

OREGON BREVITIES

SALEM, May 26.—Two hundred officers and selected enlisted men of the Oregon national guard will go into camp for a week's intensive training preliminary to the maneuvers at Camp Lewis next month, according to final instructions issued today by George A. White, adjutant-general of the state.

SALEM, May 26.—Members of the Oregon supreme court joined in sending a telegram to President Harding urging that the latter appoint William Howard Taft as chief justice of the United States supreme court to succeed Edward D. White.

PORTLAND, May 26.—Portland is exporting more wheat and flour this season than ever before, but the total movement from all north Pacific ports has not yet established a record, though it is close to it. The Columbia river this season is forwarding about four times as much grain as Puget Sound, whereas in former years the movement was more evenly divided.

PORTLAND, May 26.—All Pacific northwest lumber production records were broken by the Oregon and Washington lumber output for 1920, according to figures compiled by the United States forest service here and announced by the West Coast Lumbermen's association. The report showed that the two states produced 8,841,578,000 feet of lumber in 1920.

PORTLAND, May 26.—The greatest seizure of narcotics in the history of Oregon was made last week when federal and police officials arrested five men believed to be importing cogs in a gigantic dope ring operating on the Pacific coast. Sixty-eight ounces of narcotics, valued at more than $30,000 were seized.

SALEM, May 26.—The Union Oil company of California today remitted to the secretary of state a check in the sum of $14,108 covering its tax on sales of gasoline and distillate in Oregon during the month of April. The tax of the corporation on its general stations aggregated $13,291.77, while the tax on sales of the Klamath Falls substation amounted to $816.23.

SALEM, May 26.—The public service commission, in an order issued June 27 as the date for a hearing of its order of last March granting to the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company material increases in its rates to patrons of its lines in Oregon.

BEND, May 26.—Because they objected to proprietors working more than eight hours, the Culinary Alliance placed pickets in front of four restaurants. In response to telegrams to state officers asking authority the reply came back, "Cut it out, it's ridiculous," according to the eating house owners under boycott. All of the houses are union places.

LA GRANDE, May 26.—The flooded area was increased to probably 32,000 acres when another levee broke. The levee which broke is on the west side of Catherine creek between that stream and the Grande Ronde river. The water of the latter is now backing through the break.

PORTLAND, May 26.—In spite of the retarding effects of labor difficulties in many of the larger Eastern cities, building conditions throughout the country are showing improvement and construction activities are increasing steadily in magnitude.

CALIFORNIA NEWS

YREKA, May 26.—An election on the proposed organization of the Klamath Shasta Irrigation Project was called by the Board of Supervisors for July 12th. Ager, Montague, McGraw's Place, Yreka and Mountain View were named as the polling places for the various divisions.

MARYSVILLE, May 26.—The first suit in the history of Yuba county in which both parties to the action are Japanese has been placed on the Superior Court register.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Nearly 1,000 cats—954, to be exact—were humanely destroyed during the month of April, according to report made by Secretary Matthew McCurie, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

LOS ANGELES, May 26.—The United States government, acting through John P. Carter, collector of internal revenue here, has tied up more than a half million dollars cash belonging to the owners of the Tijuana Racetrack in an effort to secure a settlement of income taxes it claims are due from them, according to a statement here.

SAN DIEGO, May 26.—Official rainfall figures announced by the weather bureau here show that the total precipitation here this month is 2.34 inches to date, making it the greatest rainfall for May ever recorded in San Diego city.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—With his plantation near Caracas, capital of Venezuela, South America, his announced destination, James Otis, San Francisco business man, left here in a large airplane accompanied by Pilot William Morris and Mechanician Charles L. West. The party is flying by way of Fresno and Bakersfield. From San Diego the route is mapped by way of Tucson and Phoenix, Ariz., and then into Old Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—The Pacific American Steamship Association decided to refuse to sign any agreements with seagoing labor unions in the future, in line with the action taken by the American Steamship owners in New York.

SAN DIEGO, May 26.—Six divisions of destroyers, totaling thirty-six ships, and the cruisers Charleston, Salem and Birmingham, left port to engage in an extended search for trace of the missing navy tug Conestoga, last heard from when it sailed March 27th, from Mare Island for Hawaii.

Medford Pays Honor To Van Allen Cornish

The following from the Medford Mail-Tribune tells of the funeral of Van Allen Cornish, held in that city:

In paying the last sad tribute this afternoon to Carl C. Dunham and Van Allen Cornish, two of the Medford soldiers who lost their lives in battle in France, the people of Medford and vicinity indirectly honored the memories of all the local soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice in the great world war.

The business places of the city were closed during the hours of the funerals which began at 2:30 o'clock. Very large assemblages were gathered at each service, and a great throng witnessed the double funeral procession and attended the joint military burial exercises held by the Medford post of the American legion at the cemetery.

The services over Carl C. Dunham were held in the chapel of the Perl Funeral Home, with Rev. D. E. Millard officiating, and the services over Private Van Allen Cornish were held in the Weeks & Conger Company Chapel, with Rev. E. P. Lawrence officiating. There was a wealth of floral offerings at each funeral, including pieces from the American Legion post and the city of Medford. The post's offering stood at the head of each American flag draped casket.

The speakers at each service paid high tribute to the soldier dead, and appropriate musical selections were sung at each service. The pall bearers were all American Legion men.

It was planned so that each service would end about the same time and so that each funeral cortege could assemble on Grape street and proceed to the cemetery side by side.

The tangelo is a new fruit, a cross between the tangerine and the grapefruit, and is more tender than either. The United States Department of Agriculture states there is little or no tendency for the juice of the tangelo to squirt when the spoon is inserted.
