

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Oh, Spring has come!
Lykell! Lykell!
Oh, Spring has come!
Lykell!

His "Movie" Orchestra
High diddle, diddle,
He played on the fiddle While wifey played the snare drum; When along came a film with bathing girls in,
And put the whole band on the bum.

Friend: One who shares your opinion of yourself.

Long sentences make it difficult to follow the thought. Especially the thought of crime.

Nelson Rounselle says the size of the tip doesn't indicate how much money the patron has, but it may indicate how long he will have it.

"Bullet Strikes Girl's Knee Without Puncturing Skirt—Police Baffled," says a headline in the Philadelphia Record. The police are so stupid.—Grand Rapids (Mich.) Press.

When the former doughboy contemplated the tax burden, he wonders why he ever complained of the weight of his fighting equipment.

A man asked us today to say something pretty mean about people who are still charging more than they should for the goods they have to sell. And we would say it, too, if we didn't suspect that we would do the same thing if we had the chance.

Horace Manning says the older we grow and the more we see, the greater becomes our pity for the weaker sex. He certainly hasn't more than half a chance in this world of struggle and endeavor.

Here is a snappy conversation held between two film-titles:
"Who am I?" says one.
"Who cares," says the other.

Fred Baker says every man feels pretty well satisfied with himself till some noisy old spinster aunt shows him a picture of himself "when he was five, turnin' six."

The reformers probably wouldn't object to tobacco if he would eat it in the form of greens.

"Doc" Westerfeld says the bachelor has his troubles, but he doesn't have to apply for a permit when he wishes to change to porkousknit ones.

Humanity can be divided pretty well in four classes: those that are nobody in particular and know it; those that are somebody and nobody else knows it; those that are nobody and advertise it, and those that are somebody and induce others to advertise it.

WOMEN! BUY NO DYE
BUT "DIAMOND DYES"
Unless you ask for "Diamond Dyes" you may get a poor dye that streaks, spots, fades and ruins your goods. Every package of Diamond Dyes contains simple directions for home dyeing or tinting any new, rich, fadeless color into garments or draperies of any material. No mistakes! No failures!

WILL RENT FIRE DEPARTMENT Chicago has decided to rent out its fire department on taxicab rates to towns within 100 miles. Certain companies do more for suburbs for which they receive no compensation than they do for the city.

OREGON BREVITIES

OREGON CITY, May 17.—Resumption of operation of all machines and departments of the Hawley Pulp & Paper mill here provided places for more than 200 men who have been out of work for from one to two months.

LA GRANDE, May 17.—The O-W. shops here reopened after several months of idleness. Fifty-eight machinists, boiler-makers and helpers were put to work immediately after word was received by the railroad authorizing an expenditure of $25-000 on necessary repair work. Additional men are expected to be taken on early next week.

PENDLETON, May 17.—A plea for more national funds to be spent in women's and children's bureaus of the United States was made in an address by Mrs. C. B. Simmons, regional director of the National League of Women Voters and a delegate from Alinsworth school, Parent-Teachers' association, Portland, before the Oregon Parent-Teachers' association in annual convention here.

PENDLETON, Ore, May 17.—At a price of somewhere between 20 and 24 cents, the first wool sale of the season for this section has been made by the J. E. Smith Livestock company of Pilot Rock to Studley & Emery of Boston. The clip is Delaine Merino and comprises about 50,000 pounds of high grade wool. The Smith company was one of the few Umatilla county growers to sell last year.

I'd walk a mile for a Camel

The pleasure is worth it. There's no substitute for Camel quality and that mild, fragrant Camel blend.

The fellow who smokes Camels, wants Camels. That's because Camels have a smoothness, a fragrance and a mildness you can't get in another cigarette.

Don't let anyone tell you that any other cigarette at any price is so good as Camels.

Let your own taste be the judge. Try Camels for yourself. A few smooth, refreshing puffs and you'd walk a mile for a Camel, too.
