PROVED TO BE THE VERY THING

PORTLAND MAN SAYS TANLAC DID HIM MORE GOOD THAN CHANGE OF CLIMATE.

"For eight years," said John Nelson, well-known carpenter residing at 874 Montana Ave., Portland, Oregon, "I had all kinds of trouble with my stomach. I had to keep myself on a light diet, and even then I suffered terribly with indigestion. I used to eat my dinner every day under a dress, for this indigestion often got so bad I turned so weak I could hardly keep on the job. In trying to find something to help me I even took a trip to California, but I kept going from bad to worse and suffering more and more.

"At last some of my friends put me on to Tanlac and it proved to be just what my stomach needed. My appetite is fine now, and I eat my dinner and then go ahead working in the afternoon just as well as I ever could, for nothing I eat hurts me the least bit. My whole system is stronger and better in every way and I feel full of 'pep' and energy. Tanlac is simply splendid and I am glad to let others know about it."—Adv.

Keeping Children in School is Problem

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Every state now has a compulsory day school attendance law, according to information recently furnished by the U. S. Department of Labor through the children's bureau. The bureau has just completed an analysis of education laws affecting child labor, the results of which are published in a chart entitled "State Compulsory School Standards Affecting the Employment of Minors." In five state attendance is required until 18 years of age, in two of these in certain districts only; in 3 until 17; and in 22 until 16. One state requires attendance until 15, six others and the District until 14, and one state requires attendance until the age of 12 years, but applies this to illiterates only. Unfortunately, the exemptions in the majority of states are so numerous that they greatly limit the application of the law. The most common exemptions are for employment, or upon completion of a specified school grade. Four states specifically exempt for work in agricultural pursuits, 3 with no age provision. The laws of 14 other states contain loosely worded provisions exempting a child at any age, which might be used to cover absence for farm work as well as for many other purposes. Several states exempt a child whose services are necessary for the support of himself or others, without any age or educational provision.

DORRIS WANTS GAME WITH LOCALS SUNDAY

DORRIS, July 11.—The Dorris baseball club is endeavoring to arrange a game with a Klamath Falls team for Sunday, July 17, at Dorris. The local nine is entirely undated since the series of games during the July Fourth celebration. Manager Ethridge is willing to match his aggregation against any of the teams in this locality.

DORRIS PERSONALS

DORRIS, Cal., July 11.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shelley have returned from a week's outing in the mountainous vicinity north of Klamath Falls where they spent their short vacation camping, fishing and roughing it generally.

Harry Peltz, wholesale tobacco and candy salesman from Klamath Falls, was in Dorris and vicinity on business last week-end.

E. A. Blockinger, owner of the Dorris Lumber & Box company, is in town on a short business trip from his home in San Francisco.

James O'Keefe is transferring his spring wood clip from a local warehouse to Southern Pacific freight cars for shipment to Boston.

Fred Rogers is temporarily incapacitated for duty at the Associated Lumber and Box company plant. He is confined to the Dorris hospital where he is treated for rheumatism.

Wm. G. Hagelstein and Chesley Stow drove to Klamath Falls and Algoma via Merrill recently returning late in the evening via Keno. Word has been received by local friends of the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Little and family in Oakland. They drove to the city from Dorris starting last week.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator with the Will annexed of the estate of Charles W. Hare, deceased, has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath county the final account of his administration of said estate and said Court has fixed July 15, 1921, at 3 o'clock P. M., as the time and the Court room of said Court as the place for hearing of said final account and for the settlement thereof. R. C. GROESBECK, Administrator of the Estate of Charles W. Hare, deceased. Dated June 13, 1921. 13,20,27,4,11.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't stay gray! Look young!

Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

Tease lagging appetites with this tempting Baked Custard

Always smooth and velvety made with Carnation

2 eggs, beaten light, 3 tablespoonfuls sugar, grated nutmeg, 1 cup of Carnation Milk diluted with 1 cup of water. Mix together and pour into buttered pan and grate nutmeg over the top. Set in a larger pan of boiling water, and bake in a moderate oven. Insert a clean knife blade, and when it comes out clean the custard is done. Watch it closely to avoid cooking too much.

Because Carnation Milk is twice as rich as ordinary milk, it gives custards, puddings and all foods a finer flavor and added smoothness. Use Carnation in any recipe calling for 1 cup milk—½ cup Carnation diluted with ½ cup water.

Send for Carnation Cook Book containing 100 practical tested recipes. Carnation Milk Products Co., 622 Railway Exchange Bldg., Portland.
