klamath Lake will be open to the public on May 14th for the season.

This popular resort has been closed for the past two seasons but the public may be assured that under the new management the accommodations will be on a par at least with that of our predecessor Mrs. Mary Griffith.

A speciality will be made of Sunday dinners for motor and boating parties.

Fishing is excellent right now and arrangements may be made at the Tavern for boats.

The management extends a cordial welcome to the public and sincerely hopes for a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore extended our predecessor.
