

OREGON BREVITIES

BAKER, May 27.—The Baker American Legion post is laying its plans for getting the 1922 state convention of the legion. The Baker delegation at the convention in Astoria last year was promised the next chance when it was voted to go to Eugene this year.

PORTLAND, May 27.—Renewed interest among creditors of Morris Bros., Inc., is expected to develop following the announcement that the physical properties of the defunct bond house are to be sold late in June with a view to reimbursing investors.

PORTLAND, May 27.—The meat situation has become very serious. There has of late been utter stagnation in the livestock market. Killers claim that the low prices offered for livestock are the result of the lowness of wholesale values. They claim that it is the lack of demand that is causing so much trouble in the trade at this time.

PORTLAND, May 27.—Next week unless the weather man plays havoc with climatic conditions there will be quite liberal stocks of home grown berries on the market. In the meantime there is an acute shortage of offerings and the price has generally been advanced for the California stock.

PORTLAND, May 27.—Private reports received by the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association not only confirmed the government's estimate of a 50 per cent fruit crop east of the Rocky mountains this year, but from many sections of the east came advices of more serious damage. In Oregon, on the contrary, there are prospects of a fine fruit crop, with the exception of prunes.

MYRTLE CREEK, May 27.—While this section produced more than 500,000 pounds of petite prunes in 1920, and is the largest grower of this kind of prunes of any locality in the northwest, the crop will fall short of that quantity this year, owing to unfavorable weather conditions during the blooming period. But larger sizes will rule this year than last, which will mean more money for the growers.

SALEM, May 27.—Shippers who have claims for reparation against the director-general of railroads, included in the period of federal control, December 28, 1917, to February 29, 1920, may file claims with the carries direct up to September 1st, 1921, according to a letter received at the offices of the Oregon public service commission from the United States railroad administration.

PORTLAND, May 27.—Joseph Cogan, aged 50, was suffocated in a sawdust bin, into which he slipped at the Northwestern Electric Company's power plant recently. Fellow workmen attempted a rescue, but he was dead when they reached him.

CALIFORNIA NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Imports into Pacific coast seaports during February were 62 per cent less and exports 37.1 per cent less in value than in February of one year ago, according to a statement issued here by the San Francisco federal reserve bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Thomas Mooney made a fervid plea in court for investigation of the charge that perjured testimony was responsible for his conviction for murder, in connection with the Preparedness day bomb explosion here in 1916, accusing Samuel M. Shortridge, now United States senator from California, of joining with the district attorney in a conspiracy to defraud justice. Mooney is serving a life sentence in San Quentin penitentiary.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—First California grown watermelons of the season reaching San Francisco arrived from Calipatria, Imperial county, and were quoted in the produce market at 10c a pound.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 27.—Fire, which firemen said started by the explosion of a large still, caused slight damage to a home in the fashionable residence district.

COLUSA, May 27.—Charged with the brutal murder of Hi Jump, Chinese restaurant man of Williams, last fall, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Villa and Mrs. Mabel Raglan are in the county jail here awaiting their preliminary hearing. The date of hearing has not been fixed. This is according to District Attorney Charles K. Atran.

The three suspects were brought back from Klamath Falls by Sheriff C. D. Stanton Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—In the belief that he has knowledge that Frank C. Oaman, a leading witness against Thomas J. Mooney, was not in San Francisco when Mooney was alleged to have placed the 1916 Preparedness Day bomb, which caused ten deaths, Earl Hatcher, a Woodland, Cal., stock raiser, was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury tonight and outline this evidence.

Who borrows trouble will pay for it.
