TARIFF BILL IS COMPLETE; NOW GOES TO CAUCUS

Measure Carries Duty Of 60c on Shingles, $1 on Logs and 25 Per cent on Grooved, Tongued Lumber.

Revised Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, July 1.—The new permanent tariff bill, introduced in the house yesterday has many items of interest to Oregon lumbermen, wool growers, stock raisers and farmers. A fight is in prospect between the western lumber interests, who will endeavor to maintain the tariff bar, contained in the bill against the import of Canadian lumber free of duty. American agricultural interests are supporting the free importation of Canadian lumber, claiming that it is the solution of the American building program.

Duties are Fixed
Shingles imported into this country will carry a duty of 60 cents.

Logs will carry a duty of $1. Tongued and grooved lumber will carry a duty of 25 per cent.

These rates at least represent the committee's action and are contained in the bill as introduced.

Fights on Lumber

A fight will be made on the floor by representatives of eighteen states to force the elimination of all duties on lumber and to substitute a provision authorizing the president to impose retaliatory duties of kind against countries which have imposed duties against lumber products of the United States.

Because of the preponderance of the committee's printed schedules and the parliamentary differences of the free trade farmers who are putting up the fight for free lumber, it is believed that the committee schedules will stand and the attempt to flood the country with free lumber from Canada will fail.

Taxiff On Wool

As forecast in The Herald, wool carries a tariff of 25 cents on the secured instead of the grease basis. This is due entirely to the fight begun early and continued to the last by Congressman Hawley, who fought for a tariff of 30 cents and finally compromised on a tariff of 25 cents.

Other Tariff Items
Other tariff items of great interest to Oregon are:

Cattle under 2 years, 1 cent pound; over 2 years of age, 1 1/2 cents.

Fresh beef and veal, 2 cents per pound.

Sheep and goats, 1 cent pound.

Fresh mutton, 1 1/2 cents.

Fresh lamb, 2 cents.

Swine, 1/4 cent per pound.

Fresh pork, 3-4 cent.

Bacon, hams and shoulders, 1 1/2 cents.

Milk, 5 to 10 cents, depending on butter fat.

Oleomargarine, 8 cents pound.

Cheese, 5 cents and up.

Duty on Eggs

Eggs, 6 cents dozen; dox. frozen, 4 cents pound; powdered eggs, 15 cents pound.

Live poultry, 2 cents pound; dressed, 4 cents; preserved, 25 per cent ad valorem.

Fresh fish, 1 cent per pound; all others, 2 1/2 per cent ad valorem.

Almonds, unshelled, 4 cents; shell, 8 cents.

Walnuts, unshelled, 2 1/2 cents; shelled, 5 cents; filberts, same.

Hops, 2 1/2 cents pound.

Hop extract, $1.50 pound.

TWO SUITS FILED

Two civil suits were filed in circuit court today, one by D. W. Crawford against W. M. Skeen to foreclose on the White Pine garage at Chiloquin to cover a defaulted note amounting to $1443.99; and one petition for divorce filed by Marina E. G. Larmonth against B. C. Larmonth alleging abandonment and desertion.

Business Houses to Get Fight Service; Local Phones Out

The Dempsey-Carpentier fight by rounds will be given out at a special service to patrons of the following places during the progress of the bout, by the following advocates of clean sport in this city: Club Cafe, Mecca, Eagle and Pastime Billiard parlors, United Cigar store, Central barber shop The Gun store, Elks club, Baldwin Hardware Co., Swanson barber shop, Rex cafe, California Power company, Jewel Cafe and Ewauna Box Co. During the time of the contest, the telephones of the above establishments will be out of service temporarily but as soon as the fight terminates the service will be immediately restored.

Medford Boosting Strong for Crater Lake Development

George T. Collins and Vernon H. Vawter were the principal speakers at the forum meeting at the Medford hotel Wednesday, says the Medford Mail Tribune, both urging a wholehearted support of all southern Oregon citizens to the rejuvenated Crater Lake hotel project.

"We have told the people of the state what we would do if we had Crater lake," said Mr. Collins. "Well, we've got it. If every citizen will make at least one trip to the lake, its success is insured. The eyes of the Pacific coast are upon us, and we will be the target for criticism unless we give them something. We don't want you people to come back from the lake and tell us how good it is, but to tell us what is wrong."

Mr. Collins also said that an organization had been perfected to give visitors entertainment and service, and good food. "It used to be that visitors could go on a stage from Klamath Falls in the morning, and return in the afternoon. That stage is not running any more. They have to stay a while. The day of the quick getaway is over. In Yosemite park, they have it arranged so a visitor stays one day, and if he stays one day he wants to stay two weeks, and if he stays two weeks he has to wire home for money."

Mr. Vawter followed Mr. Collins, and produced figures to show that the Crater Lake tourist was a bigger money asset than the fruit crop. He said the continuance of the average increase of Crater Lake business for the next five years, would mean a million dollar business in 1928, and that over 200,000 people would visit the lake in that year. He also urged the co-operation of all citizens.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

During the progress of the Dempsey-Carpentier contest, the telephone in The Herald office will be in use exclusively distributing news of the battle throughout the city. Therefore, those who may wish to communicate with this office will learn that "the line is busy," and will continue in that condition until the contest is over.

MAY ISSUE NEW RATE ORDER FOR COLUMBIA BASIN.

Revised Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, July 1.—The interior commerce commission is now considering the Columbia Basin rate case to determine whether it shall issue an order to compel the railroads to file higher rates outside of the Columbia river territory and lower ones within the territory.

When the original decision was made it was suggested by the commission that the new rates be filed by the carriers within ninety days.

The time has long since passed and there has been no compliance with the suggestion and the commission, now desiring to issue an order for the filing of the new rates, is confronted with an order of the Washington state board suspending the decision so far as it affects intra-state rates for ninety days from July 1.

LOCAL COUPLE WED

A marriage license was issued to Rhinehart Moteschenbacher and Mrs. O. D. Mathews late yesterday and the couple were married last night at the home of Rev. A. L. Rice. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Moteschenbacher and by Mrs. K. W. Trimble.

250,000 POUNDS OF WOOL SOLD; PRICE IS GOOD

This forenoon at the offices of the Klamath Livestock Mortgage company, the entire output of the 250,000 wool pool was disposed of to George Watt and Charles F. DeLap, representatives of J. Koshlan & company of Boston, Massachusetts.

While the figures were not completed upon the various units which made up the wool pool as to price received individually, the price is said to run on the top stuff at 16 1/2 cents a pound. The average however was said to run about 15 cents.

Using the average price as a basis for figuring, this wool pool placed at least $37,500 in circulation in this district.

The preliminary arrangements for the sale began yesterday afternoon and the clip was inspected and passed upon by the purchaser. This morning bids were turned in by Mr. Watt and DeLap which were accepted, it is said, just before noon.

The wool of the following growers was sold in the two days sale:

George Ager, Michael P. Barry, Jack Burke, Con Curtin, Geo. F. Dexter, Richard M. Flynn, William Hannan, Maurice Keane, J. J. Kelleher, Kenneally & Lacey, D. P. McAlliff, Martin Daly, Con Murphy, Timothy D. Murphy, O'Connor & Daly, James O'Keefe, Maurice O'Keefe, Jer's. D. O'Connor, W. R. Parrshall, Maurice and Patrick Quinlan, J. D. Saggorn, D. P. Shook, John O'Shea, Ross Sutton, John Sullivan, Ted Sullivan, Patrick Walsh, C. G. Merrill, Dan D. Murphy, and F. M. Coppick.

Logging Contractor Beaten and Robbed Of $2500 by Thugs

PORTLAND, July 1.—Logging contractor named Renault, said to be from Portland was badly beaten and the man who was with him may be dead, as the result of a robbery on the highway between Portland and Tillamook before midnight. Renault is in the hospital ten miles from Tillamook, unable to tell his companion's name or fate.

Officials believe the companion was murdered by three men in an automobile, who held up Renault, stealing $2500 of the payroll money which Renault was taking to pay loggers. The sheriff is searching for the missing man. Renault hit one of the highwaymen before he was clubbed over the head and knocked out.

OIL SERIES ARTICLES WILL BE RESUMED

Owing to pressure of work in starting the Crater Oil & Gas company drilling, W. C. Lehman, manager of the company, was forced to interrupt his series of geological articles on petroleum. Copy for the sixth of the series was received today, too late for publication, however, but tomorrow the series will be resumed.

FOURTH PARADE BIG SPECTACLE SAYS COMMITTEE

Monday will be one of the big days of the Fourth of July celebration and one of the features which will be long remembered by spectators will be the finest and most artistically arranged parade ever held in this city.

According to the parade committee composed of W. S. Conkling, F. W. Van Buskirk and P. J. Ryan, the first parade event will be the crowning of the Goddess of Liberty, Mrs. Blanche Conway, at Sixth and Main streets at 9:15 o'clock in the morning. Mayor W. S. Wiley will place upon this popular Goddess, a fitting regal crown and into her hands will be placed the scepter and keys of the city, with the admonition to rule well, wisely and with equal justice to all her subjects of the day.

The "Star Spangled Banner" will be sung at 9:30 at the same point by Mrs. Bustamante while the parade units are being formed in front of the Big Basin Lumber company.

The parade will start promptly at 10 o'clock. Goddess of Liberty float contained the queen and four maids of honor representing the army, navy, marine corps and the Red Cross branches, and two tiny maids attending the queen in the lead. Next comes Cameron, the strong man, pulling two automobiles with his teeth, the first car containing the mayor and council while the second machine will contain friends.

The parade will come up Main street past the White Pelican hotel, and continue west to Third, then south to Klamath avenue and east as far as Sixth where the units will disband.

The units which follow the goddess and official family are placed in this order: band, floats representing the carpenters, Moose lodge and machinists; comic band; league of nations (comic); Crater Lake oil float; "Moss Back car" and haysced band; city league baseball teams in uniform; float of George Metz; life and drum corps; parade of clowns; bathing beauties on marine float; fire department and then scores of handsomely decorated autos.

Oregon Does Not Get Enough Jobs

Revised Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, July 1.—Oregon is an example of the state which does not get all the civil service jobs in Washington to which it is entitled. In a set of figures compiled by Senator Willis, of Ohio, to silence the cry that Ohio is getting more government jobs than it is entitled to, Oregon is shown as having 146 and being entitled to 324.

Ohio is entitled to 2388 and has only 1555. On the other hand, the District of Columbia, which is only entitled to 181 jobs, has on the payroll 11,824. The same failure to get its quota is true of every other Western state.

Oregon and other Western senators and congressmen say it is due to the fact that the small salaries and indoor work do not appeal to the people of Oregon and the West.

LOUIS BOLDSCHAR BURNED DURING RESCUE OF SON

Louis Boldschar, cashier of the Malibu National bank, was badly burned yesterday about the hands and arms in an attempt to save his son from burning, according to word received here today. Robert was playing with matches which he had gotten from his father's clothes and in some way set his own clothes afire. Upon discovery his son's peril Mr. Boldschar put the flames out before any injury resulted.

The father was taken to Merrill where his wounds were dressed.

Last week Mr. Boldschar figured in another narrow escape from serious injury, when two shots fired at him went wild.

State Legion Sends Cheering Message to Dempsey's Opponent

EUGENE, July 1.—After the Rev. William S. Gilbert, Presbyterian minister and former army chaplain, now commander of the American Legion of Oregon, had expressed the hope that Dempsey would get a "blasted good mauling tomorrow," the state convention of the Legion, meeting here, wired Carpentier expressing their best wishes for his success in behalf of 34,000 Oregon service men.

A second wire sent to Theodore Roosevelt Jr., assistant secretary of the navy, who will be at the ringside, asking him to see that Carpentier receives the message.

Already the contest for the next convention has started. The Dallas, Baker, Klamath Falls and Marshfield mentioned as possible convention cities.

BLANCHE CONWAY FOURTH'S RULER

When the contest for the Goddess of Liberty closed last night at 9 o'clock and the vote was counted Mrs. Blanche Conway had a clean cut victory, 35,681 votes majority over the nearest contender, Miss Josephine McClain.

Mrs. Conway today expressed gratitude for the splendid support in the friendly contest. Because of the pleasure it affords her many acquaintances, she appreciates the honor highly.

The final vote stood: Mrs. Blanche Conway 46,891; Miss Josephine McClain, 11,210; Miss Mildred Blohn, 10,750 and Miss Esther Collins, 1,760.

Mrs. Conway was informed this afternoon that La France beauty parlors would donate the coffere for the occasion, the offer being extended by Mrs. F. R. Laughton. The state dress of the queen was given a fitting today.

Main Street Blinked Blindly Before it Found the Answer

A blinding flash and a noise like Mt. Stromboli in eruption caused Main street to wonder this morning if the comet had struck. It took the curious 15 minutes to determine that it was a premature celebration of the glorious Fourth and only Rex Bord blowing into town in his new Haynes roadster.

The car is the latest in vehicular creations, done in vermilion of a depth that makes a scarlet sunset look like slim milk. It looks like a million dollars on wheels. The First National bank paid the owner (it is said on good authority) a dollar a minute to park the boat in front of the building for half an hour, advertising the prosperous class of customers that patronize the institution.

HAWAII ONCE HAD WILD WEST TOWN

HONOLULU, Territory of Hawaii, July 1.—The little town of Waimea, far up on the slopes of Mauna Kea on the island of Hawaii in the midst of one of the largest cattle ranches in the world, and now consisting of little more than a court house, a hotel and a few houses, still boasts of having once been one of the wildest and roughest cowboy towns West of the Rockies, and veteran Hawaiian cattlemen and ranchers, who were closely identified with early Western life, say the boast is well founded.

Those were the days when thousands of cattle were raised on the larger islands of the Hawaiian group and when hundreds of Hawaiians were employed as cowboys. They were splendid horsemen, and still are, for that matter. They carried guns, wore chaps and were experts with the rope. But although they wore weapons they never used them in settling personal differences, resorting solely to their fists when the occasion warranted. There are stories, too, of a few "bad men" such as one reads of in the early history of the American West.

The Hawaiian cowboys are planning to hold at Waipuu, Maui, when

HOMESEEKERS WILL BE HERE ON AUGUST 3

Middle Western Tourists Coming by Auto From Ashland; State C. of C. Will Greet Them Here.

PORTLAND, July 1, (Special).—The route to be traveled through the state by the first trainload of settlers who are scheduled to arrive from the Middle West on July 31st for an inspection of the state's agricultural resources, was announced by the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce today.

The task of arranging an itinerary which would include the representative districts of the state in the limited time allowed under the homeseekers' ticket, twenty-one days, was an exceedingly difficult one, according to Secretary Quayle. The matter has been under advisement since the Land Settlement Conference held in Portland June 7th, and every effort has been made to route the party over the state in the most effective way, according to Quayle.

While the itinerary in general will be followed as outlined, it was announced that it was subject to change in some instances, inasmuch as the routing of the party through a few districts would be governed by the number of settlers who make up the party.

Proposed Schedule
The homeseekers will leave Omaha July 20, arriving at Astoria, Oregon, July 21, at 2:30 p. m. Next day they visit Baker, then La Grande, Joseph, Prineville, Madras, Eugene and Dallas, arriving in Portland July 26. Trips to Astoria, Salem and other towns will be taken during the two days' stay at Portland. On July 27, they plan to be in Eugene, then to visit Coos Bay, Roseburg, Medford and Ashland.

On August 3 they leave Ashland for Klamath Falls, arriving here for dinner and an overnight stay.

State C. of C. Meeting
They will be met here by the directors of the state chamber of commerce and a general meeting will be held.

After breakfast on August 4, the tourists leave for Crater Lake, remaining overnight there, then go to Bend where they will take the train for Omaha and home.

NOTE: Of the 15 directors of the Oregon chamber of commerce, at least ten are expected to be here for the meeting, said Charles Hall, president of the state organization today. The directorate is made up of the most prominent men in the state. It is hoped that plans will be altered before the date of the meeting so that they may remain here for one full day and take a sightseeing trip through the county.

AERIAL FIRE PATROL OF CALIFORNIA PARKS STARTS

VISALIA, Cal., June 30.—Army airmen of the Ninth Aero Squadron take off from their Visalia base here today on the first patrol of the summer season, over the forests of the General Grant and Sequoia National parks, the Mount Whitney region and the Yosemite Valley. The fire patrols will continue until September.

Radio communication bases, through which the aviators will report forest fires by wireless to the fire fighters, have been established at Visalia, Bakersfield, Chowchilla and California Hot Springs.
