At the Theaters

THE STAR

There came to the screen of the Star theatre yesterday "Mamma's Affair," an altogether delightful feature, which shows tonight also.

It is a First National Attraction, presented by Joseph M. Schenck, in which the always refreshing Constance Talmadge carries off the stellar honors. It is the screen version of Rachel Barton Butler's Harvard University prize play, which enjoyed a successful New York and road run last season.

The director, Victor Fleming, has succeeded in making it even more delectable than in its play form, which is paying a high compliment, as in its stage presentation it was adjudged by the critics to be one of the brightest comedies of the season.

The sparkling lines which gave the play such vogue, are preserved in the laughable titles, while the screen version, perhaps because the camera, which has "all the world" as its studio, gives wider scope to the scenes of merriment. It would be difficult to imagine a more fittingly chosen vehicle for the dainty comedienne.

Miss Talmadge not only repeats her former triumphs, but ascends to new heights in her interpretation of the role of Eve.

The cast is carefully chosen and includes Kenneth Harlan, who is Miss Talmadge's leading man, and plays the part of Doctor Harmon. Effie Shannon essays the role of Mrs. Orrin, the mother of Eve, Katherine Kaelred interprets the character of Mrs. Merchant, the scyophantic friend of Mrs. Orrin, George La Guerre appears as Henry Merchant, her son and affianced husband of Eve, while Gertrude La Brandt is "Bundy," Mrs. Orrin's confidential maid.

THE LIBERTY

"Bab's Candidate," a Vitagraph production, starring Corine Griffith, which will be shown at the Liberty theatre tonight, is a screen adaptation of "Gumshoe-4-B," a story by Forrest Crissey, which appeared in Harper's Magazine. This story was allotted a prize in the O. Henry Memorial contest offered by the American Society of Arts and Sciences. Vitagraph has brought to the screen all the quaint humor and charming small town atmosphere that made this story a masterpiece of fiction. Edward Griffith, who directed Miss Griffith in "The Garter Girl," directed the picture.

THE MONDALE

Those who delight to read the beautiful stories of Harold Bell

Wright should not fail to see the moving picture of one of his greatest stories, "The Shepherd of the Hills," which will be shown at the Mondale this evening for the last time. This picture was brought back for the second time, because of the many requests of those who could not get in to see it when it was first shown. This may be the last time it will ever be seen here. It is one of the finest pictures ever exhibited in this city, and as it was arranged and directed by Mr. Wright himself, there is no question as to its correctness and perfection.

Christian Workers Hold Rural Meetings So far six country districts have been furnished with religious services by the Christian Workers band, an organization of young people from the various churches who believe in translating their religion into practical service.

Meetings have been held at Mt. Laki church, Henley, Spring Lake, Pelican City, Keno and Summers schoolhouse.

Yesterday the team, headed by Miss Beulah Jarvis, visited the Miller Hill schoolhouse and the team commanded by Mr. Anderson in the absence of L. K. Phelps, held a meeting at Olene.

Government Decides To Auction 5,000,000 Pounds Wool June 23

Herald Washington Bureau WASHINGTON, June 6.—The director of sales of the war department authorizes the announcement of the proposed sale by publication under the supervision of the quartermaster general in Boston on June 23, 1921, of approximately 5,000,000 pounds of low grade wool particularly suitable and adaptable for the requirements of the carpet manufacturers.

The wool offered for sale will be wholly in South American growth and will grade from 44-46 to 36 S. It will consist of pulled wools, South American combings and cardings, west coast of South America and scoured wool.

The general terms and conditions of sale governing the auction of May 25, 1921, will apply to this proposed sale.

Senator Stanfield and Senator Gooding have arranged with Secretary Weeks of the war department to file a protest against this sale, and if it cannot be prevented or postponed, will seek to have it divided into two sales. Senator Stanfield insists that all sales should be postponed until after the growers have made final and definite arrangements for the present spring clip.

The last time the matter was up with the war department it was understood that the war department would not offer any more wool at auction until the growers had closed up their clip.

Binding Cap on Link River Bridge

Automobilists and others who find it necessary to use the bridge across the Link river at the west end of Main street are elated over the asphaltum cap that was placed there last week by the Union Bridge company of Portland.

The capping of the bridge was to have been placed on the wooded flooring early in the year but nothing was accomplished until Contractor Eberhardt of the company came here recently. On top of the capping, a covering of pulverized rock was sprinkled and the asphalt since traffic has been running over it, is well pressed and smooth. Contractor Eberhardt has five bridges in the county under construction.
