

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

The legislature of New York state is considering the use of an electric scoreboard for the registration of votes which would permit a quick and accurate count of votes cast and in addition call the roll. Each assemblyman would have three push buttons marked "present," "no" and "yes." The signal would be registered by a photostat which would make a permanent record of the proceedings.

By blending corrugations of rippled in wire glass it is claimed a glass has been evolved that throws the light all over the building. This glass is strong and durable, being made in one solid piece and not in layers.

Trench digging machines used during the war are now being employed to construct a pipe line from Havre to Paris.

Chemists have succeeded in extracting an oil from apple parings which possesses in high degree the characteristic and delicious odor of fresh apples. The oil is extracted by means of ether, and it is hoped that it can be turned to useful account for perfumes or flavoring purposes.

Why Not Medford?

Professor Gasher of the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C., who is heading the Smithsonian exploring party in Africa, has discovered a talking ape in the jungles. But why did he go to Africa, when Medford is so near?

Some Guy

Oregon is glad to have this chap for a citizen. A local bank wrote asking as to his qualifications, etc., and here is the answer "Just as it was writ."

"In ans to your letter, at hand, about John Doe who was borned & raised in this country, & is well known, through out this country as he has been very active, here in business since he was but a lad. He started, to seek his fortune with out a dollar of capitol, but, he used good judgment, & his habits good, people liked to deal with him & he got on his feet, & made money. He owns twenty five shares in this bank, a nice home here, & half interest in one of the very best farm in the county, but had to leave this country on acct of the malaria, & as he had some timber land in Oregon, he, has located out there. He can give you, different banks in this country, or any county official, as reference. While he was, a strong Democrat, & the County strong Rep. & every office in the county is rep. yet, they know him, to be a good business man & I am sure they would not hesitate to say it at any time. He has the record of being the best business man in the County, of his age, this is a Country in the hills where there is not much wealth, but John Doe, one year a go when he left this county, was the wealthiest, man of his age, in the co, & had made it by hard work, tending to business when the other fellow was a sleep & saving every dime he made. The ones who knew them best were the ones, who was his best friends. His family record is here as his Father & Mother was borned & raised here & are living in this country to day, & any favor you may see fit to show him will be greatly appreciated, not only by him, but his friends, & Kinsman of this country. I am the present cashier Having Taken John Doe's place, at the tim he left this country."

The smallest man in the world wants a divorce. We had always supposed that the smallest man in the world was the fellow who left town house cleaning time.

Ah, Yes

Enough to make of the mermaid a murmur maid! These new bathing suits! For why shouldn't the funny little belle of Neptune's court murmur against the fate which prevents her from wearing anything so jaunty as a costume of checked gingham? Gingham suits have been so popular on the Florida coast this winter! Would that the northern resorts do nothing to interrupt their course. A blurb from a Chicago newspaper society page.

We submit the above as a fair sample of metropolitan journalism. What the writer is trying to say, of course, is that it is all right to wear bathing suits made of material called gingham.

A health authority says that every clerical worker should have 70 square feet of office room, and in the young onion season most of 'em know how to get it.

Mrs. Nancy Westcott, of Syracuse, N. Y., who declares Tanlac is the greatest medicine on earth. Says it built her up to where she is just brimful of new life and energy.

"I just think Tanlac is the greatest medicine on earth and I can never praise it enough for what it's done for me.

"For two years I was in a badly run-down condition. I had no appetite, and after every meal would be in awful distress from indigestion and bloating. My nerves were on edge, and I could never get a good night's sleep. I felt tired and worn out all the time, was losing weight, and many times I was so weak I couldn't look after my housework. I just felt miserable.

"Tanalac helped one of my friends so much that I began taking it and it has certainly built me up into splendid health. My appetite is so big I can hardly get enough to eat now, and I am never troubled a particle with bloating or indigestion. My nerves are as steady as clockwork, and I sleep like a child at night. I have recovered my strength and am just brimful of new life and energy. In fact, I feel better than I have in years. My gratitude towards Tanlac is unbounded."

The above statement was recently made by Mrs. Nancy Westcott, 121 Market St., Syracuse, N. Y.

Spiders' webs may be preserved if they are sprayed from an atomizer with artists' shellac and then pressed carefully against a glass plate at the same time severing the supporting strands. Many spider webs are beautiful, having interesting characteristics of the species to which they belong.

If the Wood Dealers Sold Service

Do not sell current; we sell service. That sounds odd doesn't it?

Well, suppose the wood dealer sold service instead of wood, he would tend to your furnace and your range, take away the ashes and clean the flues. You would buy so much heat.

Now you buy so much light, although you pay according to the current you consume. But the service is performed you by this company at the substations and power plants.

That is what we want to give you—efficiency service. It is the aim of this company to have none but satisfied customers. No matter what it is, if you have a grievance, or are dissatisfied about your bill or do not understand our rates, please come and see us or write us about it.

If you have any suggestions to make, we will gladly avail ourselves of them as our aim is constantly to improve our service to you as fast as the development of science and human ability permit.
