Two Accidents in Dorris Saw Mills

DORRIS, Cal., June 18.—Two industrial accidents occurred in lumber mills Thursday in the vicinity of Dorris in which Charles Evans sustained a compound fracture of the forearm and C. N. Lee was severely bruised. Both men are being treated in the Dorris hospital. Evans was hurt while working on a blower, his arm catching between a belt and pulley, causing it to be drawn tightly and crushed before he could extricate it. He was working in the George Carter mill west of town. Lee was injured while working at the Kesterson mill.

"What's Immodest?" She Asks

"What's immodest about this beach costume?" asks Miss Ada Taylor, Atlantic City Sunday school teacher, champion high diver, and president of the Ambassador Swimming Club. She's shown here. In a letter to the beach censor, she says—silk clad legs are more immodest than bare legs.
