Fight Extra!

For four weeks The Herald has been giving its readers a costly special service from the training camps of Carpentier and Dempsey. The Herald Sporting Page has made a hit. When the gong sounds Saturday The Herald will receive a round by round description of the battle direct from the ringside. Watch for the Extra.

SELLING BOGUS TICKETS FOR DEMPSEY-CARPENTIER BOUT

BOGUS TICKET IS HANDED ONE STIFF JOLT

Counterfeiting fight admission tickets is an old game of the speculators, but E. J. Barrett, foreman of the Herald composing room, a fight fan of long experience, tells how in one instance at least the tables were turned and the counterfeiters hoisted by their own petard.

"Big Jim" Kennedy, for many years sporting editor of the New York Times, and founder of the Coney Island Athletic club where many of the big bouts of 20 years ago were pulled, was the man who turned the trick.

When Charles Johnson and George Dixon, featherweights, clashed for the international championship, Kennedy was badly stung by the

Kennedy waited, and opportunity to get even came with the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight at Coney Island, June, 1918.

Kennedy himself had a quantity of spurious tickets printed and cleverly worked them into the hands of the enemy. At the eleventh hour, as they were preparing to repeat previous performance, every paper in New York blazoned forth a warning to the public that thousands of counterfeit tickets were afloat and advised fight devotees to buy no tickets of speculators.

In consequent prospective spectator's wouldn't listen to a speculator's offer and the counterfeiting game was handed a jolt that has kept it from manifesting itself, at least in such wholesale fashion as New Jersey dispatches indicate in the present fight, for two decades.

BOXERS SHOW RESULTS FROM HARD TRAINING

Babe Blue and Sammy Gordon are now in the course of the most strenuous training that they will indulge in before meeting in the boxing tournament Monday afternoon, in the main event at the Dreamland pavilion. The writer believes that his job looks better than the task which lays before the two boxers. While they will beat upon each other, the writer can beat upon his tin talker and come out victorious all the time but not so with them—they have to earn their victory and have the decision made by a fair and impartial referee.

Both Blue and Gordon look fit and say that their condition is better than they had expected it to be, in fact it was a little over good, and that Sunday, a slow down would be necessary so that the "feeling" they have today will be present when they step in the ring Monday afternoon.

Gordon has been practicing at 2 o'clock sharp every afternoon this week and at 3, Babe Blue has had his hour in the Dreamland pavilion, both men working out before a large attendance of spectators, with a sprinkling of women present.

The men have both been staging six to eight round bouts daily with their trainers and these matches have given the spectators many insights into their styles both in offensive and defensive tactics. Both men show "speed" and a willingness to mix indicating that the main event Monday afternoon will be a thriller.

Jack Burns has made the most satisfactory progress of any of the younger boxers. From a semi-crude state, within the last two weeks, he has "loosened up" and made himself into an active fighting machine. This fact has been one of the main topics among the spectators when discussion of the boxers begin. The fans believe that for a man who has been out of the ring over two years yet staged a physical comeback with but two weeks of training, can surely make his mark in the padded arena with his opponent, "Dynamite" Murphy or any other two listed boy of his weight.

Manager McDonald stated that all his card would be on the grounds by Sunday and that with the selection of the referee, who will do the Monday and Tuesday work—the biggest "real card" in many days is ready for the approval of the public.

Local Tossers Will Play Fort Klamath

Coach Montgomery today stated that his line up for the Ft. Klamath game tomorrow was too far incomplete this morning for publication as a number of players were having difficulty in securing permission to lay off from their regular work to go on the trip but that before 6 o'clock this evening, the players would be selected from the material available. The men that he had under consideration however were players whom he believed would stage a wonderful contest with the Ft. Klamath team.

Word was received here that the agency team will be in readiness to give the locals a regular battle tomorrow as they have had daily practice and were eager to give Klamath Falls a "run for their moony" and whether a victory or a defeat falls to them, the local team will always remember this first out of town game.

The return game will be played here Tuesday July 5, at Modoc Park and by that time, Ft. Klamath boosters state their team will be home-bound, full of pep and fresh from a series of road victories.

Coach Montgomery believes that his selection of a team for the contests during the Fourth of July celebration here will meet with everyone's opinion.

GEORGES

Foxy Manager Descamps must have been off shooting away inquisitive cows from the ring, because Gentleman Georges, the challenger, willingly answered the photographer's invitation here and stepped right up to the ropes and smiled—all ready to be photographed. And that's unusual at Manhasset.

Fire Dept. Members Get Gift of Gloves

The fire department employees now can indulge in the manly art of self defense in their gymnasium at the city hall without danger of blacking eyes or suffering other bodily damages.

The reason, according to Fire Chief Ambrose, is the gift this morning of a set of high class boxing gloves by the Baldwin Hardware company.

Fire Chief Ambrose and the members of the department appreciate this gift and state that they will be in a position to stage some classy "local goes" during their leisure hours.

$1,500,000 GATE

NEW YORK, July 1.—The advance sale of seats for the big fight has already yielded $1,250,000 promoter Rickard announced. The fight is expected to pass a million and a half. Hotels are crowded. Five thousand visitors are registered and twenty thousand more are expected to arrive today.

MANHASSET, N. Y. July 1.—Only light exercise for Carpentier today. Trainer Wilson prescribed phonograph music, a walk in the woods and a long automobile ride.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. July 1.—Before sundown Dempsey will be secluded in a private residence in Jersey City to remain until he faces Carpentier tomorrow. Every precaution is taken for rest and for keeping the champion from the eyes of the curious thousands.

ANXIOUS!

It's an anxious moment when Jack Dempsey steps on the scales. For Trainer Teddy Hayes is watching him carefully to see that the champ doesn't take off his excess weight too speedily during these hot weather work-outs. The scales indicate the times when a layoff is ordered in the Dempsey camp.
