THE STAR

As a general rule mothers are pretty good judges as to whether their children are in real trouble, or are shamming tears for the purpose of gaining some object. Once in a while, however, a juvenile actor really happens and such is Jackie Coogan, who plays the title role in "The Kid," the special Associated First National attraction, starring Charlie Chaplin, which is now showing at the Star theatre.

The picture contains one of the most pathetic scenes ever filmed, when the authorities insist on separating Charlie and the Kid, on the grounds that Charlie is not a fit guardian for him. The Kid bursts into tears at the idea of parting.

Mrs. Coogan, mother of the boy, was invited to a special showing of the picture, and left the projection room in the midst of this scene.

"You may tell me it is only acting," she said outside with tears streaming down her face, "but I know better than that. Jackie would never cry like that unless his heart was broken. Although I know he is at home this minute and probably up to some mischief, I can't stand to see pictures of him, when his heart is being torn right out of him."

She stuck to it, too, and has never seen the last half of the production, which carries her son through to the happy ending on a flood of comedy of the brand which only Charlie Chaplin can produce.

THE LIBERTY

Beatriz Michelena, one of the most beautiful and magnetic actresses of the screen, has a vivid and intensely vital role in her new production, "Heart of Juanita," made under the direction of George E. Middleton.

Juanita, queen of the dance hall in the primitive settlement, was the life of the primitive place of amusement. When a fluffy-haired blonde from San Francisco, captured the fancy of the boss, Juanita's love turned to hate.

"Ye fool! Ye ain't got any strings on me!" taunted Brandt. Juanita's Spanish blood boiled in rage. "You promised to marry me! Now you laugh! But you'll laugh no more!" she cried, and sank a knife in his breast.

The young trapper up in the hills gave her refuge from the pursuing posse, and she repaid him by saving his life. Calvert, the trapper, fought a hand-to-hand fight with knives in his little cabin, and won the love of the impulsive dance-hall siren.

There is life, and color, and tense dramatic action in "Heart of Juanita," which moves with a rapid pace to a thrilling climax. Shows at the Liberty theatre tomorrow.

PACIFIC HIGHWAY IS NOW IN GOOD SHAPE

ASHLAND, Ore., May 16.—The Pacific highway through Oregon, from Portland to the California line, is now in as good condition as it is likely to be at any time this year. At present there is no place on the highway where even the inexperienced motorist could have any trouble. Construction work, however, will begin soon, causing rough detours in places. The Oskar Huber company expects to be through with the paving of the highway in July.

BISCUIT COMPANY ENTERTAINS NORTHWEST FRIENDS, PATRONS

About 1,000 merchants and their families and clerks from all over the Northwest, were entertained at a merchants' reception which was given in their honor on May 11th, by the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company, of Portland, Oregon.

The visiting merchants were shown through the plant and were given the opportunity of seeing biscuits, candy and crackers in the various processes of manufacture. The operation of a recently installed embossing machine which is capable of turning out 750,000 fancy biscuits in a day, was one of the features of the display. A shortbread machine which can turn out 50,000 biscuits an hour, was also shown in operation. Refreshments were served.

FOR DE-HORNED CATTLE ONLY

The Wichita National Forest Commission permits no cattle that have not been dehorned to run on the reserve. Cattle with horns hook into the trees and twist and break the tops and branches of the young growth. The cattlemen are pleased to co-operate with the Forest Service in this matter.

Marshfield Elks Are Preparing For August Convention

The Annual Meeting of the State Association of Elks will be held in Marshfield, Oregon, August 18-19-20, 1921, and the preparations being made are elaborate, taking in all the natural advantages that Coos county has to entertain visitors. There is no doubt but that this Convention will be the biggest thing Coos county has ever attended. More than 5000 are expected to attend.

Warships, hydroplanes, water sports, ocean trips, baseball, shooting matches and many other events will enliven the three days.

The Elks of Marshfield have a beautiful home that was built at a cost of about one hundred thousand dollars and it is the center of the activities of preparation for the convention.

One of the special features will be a Sea Food Dinner at the ocean when it is expected that the entire delegation of visitors will be fed on the delicacies of the Bay and sea. This dinner alone, it is estimated, will cost about three thousand dollars. The Coquille valley, Elks will give another dinner of dairy foods, and there will be an abundance of all the good things that are necessary to make the meeting the most successful ever held in Oregon.
