operator and the land owner would stand at the end of its first year.

Investment
 Cost of nine wells at $70,000.00 $630,000.00
 Incidental expenses 50,000.00

Total investment $680,000.00

Returns on Investment
 Output of nine wells—450 barrels at $2 per barrel $328,500.00

Less one-eighth royalty $ 41,062.50
 Operating cost at 5c per barrel 8,212.50
 Less interest, 6 per cent 40,800.00
 Less recovery of capital in nine years 75,555.00

$168,030.00

Yearly profit of operator, $162,570.00. Yearly profit of land owner, $41,062.50. (To explain the item of capital recovery it may be stated, owing to the decline of production in the average well any analysis of investment should provide for the total extinction of the property as a producer in nine years.) Instead, therefore, of the oil operator receiving what might be thought at first glance seven-eighths of the profit, he really receives about three-quarters of the net profit and the land owner one-quarter.

Prize Winners of the Water Carnival

The water carnival program of the Fourth of July celebration was carried off yesterday afternoon on Lake Ewauna before a large audience. The "faked" drowning stunt by Misses Dorothy Curran and Ruth DeLay, who were rowing idly about in a canoe and "tipped over," much to the horror of the men working on a nearby barge, was fine. With great heroism, Miss Margaret Smith rescued the "drowning" Miss DeLay and carried her ashore. Another thrilling feature was the aquaplaning stunt, a girl rider standing erect on a plank with a rope attached to a speedy motor boat.

The events were all satisfactory, and revealed to the assembled Klamath Falls people that one of the greatest advertising features for this city, as well as high class entertainment each year could be developed by enlarging this program. This year's events are said to be the foundation for a great water carnival next year. The winners in the carnival follow:

First race, boys under 14 years, 50-yard dashes—L. Sharp first, H. Wilson second, S. Taber third, D. Wiggins fourth, E. Hooper fifth.

Second race, open for girls—R. Vaughn first, R. DeLay second, M. Smith third, D. Vale fourth.

Third race, under water, free for all—W. Cody first, F. Jacobi second, C. Ritchie third.

Men free for all high dive—E. Ritchie and H. Jacobi, tie for first, H. Childers and W. Cody, tie for third.

Canoe tipping for girls—R. DeLay, Dorothy Curran, both disqualified for tipping canoe.

Canoe race—Bob Riggs first, H. Telford second, R. Telford third.

Men free for all swim—Red Davis first, C. Ritchie second, E. Ritchie third.

Canoe tilting—Bob Riggs and W. Telford vs H. Ogle and H. Telford, draw.

High dive for boys under 14 years—H. Wilson first, L. Sharp second, F. Taber third.

Climbing into canoe—A. C. Davis.

Ladies under water race—R. Jacobi first, D. Vale second, M. Smith third.

W. O. W. MEETING TONIGHT

Walter H. Pitts, of Chico, California, district manager of the Woodmen of the World, who is conducting an organization campaign here, has called a meeting of members of the order this evening in the lodge room, I. O. O. F. hall at 8 o'clock to "talk things over." This meeting is preliminary to the regular meeting for planning the increase of the membership, which takes place next week. Neighbor Pitts wants all true choppers to turn out tonight.

and retired about 11:30 last night. This morning the car was gone and search has been started for its recovery. The car bore a 1921 Oregon license plate 71,440 and was equipped with three Red Top Fisk tires. The car has a value over $1200, due to all the latest accessories recently placed on it, according to Mr. Jefferson.

Everybody's Doin' It!

This affair of Mr. Dempsey and M. Carpentier has everybody going. Not only here and in France, but in all of Central Europe. Scores of frauleins in Germany have taken up the "manly sport." Above is a Berlin girl being attended by her seconds after her opponent had landed a socker in the jaw.

Mrs. Kaber's Trial Is Started; Jury All Men

CLEVELAND, July 6.—Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, charged with plotting the murder of her wealthy husband, will be tried by a jury of men. Spirited opposition by the woman's attorneys against placing women on the jury resulted in final selection of twelve men. Five women, tentatively accepted, were removed from the panel. Taking of testimony started at the afternoon session.

Bridal Couple Are Abducted and Wed Ahead of Schedule

A wedding scheduled for 8 o'clock p. m. July Fourth took place ahead of time owing to the abduction of the contracting parties, Miss Leora Hibbert of Swan Lake and Mr. Charles Rouse of this city. The young couple were seized, taken high noon to the Moose club, just after the disbanding of the parade units.

Word was given out early in the morning "confidentially" that the event was coming off and the news spread rapidly as it does on such occasions. The popular young people were seized, placed in an auto and rushed to the Moose club rooms where everything was in readiness. The Rev. Arthur Rice performed the ceremony. The ring ceremony was used and two dainty flower maids spread flowers for the couple to tread on in the first hours of their new life. A delicious repast was served to the guests following the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Rouse will reside on Washington street and will be at home to their many friends after this week.

TWO ARRAIGNED

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, A. B. Huntington charged with the uttering of a check for $15 without a checking account upon the bank it was drawn against, and Edward W. Jones, charged with the theft of a Ford car were scheduled to be arraigned before Judge Kuykendall in the circuit court to enter pleas.

Rapid Work on Parade Pictures

Underwood's Pharmacy staff broke all their previous picture developing records July 4 and 5. R. H. Cooke snapped the parade features on the morning of the Fourth, and within four hours had enlarged and post card reproductions on the bulletin board in front of the store. Yesterday Mr. Cooke and E. E. Magee took pictures of the water carnival. This morning views of the swimmers and divers were ready for the public.

TROUBLE LOOMS IN NEAR EAST

MALTA, July 6.—Virtually the entire British Mediterranean fleet is en route to Constantinople, where the situation is viewed with anxiety. British military reinforcements are also reported going from England. The Turkish nationalist forces are reported to have penetrated the neutral zone east of Constantinople, and to be preparing to attack the Turkish capital. The allied forces will have no alternative but to resist.
