Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rapinosa entertained a number of friends in their apartment at the Lee Apartments at a dinner which consisted of dishes distinctly Spanish and of a variety that are rarely ever found outside the mother country. The guests were treated to this surprise at 7 o'clock and following the dinner, the evening was spent in music. The guest list included, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murray, Mrs. Ray, Dennis, Mrs. W. T. Lee, Charles DeGroot, Frank Freytag and the host and hostess.

A large dancing party will be given Tuesday night by the Elks at the Temple at the corner of Third and Main streets. Hostesses for the occasion will be: Mesdames Hardin Carter, Jack Slater, H. W. Henderson, Byron Hardenbrook, Fred Dunbar, John Enders and B. W. Gregory.

During the recent visit in Portland of Beatrice and Katherine Walton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Walton of Merrill, they enjoyed the privilege of playing before J. S. Bateman, a noted musical critic. Mr. Bateman offered both of the young ladies constructive criticism and assured them that they possessed unusual musical talent, which should be developed.

At a charming wedding service Wednesday evening Miss Margaret Augusta Upp became the bride of Charles LeRoy Saunders, of Long Beach, California. Miss Upp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Upp of this city and has always made her home here. The wedding was a quiet affair at the bride's home, the service being read by the Reverend S. J. Chaney. Catherine Upp, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and William Melhase as best man. The young couple will make their home in Long Beach, where Mr. Saunders is in business.

Mrs. E. S. Phillips was hostess Sunday at a double birthday dinner for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Phillips and for Miss Leda Harvey. Guests on this happy occasion were: Miss Cattuzzo, Mrs. Herbert Phillips Jr., Jean Phillips, Lee Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Phillips.

Mrs. E. W. Gowen entertained the Bridge Club, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. L. Gerber.

Miss Leda Harvey and Lee Parker will be married at nine o'clock tonight in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Otterbein. Miss Harvey is a niece of Mrs. Otterbein. The wedding will be a quiet one and only near friends and relatives have been invited. Miss Grace Hoagland and Stanley Hatjeck will attend the bride and bridesroom. Mrs. Otterbein will serve a dainty supper after the ceremony, which is to be performed by Rev. J. H. Dixon of the Emmanuel Baptist church.

Mrs. L. Hedlund entertained Wednesday afternoon with a lawn party in honor of her little daughter Lucille's 3rd birthday. The little guests present were: Ardis Leech, Junior Richter, Carl Younglove, Wilber, Dorothy and Dennis Hood.

The St. Paul's Episcopal Guild drove to Merrill Thursday afternoon and were entertained by Mrs. R. H. Anderson at her home there.

Mrs. H. D. Mortenson entertained at a farewell bridge party for Mrs. Estelle Carrier, on Friday afternoon at her home in Pelican City. The house was decorated in delphinium and pale pink gladiolus. The guests made up 4 tables of bridge and at 5 o'clock others came in for tea. Those who played cards were: Mesdames E. B. Hall, W. O. Smith, S. E. Martin, H. N. Moe, Fred Schallock, Gowen, A. M. Worden, G. A. Krause, Mary Moore, T. C. Campbell, Coomen of San Francisco, Misses Mary Pflueger, Marie McMillan and Bates, and Kennedy, of San Francisco.

Those who came in for tea were: Mesdames Hamilton, L. Bridgeford, Williams, Pike, Stephenson, Hibbert, and Harrison.

The prize for the highest score went to Mrs. W. O. Smith, the consolation prize to Mrs. T. C. Campbell and the guest prize to Mrs. Carrier.

Katherine Ulrich was a charming hostess Saturday last to a number of her young friends at the home of her parents on Conger avenue. The invited guests were: Misses Marion Wortley, Margaret Hargus, Helen Caldwell, Frances McLaine, Elizabeth Manning, Rebecca Humphrey, Katherine Beech and the hostess.

Mrs. Harry Richardson will entertain the Happy Hour Needle Work club at her home at 214 South Riverside Avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

On Tuesday Miss Ulrich entertained for her small brother Armond. She was assisted by Miss Hargus in providing entertainment for the little guests. Those present were: Vernon and Bill Kuykendall, John Morgan, Miles McLaine, Arthur Bremer, Cyril Humphrey, and Armond Ulrich.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week for the younger set was a moonlight boating party given by Miss Margaret Hargus. The guests were taken for a launch ride on Lake Ewauna and later lunch was served on the lawn at the W. O. Smith home on Conger avenue. Invited guests on this occasion were: Elizabeth Manning, Frances McLaine, Marion Wortley, Rebecca Humphrey, Lena and Leta Miller and Katherine Ulrich.

A delightful moonlight picnic was held last night at the old Goeller home on South Riverside, now the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Geary, who were host and hostess to a happy gathering of friends. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier and family, A. J. Foster and the Misses Evangeline and Evelyn Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Porter and Lloyd Porter, Ed Geary and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCornack and family.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Withrow and daughter, Waive, left yesterday for Sycan for a few days fishing. Bert expects to bring back a carload of fish when he returns Sunday, he is said to have told his friends.

J. L. Beckley left yesterday morning for Willows on a few days business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon are in town from Bly for a few days visit.

W. H. Harrellson is in town for a few days on matters of business. Mr. Harrellson is an old class mate of Don Zumwalt's, both having attended Stanford at the same time.

Mrs. C. M. Shoemaker and baby left this morning on the train bound for North Bend, Oregon, where they will make their home with Mrs. Shoemaker's mother.

J. F. Dixon was a passenger on the outgoing train this morning on his way to Portland for a brief visit.

Miss Hulda Sproed, a niece of Mrs. G. A. Massey, left this morning for her home in Salem. Nina Lathrop also left for her home near Salem this morning, where she will visit for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Homer Maris were in town yesterday from Seattle. Mr. Maris is district specialist for agricultural training. He was here in the interest of the rehabilitation board collecting data in regard to locating ex-service men on suitable land for farming, thus making it possible for these men to take advantage of the state loan funds for ex-service men.

Dr. George Ogle of San Francisco is in town today enroute to Rocky Point, where he has spent his summer vacation for several years.

Arthur Leavitt, who has been ill for the past week, was taken home from the hospital yesterday and is reported greatly improved.

Bert C. Thomas, United States Commissioner, and Walter G. West, Klamath Indian agent, returned yesterday from a ten days automobile trip to Portland. They went by way of Bend and returned by the highway driving as far as possible along the coast. Mr. Thomas reports a fine trip, but like most Klamath Falls residents is glad to be back home again.

Miss Ruby Young left this morning for Algoma where she will spend the day.

F. C. Turner and family and C. N. Turner and family, brothers of Dave Turner of Langell Valley, have been here visiting for the past few days from San Diego, California. They drove up from the south in two Aperson Jack Rabbit roadsters and had a fine trip without the usual annoying car trouble that so often goes along with an extended automobile journey. The two families left Klamath Falls this morning enroute to Nes Perces, Idaho, where they operate a joint wheat ranch.

Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, is reported some what improved. She is at the Portland Convalescent hospital.

Mrs. L. F. Willits left Thursday for Talent where she was called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Wolters, who resides there. Both left this morning for San Francisco in the hopes of benefitting Mrs. Wolters health.

Mrs. D. F. Lawton who has been in the city for several days on a combined business and pleasure trip, returned to her home in Fort Klamath today.

C. H. McCutchan of Sacramento who is connected with the Standard Oil Co. is in the city for a few days in the interests of his company.
