

We Lead, Others Follow!

This Is No

$25,000.00 Too Much Stock

Sale Now On

"I Ain't Mad at Nobody"

K. SUGARMAN

Personal Mention

C. R. Stromback who has been employed as clerk at the White Pelican hotel for the last year, left this morning for Portland. Mr. Stromback has no definite plans for the future but may possibly locate permanently in Portland.

George W. Palmer of the Chilquin Lumber company, is here on business for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patterson of Ashland, who have been here for the last two days left this morning for their home. Mr. Patterson is head of the bureau of entomology at Ashland.

J. L. Garvey, representative of the Moline Plow company, who has been here for the last two months assisting the local distributor, J. W. Kearns in establishing a branch office left this morning for Montague.

R. E. Carrigan, representative from the San Francisco branch of the Dodge Brothers automobile company, who has been here for several days signing up a contract with H. S. Wakefield, whereby he will continue to be the local distributor for the coming year, left this morning for his home.

A. E. Reese was a passenger for San Francisco this morning for a few days on business trip.

C. G. Bunnell, relief manager for the Western Union Telegraph company, is here on business for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brett returned last night from an automobile trip to San Francisco and other California points.

J. G. Ferguson is a business visitor from Dunsmuir.

H. V. Griffin was down from Pine Ridge yesterday attending to business matters.

D. B. Murphy was in from Merrill yesterday transacting business.

Frank Crouch, the Ashland representative for Swift and company, is here for a few days on business.

Mrs. Robert W. Clay, wife of the manual training teacher, is here from Ashland for a few days. Mr. Clay will return with her to Ashland.

Charles Hall, president of the First National bank, returned last evening from a ten days business trip to San Francisco, Marshfield and Portland.

R. W. Stanton was a passenger on the automobile stage for Alturas this morning.

W. H. O'Neil was a passenger for Medford this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wilcox of Miller hill were in town today.

Etta Ragan left for Bray this morning to spend a few days visiting with friends.

Mrs. S. P. Allan and grandson, Jack Stanhope Stone, who have been visiting with Mrs. Allan's brother, Thomas Hampton, returned to their home at Portland this morning.

Thomas Hampton was a passenger for San Francisco this morning to be gone a few days on business.

Mrs. L. C. McCurdy, of San Francisco, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. George Tallman, returned to her home this morning.

Mrs. M. H. McGinnis was a passenger for Portland this morning. Mrs. Henry Bolvin, and son Harry, returned from Santa Clara last night to spend the summer here. Harry has been attending the Santa Clara college for the past year.

E. S. Bowman is a business visitor from Chilquin today.

Charles Hightower, a rancher from the Swan Lake country, was a Klamath Falls visitor yesterday.

J. R. Sisemore who has been here several days on business returned to his home at Fort Klamath this morning.

Mrs. J. M. Rader of Phoenix, Oregon, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Jones, and niece, Mrs. Lawrence Mehaffey. Mrs. Rader and Mrs. Jones are members of one of the oldest pioneer families of the Rogue River valley.

T. N. Case, president of the county farm bureau, and C. N. Snow will leave tomorrow for Corvallis to attend the farmers course at the O. A. C., which lasts for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colwell and Dan Colwell are visitors today from Merrill.

RUTH GETS THE 17TH

NEW YORK, June 10.—Babe Ruth knocked his 17th home run today.

Opium secreted in lemons selling at high prices was revealed when detectives investigated a run on the lemon market in the Chinese section of Pittsburgh, recently.

Miners searching for gold along a river in British New Guinea encountered a bluish-gray, flakish substance which they discarded. This substance was osmiridium, a member of the platinum metals and one of the hardest known to science. It is worth $150 an ounce.

Advertising pays. Try it and see.

War Risk Head

Colonel Charles R. Forbes of Seattle, winner of the Distinguished Service Medal, succeeds Colonel E. F. Chalmers-Jones as director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

Dodge Brothers

announce a substantial reduction in the prices of their cars effective

JUNE 8th

H. S. WAKEFIELD
4th and Klamath Ave.
Klamath Falls