NORMALCY RESTS WITH CITIZEN

Secretary Weeks Tells Presbyterians the Church Has Duty to Perform.

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 24. — In connection with the efforts of the Presbyterian church to promote universal peace, John W. Weeks, secretary of war, was asked to present to the Presbyterian general assembly, now in session here, a statement giving his views regarding the function of the church in the solution of the nation's problems. As a result, the following message from Secretary Weeks was read today to the Presbyterian commissioners assembled from all parts of the country:

"The nation is gradually putting its house into order, but neither the president by executive decree nor the congress by the enactment of legislation can wholly return the country to a normal state. The solution of our problems, both social and industrial, will not be very difficult when the citizen himself decides to return to a state of normalcy; and it is this connection that the church, I think, has a duty to perform, the importance of which cannot be overestimated.

"The first line of defense of the republic from the enemy without and the enemy within is not the navy nor the army, but the home. This great nation was founded on the little group of sturdy Christian homes that constituted the Plymouth colony, and it is to the American home that America owes its greatness and power, not to its commerce, its mighty fleets, or its victorious armies. It is the source of our strength and we cannot lessen its influence or importance without dangerously weakening the very foundation of the republic. Keep the homes fires burning and bolshevism and I. W. W.ism and anarchy will die of malnutrition.

"There are abroad in the land influences which are steadily undermining the home life of America, and the tendency of our modern life is to seek a substitute for the home. In returning the nation to a state of normalcy, our first duty is the restoration of the sanctity, the integrity, and the importance of the American home. The church is in more intimate relationship with the home than any other agency in the body politic, and in these days of reconstruction the church can, if it will, exert a steady and sobering influence at a time when men are not inclined to think clearly, and can render the nation and itself no greater service than to undertake, as its part in the readjustment of the affairs of the country, the re-establishment of the old-fashioned American home.

(Signed) JOHN W. WEEKS.

At the Theaters

THE STAR
 Three big time acts of vaudeville will be given at the Star theatre tonight and tomorrow night in connection with the regular picture program. "Visions D' Art, the act beautiful is something new and a genuine novelty. Oldfield and Drew, and Clark and Bennett, are all direct from Graumans' big Los Angeles theatre. Oldfield and Drew will afford you all the laughs crave for in their comedy, while Clark and Bennett will entertain with their high class Hawaiian music, a musical treat well worth the price of admission alone. Eugene O'Brien will be seen tonight in the Selznick picture, "World's Apart."

THE LIBERTY
 "Body and Soul," a photoplay promising to be the most interesting of Alice Lake's appearance on the screen, will be seen tonight at the Liberty theatre.

Local motion picture theatregoers have seen and liked Miss Lake in the comparatively few but more the comparatively few but more tures which have been hers since her sensational rocketing to popularity. As the fisher girl in "Should a Woman Tell?" and the not dissimilar but more ambitious role in James A. Herne's "Shore Acres" her freshness of personality and strength of emotion placed her on an artistic plane which she achieved again as the rough diamond heroine of "The Misfit Wife."

The forthcoming screen production, a story of an American girl art student in Paris, will give the young actress a character rather different, it is understood: a departure from the girl-in-gingham parts. It is a romance of the Latin Quarter; and Miss Lake, say those who have had pre-release views of the picture, proves as piquant in the Parisian atmosphere as if she had been born and raised within a stone's throw of the Seine.

THE MONDALE

There are some intensely tragic moments in the Triangle play, "Tiger Girl," which will come to the Mondale theatre next Friday and Saturday. However, this intensity is enthralling and is saved from being excessive by a lightening of the prospective in the end. Lillian Gish stars as the wronged wife, and her portrayal is coming as the young, pure-souled girl, brought up apart from the rude hurly burly world. Wilfred Lucas is the husband, who was a man about town prior to his marriage who becomes tired of matrimonial bonds and seeks solace in the exciting society of a daring stage dancer, Roszika Dolly.

The play offers one of the most absorbing stories recently seen in the films, and it is predicted that it will have extraordinary popularity whenever it is presented.

Dog teams will be furnished men employed by the Edison Company in the Sierras of Southern California during the winter months when they are cut off from the outside save by wireless.

David in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry. Notice will be published for nine consecutive weeks in the Evening Herald, Klamath Falls, Ore. JAS. F. BURGESS, Register. 29, Apr. 5-12-19-26 May 3-10-17-24

Here Comes Electra Platt
 Chautauqua Brings Famous Monologist and Entertainer With Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio on Second Day

Electra Platt is coming! This great monologist first won her fame in "big-time" vaudeville and now stands at the pinnacle of her profession in the Lyceum and Chautauqua world. She is a delightful entertainer—plus. She writes all her own monologs and presents them as only Electra Platt can. With her come two other real artists, comprising in all the Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio.
 Vernon Stone, formerly of "The Banjo Fiends" on the Orpheum, is a wizard on the banjo. He seems to have uncanny power over this ever-popular instrument. Achille Bragers, third member of this accomplished trio, is a Belgian piano-accordionist and baritone of note. He is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Brussels and is an artist to his finger-tips.
