Suggestions for Mr. Edison
Since Mr. Edison's famous list of questions became known to the public, the number of people, humorous and otherwise who have come forward with suggestions for a new list is simply astonishing.

We offer below a few of the questions which some people think every educated person should be able to answer.

Is Fahrenheit the name of a German river or a tire fabric? To what extent if any?

Can oysters see and would it do them any good if they could?

What kind of leather is used in making Filet of Sole?

Bound Gall-Curet?

Who wrote "The Face on the Barram floor?" Was anything ever done about him?

Why was Shakespeare born in Stratford?

What American playwrights write in English?

Describe the methods employed by an actor in getting a salary of $1,000 a week.

Whom was the Prince of Wales theater named after?

How many strikes is TUI?

Where is the Una bone located?

Which has been down oftener, Harlem Eddie Kelly or the Old Oaken Bucket?

What is Zbysko? Is it used internationally or externally?

Explain the Einstein theory in words of one syllable.

Where is Charles Ross?

Where are the Monadhliath mountains?

Where was the Serbonian bog and what entire armies were sunk therein?

Who wrote "Mary Had a Little Lamb"?

What is a bannalanna?

How many white beans, on the average, to the bushel?

Where was Maxfield Parrish's famous mural painting in regard to King Cole installed? And where is it now?

Where was it that the learned Hoboken John lectured?

What is meant by the term "free lunch"?

Who discovered the moon?

Why are snakes?

Where do horn glasses come from?

What is the shortest river in Madagascar?

PHILOSOPHY

Hard work is the best antidote for hard luck.

Never notice when you order coffee at the cafeteria, they always stick a spoon in the mug? Somebody is going to put an eye out yet.

There are lots of men who boast of being economical when in truth they are only stingy.

Chew Up

Your sins are bound to find you out in this a warning, men? For if they, do, there is no doubt that they will call again.

No, Myrtle, a woman doesn't have to quarrel in order to make up.

Joe Kelley says some girls will tolerate most any kind of a fellow rather than give back any jewelry.

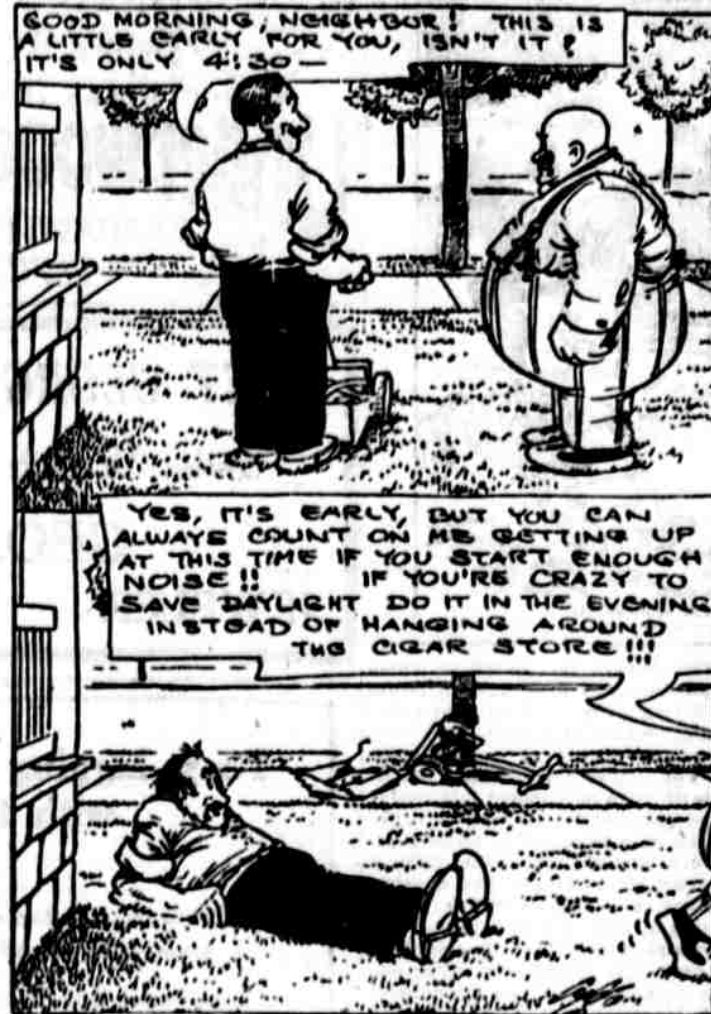

Harry Poole says if there were three men in the world, they would probably have a co-operative still.

"I like, mused the corner philosopher, as he selected a magazine, "to spend an hour or so a day in the reading room of the public library. There is such a quiet atmosphere. "It ought to be quiet," returned the rather cynical business man, "There isn't even an electric fan to stir it up."

Doesn't matter how much you suffer when you are having teeth worked on.—You have no grounds on which to deny that your inquisitor is, as advertised, a "painless dentist." It doesn't hurt him.

Blackie McDonald says that he has discovered that a pawnbroker won't lend you two cents on your ten million-dollar-opinion of yourself.

Outbursts of Everett True By Condo

The loser of the forthcoming contest at Jersey City is going to have his own opinion in regard to collection by the government of an amusement tax on his share of the purse.

Then Came Ministering Angels (From the Portage Press) But the doctors could do nothing for him except pronounce him dead.

Neils Rounsevell says that nothing rattles a married man quite so much as having his wife agree with him on everything.

Long Live America" says a newspaper headline. Quite right; but on what?

Enemies of jazz music say there is syn in synopation.

If you must kick, kick yourself. There is little satisfaction for reformers in the announcement that skirts will be half an inch longer next fall.

One thing about it, Mother—there isn't so much to the graduating dress as there was once upon a time.

MT. LAKE CONCERT
The Mt. Lake Women's club will, at an early date, give a concert at the Mt. Lake church. This concert is to be a benefit given by talent outside of Mt. Lake district. Some of the best musical ability from Klamath Falls, Merrill and other places will appear on the program. The object is to obtain funds to repair the community church. The date will be announced later.

Winncke's comet's nearest approach to the earth will be 10,000,000 miles, it is announced. Even a comet knows trouble who nit sees it.
